One day the latter was sent to Silverton on some pretext, and when on his way home was shot dead from an ambush by unknown parties. insurance money of her deceased husband and the pair left hurriedly for California. They drifted about to various portions of the state, and it is learned that they are now living at Sacramento. She, it is stated, is now in a fashionable bagnic there. Nothing is known of Whitney's whereabouts.

The place is out of the way of all mail and telegraph communication, and it will be some days before anything is heard from the steamer. The Spokane was built in 1878.
