Terms of Subscription. Served by Carrier, per week, 15c. Sent by Mail, per month, 45c. One year, $5.00. Free of postage to subscribers.

Advertisements inserted by the year at the rate of $2 per square per month. Transient advertising fifty cents per square, each insertion.

Notice to Advertisers. THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

This paper is on file at the St. Charles Hotel, Portland, Or.

The bark British Army sailed for Queenstown yesterday morning.

Boxes for Puget sound canning establishments are among Astoria's exports.

Returning sportsmen report great success in their onslaughts on fur, fin and feather.

A 300 lb sturgeon got up as far as Portland last Thursday, where it was caught and sold for $150.

The Telephone comes down to-day, returning at two P. M. This will be her last Saturday trip of the season.

E. C. Holden will have an auction sale this morning at 10:30 A. M. of second hand furniture, and a bankrupt stock of clothing, etc.

About fifty laborers, principally Chinese, were sent up from Sacramento, Cal., last Thursday, to work upon the extension of the California & Oregon railroad.

The Idaho is due from Alaska today. She has $82,000 in gold aboard from the Alaska mines. Senator Jones, of Nevada, and family, are among the passengers.

Nearly 1,000 tons of Oregon fruit have been shipped to the east this season, as a sort of return compliment for the bacon, lard and other combustibles sent out this way.

The little fleet that catches salmon trout and tom cod, in the stream numbered eighteen yesterday, strung along from a point opposite Booth's cannery to the West Shore mills.

The case between Jos. and Ben. Holladay was taken up before Judge Stearns in Portland last Thursday. There is a noble array of counsel on each side, including District Attorney Genrin.

Six burglaries and petty larcenies in Seattle in a few days, makes the Post-Intelligencer tell the police that these are taken to rid the place of them, the citizens will take the matter in hand.

County Surveyor Parker, and Messrs. Spedden, Brallier and Stone, started at Skipanon landing last Thursday to view the Clatsop road. Their progress this way is necessarily slow, owing to the tide.

Sewers are being built on Benton street from Seventh street to the river. The money paid to the city by property owners will build some of them; 'tis said that toward Concomly street the estimate will fall short of the actual cost.

At the annual election of the I. S. N. Co. held last Thursday, L. A. Loomis, H. S. Gile, J. H. D. Gray, I. W. Case, and B. A. Seaborg were elected board of directors; L. A. Loomis was re-elected president, J. R. Goulter, secretary, I. W. Case, treasurer.

Jonathan Palmer, living near Centralia, Lewis county, W. T., was caught in the horsepower of a threshing last Monday, and was so badly mangled that the amputation of one of his legs was necessary. The shock was so great that he did not overcome it, and Thursday morning he died in great agony.

In Garfield county, W. T., there are 727 single men and only 68 married women. The Glenwood Echo says: We want girls in Garfield county, blondes, brunettes, tall, short, fat, lean, jolly girls—girls who can ride in carriages, play the piano, make crazy quilts, sew, wash, iron and cook for us. We are 669 girls short here, and we want all the girls to know it.

Concerning increased mail facilities it is thought well to have the present service expedited so that the mail route time between here and Portland should be eight hours, and also to put on a night mail route of twelve boxes between the two cities. It is argued that a night boat would carry a good many passengers who can poorly afford the loss of time involved by a day ride.

A satisfactory result of the starting of the work of improving the Columbia at Ft. Stevens, is the fact that the workmen employed in building the jetty have not been able to get to low water. The spit makes out as fast as the jetty is extended. It is to be hoped a liberal appropriation from congress next winter will enable the work to go on with increased vigor next season.

A recent sale of 10,000 cases salmon. Flag brand, is reported at 95 @ 97 1/2 cents, last of the season's pack under that brand. There is very little in first hands on the river; not since '76 was there so light a quantity on manufacturers' hands as at present. The British Columbia pack is 108,500 cases of which 89,500 cases were canned on the Fraser river and 19,000 on the Skeena and other rivers.

Common justice to the service suggests that the new lighthouse tender, the Madrona, should be sent here instead of to San Francisco. The statement that she is "too large" is ridiculous. The probability is that she is not large enough. This district comprises a long sweep of coast, with over 200 buoys to look after; the San Francisco district only embraces the vicinity of San Francisco with less than fifty buoys. The Madrona, by right, should come to the Columbia river.

WENT OUT.

