The Pacific Journal learns that the following log camps on and in the vicinity of the Willapa river have been and are mactive operation this year. Freeman Albright, at Elk prairie, employing eight men; Wallace Campbell, on Fern creek, nine or ten men; Wm. Walker, at Fork's prairie, three men; James McGee, at Half Moon prairie, four men; Smith & Wilson, on Fork's creek, four men; Giesy & Drissler, on Trap creek, four men; Forney Soule's camp, on the south fork of the Willapa, fifteen men; Wm. Ellis, on the south fork, three men; Ellis & Weatherford, on the south fork, three men; Henry Ellis, on the south fork, seven or eight men; Hastings & Brown, on the south fork, three men; McDonald's camp, on Mill creek, four men. The output of logs will not be so large this as that of last year. The rain, which, in the Willapa valley, was continuous on Satur-day and Saturday night and on Mon-day afternoon and night last, has raised the creeks and river considerably, and some think early rains will cause the loggers to run their logs earlier this fall than usual.

There are several "capable women in Tillamook - among them Miss Maggie Fearnside, who superintends her father's home, clerks in his store, and is his bookkeeper. Her worth has just been recognized in her appointment as postmaster to succeed Mr. Chas. Miller, recently resigned. Another woman runs a store, another helps conduct a hotel, another is part proprietor of the toll road over the mountains, and several are engaged in school teaching. At least one young woman, Miss Lizzie Hoxie, has taken up a land claim near the bay, has a cabin erected, and will soon secure a title to it. - New Northwest.

Better than She Expected. "Your letter received. In reply am happy to say that Parker's Hair Balsam did much more for me than you said it would, or than I expected. My hair has not only stopped falling out, but the bald spots are all covered, and all my hair grown thicker, softer and more lively than it was before my sickness a year ago. Thank you again and again." Extract from letters of Mr. B. W. T., West Fifty-third street, New York.

"In Siam the cats have their tails banged and dyed a bright yellow; the forests abound with pink and white Albino monkeys: the python and boa attain to gigantic proportions." In Siam a man tells when he has em more by the way he feels than by what he sees.

Cure For Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some effection patient to suppose he has some effection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uncasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's File remedy, which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure.
