THE SILVER QUESTION.
LONDON, Sept. 3.—The silver question is assuming great interest in financial and political circles here. Alexander Dolmar and Martin Frewen, Leonard Jerome's son-in-law, have been interviewed on both sides of the question. The former is of the opinion that deluge and disaster are threatened in America because silver is likely to become demoted. The latter denies this likelihood and says: "No question of the day is the sale of the future of silver. We in England require to know betimes what action congress will take on this issue. A fall of one-quarter per cent in the price of silver per ounce has absolutely dislocated our commercial relations with all those nations that use silver. What then might not be the effect of the demotion of silver by a country of the commercial importance of the United States? Surely the prospect of a sale of $200,000,000 in value, and the cessation of all demand for silver by the United States must suggest that such financial disaster as this age has not witnessed—a disaster that by effecting an immense appreciation of gold would lead to widespread repudiation of debts, which England, the great creditor nation, would be first to feel. The question of repeal of the Bland act should occupy the attention of the British government. The trading community of America knows that the day it enters on an exclusive gold basis control of the export trade in wheat and cotton will be handed over to India. England's position as a gold monometallic country has, by the help of free trade, reduced her to the level of a mere dumping ground for the outside world to sift their exchange in." In commercial circles the silver question in the United States, and what congress will do, will increase in interest. The general tone of the press is that southern and western congressmen of both parties should combine to retain the Bland bill.

STEAMSHIP WRECKED.
St. John's, Sept. 2.—The Allan line mail steamer Hanoverian is a total loss, having gone ashore this morning at Portugal Cove, fourteen miles north by west of Cape Race. The steamer Nimrod was dispatched this afternoon to rescue the passengers and crew, who are thought to be safe. A gale of wind and a dense fog prevented the steamer Nimrod from going to the scene of the wreck. The Hanoverian left Halifax at noon on Monday, with fifty-seven passengers and her normal crew. She experienced fine weather until near St. Pierre island, when an impenetrable fog was encountered, and by false steering, error of the compass or neglect to make soundings, the steamer was driven at a high rate of speed into Portugal cove, seven miles east of Trepassy, where she now lies, a total wreck. She passed over a number of hidden rocks, which ripped her bottom almost her whole length. The main hold filled with water, and it is not probable the cargo can be saved. The passengers are now en route to Trepassy, where they can receive accommodations and comfort until the war ship Tenedos reaches there, to convey them to St. John's. Other steamers follow to render assistance. A New York steamer of the Red Cross line has been signaled from Cape Race to proceed to the scene of the disaster. Steam tugs have also been despatched to the rescue. No loss of life has been reported.

Pension Frauds.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—There have enough facts come to light here to justify the belief that a corrupt ring of clerks and higher officials in the pension office have been robbing the government for many years past. Walter A. Shuckers, the new superintendent of the pension building, is the man who should have the credit for the discovery of this ring. The whole matter is in the hands of the city detective force and they are making most strenuous efforts to get at the bottom of the charges. Enough has already been ascertained to send several of the suspected parties to the penitentiary.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.—The work of loading the Sucalara with silver coin from the mint began yesterday. Floats are employed in the transportation of the silver which is placed on wagons at the mint vaults. The Sucalara brought 2,000 wooden boxes, strapped with iron. A squad of marines accompanies the wagon to the vessel, where the silver is deposited in the magazine. It is proposed that the Sucalara and the Yantic shall take between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000 of the $16,500,000 in the mint.

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—Germany says: "One hundred and forty thousand Prussians have just been expelled from Warsaw. They were arrested and chained together and compelled to march, the women following the men, and stopping in prisons." The Posen Courier published a long list of wealthy Poles who have been expelled from Prussia.

There are two sides to every question, and as sure as you are born the other man, by some blundering fatality, always takes the wrong side.

MADE THE CHINAMEN GO.
CHEYENNE, Sept. 2.—The Leader has the following special from Rock Springs, Wyo.: The largest coal mines in the entire Union Pacific system are at Rock Springs, 250 miles west of Cheyenne. The company recently imported a large number of Chinese to take the place of white men. This afternoon the entire force of white miners, about 150 strong, organized and armed with shotguns marched to Chinatown. After firing a volley into the air they reloaded and ordered the Chinamen to leave. The order was obeyed at once, the Chinamen fleeing to the hills like a drove of sheep, closely pursued by the miners, who fired several volleys after the fugitives with fatal effect. The Chinese quarters were then set on fire, and thirty-nine houses owned by the company destroyed, with their contents. The miners next visited various mines in the camp, unearthing all the Chinamen at work therein and told them to flee for their lives. Of 400 Chinamen here this morning not one remains. All are in the adjacent hills, heading for Green river, fourteen miles west. Seven were killed outright by shots fired by the miners, and many were wounded. It is said that several feeble and helpless from disease perished in the flames. Sheriff Young arrived from Green river on a special train this evening, with a posse of deputies, but too late to prevent the mob from carrying out their plans. The miners quietly dispersed after making sure of the departure of the celestials, and all is quiet now.

THE C. & O. ROAD.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Colonel Charles F. Crocker, of the California and Oregon Railroad, said: "We will work a small force of men."
"Will the road certainly be built?"
"That depends entirely on our ability to raise the money needed on bonds. We have not got the money needed, and we depend upon the confidence of capitalists. It will be no trouble to raise the money when the land grant is secured. The people of California are anxious to see the road pushed to completion."

VICTORIA, Sept. 2.—A Chinaman who arrived on the Elder, paid $50 head tax, and was allowed to land. This is the first money collected under the Chinese regulation act.

The simplex in the laboratory of nature are health giving. What can be more reviving than the odor of the pine forests? And when it is remembered that St. Jacobs Oil has in it the essential elements which give this life and strength, it can be well understood what a boon it is to the afflicted.

Work on the Palouse branch of the O. R. & N. between Moscow and Colfax is progressing rapidly. The entire grade has been completed and track is being laid rapidly, and by the 10th of this month, Pullman, eighteen miles from Colfax, will be reached. The line will be completed and in readiness for occupation by September 25th.

The bark Montana, from San Francisco, went ashore near Shagok, Alaska, on July 31st and became a total wreck. The vessel was worth $12,000.

The Changer of an Alarm Bell
Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trilling notes the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are traced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefited by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.