Presumably For a Little Country Exercise. About four o'clock yesterday morning Thompson and Gray, confined in cell No. 1, on the right hand side in the alleged $10,000 corn crib situated on the court house lot, went out and at last accounts were still out which shows excellent judgment on their part. Thompson was indicted last January, but got away and was arrested but a few days ago. Gray was held in default of bonds to appear before the grand jury that didn't convene on the 7th inst., to answer to a charge of larceny. This makes seven prisoners that have escaped since last May.

The two that went out yesterday morning took a six foot piece of two-inch plank, which they found conveniently in the floor of their cell, and pulled out the lock and stanchion that was on the door of their cell. Then they took half a dozen big stones that they found under the two-inch plank and pried open the grating on the corridor. After that it was very easy to spring the bolt on the iron door that led to the vestibule; the front door was probably opened with a toothpick. The only reason the twelve others who are "in jail" didn't go was because they didn't want to. The morning was a chilly one, and to go out without their morning coffee would have been rash. Thompson and Gray coaxed them to come on, but they didn't feel that way. Their conduct in refusing to go out was praiseworthy; some protection is due them, lest at any time some evil disposed person should see fit to break in upon them in their defenceless state.

The door of the private boudoir to the right of the vestibule stood invitingly open and one of the departing gentlemen took time to sample the contents of a trunk that was firmly protected by means of a clothes line, abstracting therefrom a suit of clothes and two shirts. Every thing connected with the departure was conducted with leisure and a due regard to the decorum due the occasion. It may be said that Messrs. Thompson and Gray might have replaced the boulders and the two-inch plank in the cell they vacated, but yet, too much can not be expected from gentlemen who for obvious reasons wished to be spared the annoyance of observation.

Since the escape of the five prisoners last May the inmates of the crib have been locked in their cells, to the faulty construction of which is due the repeated and successful efforts to escape. When Deputy Sheriff Moffett and two or three visitors were looking at the premises yesterday morning, upon coming out, it took the aid of three of the inmates to close the grating from the inside, they obligingly helping to lock themselves in. Their continued residence in the concern seems to be more a matter of choice than necessity, and reflects great credit on the gentleman who has the contract for boarding them.

Y. M. C. A.

Last evening's social at the Y. M. C. A. rooms was in every way a success. C. A. Hanson, the president of the association, opened with a few preliminary remarks, followed by E. C. Holden, who gave a terse description of the aims and purposes of the association in the practical work of the fall and winter. Solos were sung by Mrs. G. F. Parker, Miss Agnes Garner, D. A. McIntosh and W. T. Ross, Miss Nellie Flavel, accompanist. A recitation was delivered by Miss Pearl Holden. Eighteen signified their intention to join the evening classes which begin next week. Carlos Mann will take charge of the class in mathematics, Dr. Martin the class in bookkeeping, and J. T. Ross the class in shorthand.

Thieves at Work. The residence of Mrs. Dunbar was entered last Thursday evening before nine o'clock and $80 in money belonging to a servant girl stolen. The thief also took a felt hat. As jills do not seem to be any protection it stands people in hand to look out and when anyone is caught he should be summarily dealt with. The fellow that robbed Spexarth's gun store a few nights ago said he came down from Portland, by way of Knappa with two companions in a boat and they separated at Tongue point; the two others may be heard from.

At a special meeting of the Astoria Ladies' coffee club last evening, Mrs. J. W. Hume was elected president, Mrs. F. Prall, vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Barry, secretary, Mrs. I. Bergman, treasurer. The following named ladies were elected board of directors: Mrs. I. Bergman, Mrs. J. G. Charters, Mrs. C. H. Bain. The members of the club deserve credit for their zeal in their gratuitous work in aid of the Astoria fire department, of which the coffee club is an important adjunct.

Kensington Embroidery. Kensington painting and point lace. Lessons given by a competent teacher. A class will be formed on Wednesday, Sept. 23rd at 2 P. M., at late residence of M. D. Kant, on the hill at head of Cass street (up stairs). Charges reasonable.

Do You Know. Carl Adler has just received 1,500 boxes of Sanford's celebrated inks, known to be the best ink made in the U. S., direct from the factory and is enabled to sell the same at a ridiculous low figure; 3 oz. bottles of jet black school ink only 5 cents; a flat glass inkstand with 2 oz. black ink, patent cover, only 20 cents. Copying and marking inks in every color, size and quality. 1,500 bottles to be given away in the next few days at Adler's Book Store.

Cheap Reading Matter. Leslie's Popular Monthly for October, and Ogilvie's Popular Reading; a full stock just received at Adler's; only 25 cents per number.

