Mr. Merritt said he did not yet know mains will be taken there to morrow. Mr. Merritt said he did not yet know what disposition he should make of the material. The original cost of the car was something over $1,500. All published statements concerning the cost of Grant's funeral car are NVGORATOR pure guess work. Things have not yet taken such a shape that it could be otherwise. Mr. Merritt said last night that he could not tell what his bill would be. He did not yet Is just what its name implies; a his bill would be. He did not yet the purely Vegetable Compound, that acts directly upon the liver; curing the many diseases incided to that important organ, and preventing the number of details which had been an approximate estimate of what his it was impossible to make even an approximate estimate of what his charge would be. The first order came to bim in a telegram from Fred. Grant the day the general died. This covered the canopy, coffin, emplaining and all that was done at Mt. McGregor. The second came from the war depertment, and every species of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies ful.

What the doctors' bills are equally as much in doubt. Dr. Douglas, up to the time of General Grant's death, had received from the family only $1,000. This was in the form of a check made out by the general himself, on receiving an instalment of his retired pay.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he is getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hes-itate to employ a man, who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bald spots covered by using a single bottle.

Ward's Responsibility for Grant's Death.

New York, Aug. 11.—Of the distinguished inmate of the Ludlow street jail, Ferdinand Ward, the plunderer of Gen. Grant, and in the estimation of many his murderer, the fact is made public to-day that Dr. Shrady, on being asked for his opinion as to the justice of such an accusation, re-plied: "Well, it was not strictly cancer that killed the general, for the breaking down of his physique was dependent on other causes. The strain of his financial ruin caused a dreadful prostration. The cancer was well seated when physicians were first called in, yet it is the truth that but for Gen. Grant's depression we should have decided upon a surgical operation that certainly would have prolonged his life, and might pos-sibly have saved him." Upon this reasoning stands this terrible accusation against Ward.
