

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1885 SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE.

It is a quite singular coincidence, says the S. F. Bulletin, that while the people of Washington territory are taking steps to evict the Chinese on November 7th; while Chinese can only remain in Rock Springs, Wyoming territory, because they are protected by federal bayonets; and while 300 deputy marshals are needed to guard the Chinese in Butte, Montana territory, the Chinese government is marching an army of 10,000 men to expel a colony of American and Australian gold diggers, who are taking out gold in a region lying near the frontier of Manchuria, Corea and Russia.

We have not the rights in China which, in a foolish moment, we conceded to that nation. We can not mine for gold or silver or coal there. Our citizens cannot engage in manufacturing or commerce in China proper. They can only carry on such business in the treaty ports which are, so far as custom dues are concerned, foreign territory to China.

GEN. LEW WALLACE, ex-minister to Turkey, in an interview says, in regard to the Balkan troubles: "I do not think any action will be taken by Turkey until the signatory powers meet. The sultan has too much common sense to rush haphazard into war. He will await the issue of the conference. In case of a disagreement between the powers probably the whole of Europe will be swept into hostilities—Russia, France and Italy on one side, and England and Austria on the other."

of several thousand rose in riot smashed the health office and tried to kill the health officers and the council. Then they tried to gut the office of a newspaper that had advocated vaccination. The mob was not drunk nor crazy, just ignorant and densely stupid. Troops were called out and the riot quelled.

FRANCE though a republic is taxed the highest of any European country. Eternal vigilance and 109 francs a year is what liberty costs the French nation individually every year. The 109 francs have to be forthcoming whether the e. v. is or not.

The California Southern railroad is about completed, and by the 15th inst., through trains will run into San Diego from the east.