For Doll's Clothes go to the sale on Saturday.

D. C. IRELAND ON ADVERTISING.

Referring to an article from an Albany contemporary lately, concerning advertising, perhaps not more than one man in twenty in business in a town like McMinnville, for instance, fully understands why he is under obligations to the local paper. If they regarded their local newspaper in the proper light, their patronage would be doubled, and, as a result, the average country newspaper would attain a point of excellence far in advance of its present position in journalism. There is a mistaken idea among business men in regard to placing an advertisement. When asked for an advertisement the merchant will reply: "It does no good; everybody around here knows me and what I keep, and money paid out in this way is thrown away," etc. Now, if these men could but realize the ungratefulness of such answers and the shallowness of such an argument, they would never make use of them. We do not claim that a merchant creates a demand for goods by advertising them. It is not expected that a farmer will rush to a store and buy something he does not want because he sees it advertised. This is not the idea. But we insist that people do read the ads. If you do not believe it; just insert in the most obscure ad. in the paper a very small line saying, for instance, as suggested by the Albany paper, that you have a house a lot for sale at $10, and see how quickly you will hear from it. Admit then, that everybody reads the advertisements buyers will patronize the man who uses printer's ink in preference to the man who don't. The business man who gives the newspaper a liberal patronage is always regarded as the best man to deal with. People argue that a man who is liberal to a newspaper will be liberal in a like manner with his customers. The name of a man who is a constant advertiser becomes a household word, and he is naturally sought after. There are many other reasons why a newspaper man has a right to expect patronage from the business men of the town. Every public sale gets a free advertisement in the paper; every social gathering is augmented through the newspaper, a thousand things which transpire to bring people to town are given publicity through the local paper. The oftener people congregate in town, the better for the business men. The local paper is always seeking a good word for the town and people always throwing out little hints that bring good men and good money into the place, and performing a thousand and one other duties that put money into the pockets of many who, in turn, do nothing for its support. Gentlemen look at these things from an honorable standpoint. Donate nothing, but be fair enough to reimburse the printer for actual service rendered. People naturally, and justly, feel proud of a first-class local paper, but there can be no such when public spirit is not manifest.—McMinnville Reporter, 24.

Astoria Steamers. Wilson & Fisher shipped eight tons of flour on the South Bend last Thursday and twenty-five yesterday on the Kate and Anna to Shoalwater bay; the Tom Morris is building up a nice little trade on Young's river; the Annie is also running on the same route; the Lillian and Novelty ply between here and Knappa, the Union and Improvement go to Gray's river, the Gleason, Gen. Custer and other steamboats being always on hand for raft towing, etc. The Mountaineer has a fine trade between here, Knappa, Westport, Cathlamet and way points. These little boats are of importance to Astoria as the means of building up a trade with our coast and river neighbors.

Help in Need. On Saturday the Poltkofsky found the steamer Yakima in a disabled condition off Lippis Point, she having broken her shaft. The wind was blowing, the water was rough, and the Yakima was rapidly drifting on to a rock-bound shore, when Captain Frank Smith of the Polly sighted her and hastened to the rescue just in time to save her from destruction. "Did you charge the Yakima anything, captain?" asked the writer. "Not much," replied Captain Frank. "I might get into a snap myself some time. A person can never tell when it will be his turn next."—Post-Intelligencer, 22.

Imported Ideas and Breeches. At the outbreak of the civil war Fernando Wood expressed public opinion faithfully when he suggested that New York should become a free city and stay neutral in the coming struggle. So now New York takes the English and not the American view of the silver question. New Yorkers import their breeches—from London. The ideas, like the breeches, may be good of their kind.—S. P. Chronicle, 21.

Duplicates Sent. St. HELENA, Or., Sept. 24, 1885. EDITOR ASTORIAN: Please announce in THE DAILY ASTORIAN to all the subscribers, owing to the first lot being so full of typographical errors. I was absent and could not read the proof. Yours, E. G. ADAMS.

Children's Sale. The children's guild of the Sunday school of Grace church has been busy at work for some months past in preparing fancy articles for a sale for the benefit of their Sunday school. These articles are now ready and will be offered for sale this Saturday afternoon in the new building corner Main and Squemoqua sts, owned by Alex. Gilbert.

There is a considerable supply of things that boys and girls would like, and a cordial invitation is extended to all boys and girls to come and see and buy.

A NEW INDUSTRY ON PUGET SOUND.

