Mr. John D. In conversation with a Times reporter he expressed himself as being much surprised at the class of testimony Generals Sheridan and Miles were INVIGORATOR Sheridan and cannot conceive why Sheridan and Miles will even listen an instant to the very men whom they had so much trouble with in 1874."

1874. "Who are they?"

"Well, there is Stone Calf, one of the most bloodthirsty wretches that ever pulled a trigger or brandished a knife. He is the skunk wito murdered a German family near Fort Wallace, Kan, in 1874, and took tour girls captive. He was chased by Gen. Miles and finally allowed to surrender on condition that he would surrender two of the girls. He was tried, and with several of his followers sent to the Dry Tortugas for life."

"How did he get back to the reservation."

"He has a son-in-law, a white man, who has friends in Washington. Their influence was secured and els, Strengthens the System, Purifies the Blood, Assists Digestion, Prevents Fevers. Is a Household Need. An Invaluable Ferally Medicine for common complaints. and Stone Calf was returned to the agency. Then there is Little Medi-cine, who will be remembered as the Indian who murdered Capt. Short, at Lawrence. There are others who have committed a long list of the blackest crimes on record. They do not care a snap about the cattle men and their leases, though, as I under stand, they have refused to accept any lease money."

"What is their object in making trouble then?" "It is merely a blind to give them a chance to go out again on a tour of crime and plunder: Their disposi-tions are such that they must have excitement. I see the statement is made that a good deal of the feeling shown by Gen. Sheridan against the cattlemen is caused by the fact that Brother Mike was injured by the present holders of the leases, who took and paid for the grounds that he had been grazing on for about nothing. I shouldn't be surprised if there is something in this statement." Mr. Miles thought the proclama-tion of President Cleveland had been issued without a thorough understanding of the whole question, and he thought a more careful investigation would lead the government to recognize the rights of the cattle men in the premises.—Kansas City
