

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1885. THE RUSSIAN BEAR.

The bear was rightly chosen as the Russian representative in animated nature. Nothing could so perfectly symbolize Russia's restless, impatient pushing for the enlargement of her sphere of action or of devastation, as the bear's incessant tugging at the chain that restrains him of liberty.

The Mexicans have begun a warfare against polygamy, and well grounded rumors are afloat that a demand has been made of President Diaz that he rescind the grant of land in northern Chihuahua to the Mormons.

For sometime several of the counties have been delinquent in the matter of paying state taxes, the question being, would the counties have to pay their share of the state tax whether delinquent or not.

The N. Y. Tribune prints a statement from Ferdinand Ward, the man who ruined Grant, in which he says: "I don't pay $100 weekly for board accommodations in Ludlow street jail, as has been reported. I do pay $40 per week, I have received bills which show it. The money I pay was given to me. A friend of mine sent me a check for $5,000, expressly stipulating that I should use the money for the sole purpose of paying my expenses here."

Black sand beach mining is lively in the southern part of the state. The Coquille Herald reports that several parties have sold six black sand claims, including the Joshua Wright claim, back of Randolph, for $540,000.

Eagle mine in addition to the above and intend to start up with 100 men. Several other rich companies have their agents scouring that part of the country, and locations are being made.

CONSIDERABLE anxiety is felt by several cattlemen in Baker county over the rumor that the agents of a Chicago firm buying largely in that section recently are not reliable. About $49,000 has been paid out in checks on Chicago banks to several dealers, and the rumors of protested checks having reached Baker City to other parties.

THE Herald of the 26th, says, in commenting on the Democratic convention proceedings, that "the adoption of Hill as a platform in himself has already driven the mugwumps in the Republican ranks for this New York campaign. They marched back in full force yesterday, with the Times, Evening Post and Brooklyn Union at their head. The fatted calf is roasted for them, in spite of the Tribune's protest."

It is predicted that buffaloes will soon be a curiosity in any part of Dakota. The overcoats made of buffalo hides have nearly doubled in price since last year. They have been generally worn in Dakota, but will soon rank in price with sealskins.

A FARMER in Little Compton, R. I., who makes a specialty of keeping fowls, and has about seventeen thousand, says that each clears for him about one dollar a year. On this great farm the natural way of hatching chickens is not practiced at all.

P. L. ETHERIDGE, of Guerneville, Sonoma Co., Cal., now dying confesses, that at the instance of one Haas, he twice set fire to the town to get insurance on Haas' goods. The citizens of Guerneville want him to recover that they may have a necktie party.

AUGUST BELMONT'S mission to London, for the purpose of selling Northern Pacific second mortgage bonds, has been successful. A syndicate of bankers have taken the issue, which will soon be offered to the public.

THE Ancon, recently repaired at Victoria, started for San Francisco last Saturday, but broke down again and put back to port.

THE senate and chamber of delegates have passed a bill for the gradual abolition of slavery in Brazil.