A new industry is to be started at Friday Harbor, on San Juan island, by Portland capitalists. It will be an establishment for the manufacturing of fish oil, fish glue, guano, and also for pickling fish. The object is to make all possible use of the fish which abound in Puget sound waters for commercial purposes, as for instance: Oil and glue will be made from herring, dog-fish and cat-fish; salmon will be salted; halibut will be dried and smoked, glue can be made from the heads of all fish. The factory will be complete with first-class machinery for this purpose, so that every part of a fish and all kinds will be utilized. Two of the gentlemen who will form part of the company, Messrs. Habersham and Bell, of Portland, were in the city a few days during the week, and while here contracted with the Townsend mill company for 50,000 feet of lumber, which will be used for the buildings at Friday Harbor. Mr. Bell stated that after making inquiries about purchasing material, he found that lumber could be bought at Port Townsend and shipped from here at less cost than from any other port on the Sound. The lumber will be loaded on a scow and towed to San Juan island by one of our local steamers. Mr. Bell went down to Friday Harbor, where he will remain and superintend the construction of the works. Mr. Habersham returned to Portland.—Port Townsend Call.

HOLLADAY VERSUS HOLLADAY. The state circuit court, department No. 2, was crowded with legal talent yesterday, many of them being imbued with curiosity to hear the report of the referee in the now celebrated case of Benjamin vs. Joseph Holladay. Ben. is represented by Messrs. H. Y. Thompson, C. B. Bellinger and George H. Durham, while Joe's interests are in the hands of Messrs. Strong & Strong and Russell J. Wilson. The property in litigation is worth about $1,000,000.

Messrs. Gilbert & Geatin represent the state in a side issue in the litigation. They also take note of the $163,000 made by Ben. Holladay to Joe's was unscrupulous for the reason that the interest of 12 per cent. per annum was compounded monthly. The note bears a San Francisco date, but the attorneys for the state claim that this makes no difference. Under the laws of Oregon the whole amount of the note, minus 10 per cent. goes to the Multnomah county school fund, if the usury is proven. The 10 per cent. goes to Mr. Geatin for prosecuting the case. The testimony covers over 900 pages, and it is anticipated that the trial will not be concluded until Monday next.—News, 25.

Wide Awake Druggists. Messrs. W. E. Dement & Co. are always alive to their business, and spare no pains to secure the best of every article in their line. They have secured the agent for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The only certain cure known for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat and Lungs. Sold on a positive guarantee. Trial Bottles free. Regular size $1.00.

Corporal William H. Gore and private Mooney, of company A, 2nd Infantry, came in from Fort Vancouver this morning with Peter Hanson, a deserter from company L, 1st artillery, at Fort Stevens on the Columbia river. The officers had Hanson under arrest and were conveying him to Fort Vancouver, where he will be turned over to the commanding officer and tried for desertion.—Tacoma News, 22.

Mortgage for a Million. The Farmers' Loan and Trust company filed a mortgage in the county clerk's office, yesterday, given it by the Oregon Railway and Navigation company. The mortgage is given on sundry pieces of property too numerous to mention here and scattered all over Oregon wherever the O. R. & N. company has interests. The sum mentioned in the document is $1,016,454.36, which is made up as an indebtedness, as follows: To Henry Villard, an indebtedness of $425,622.96; to N. P. Hollowell and George O. Manhester, an indebtedness of $518,781.60; and to C. H. Prescott as trustee, $75,050. These immense sums are secured by the mortgage, which covers thirty-four pages of printed matter the size of an ordinary book. The most astonishing revelation is that the company owns Henry Villard nearly a half million dollars. That fact lays in the shade the other one that the company is over a million dollars in debt.—Standard, 25.

A PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND GIRL. The kind of girl they grow in Rose valley, Prince Edward island, is illustrated by the following incident, which took place at Bredalbane last week: One of the fair maids of the valley drove in a single wagon and pulled up in front of a store occupied by a well-known speculator. She gracefully alighted from the vehicle and inquired the price of flour. The proprietor was standing in front of the store in conversation with a number of friends. He pointed to a barrel of flour on the platform, and said: "Miss M—, if you put that barrel of flour in your wagon you can have it for nothing." It is known that the gentleman who made this reply is not given to charity or liberal with his fair share of the world's goods, and his astonishment and disgust may be more easily imagined than described when the fair maid of Rose valley gripped the barrel and landed it clean over the front wheel into the body of the wagon, took her seat upon it, and thanking the merchant for his kindness, drove off amid the cheers of those who witnessed the act.—Toronto Mail.
