THIS PAPER may be found on file at Geo. P. cts may be made for it IN NEW YORK. A Matter of Policy.

A beautiful and bashful young woman of nineteen summers called recently at the office of a life insurance agent, and asked him timidly if he could tell her how long people of a cartain are would live.

a certain age would live.
"Madam," replied the agent, coughing respectfully behind a proscoughing respectfully behind a pros-pectus, and drawing his chair near to her, "hear are our tables of expecta-tion and average mortality, which contain all the information upon the subject that you can desire."

"Well," said she, "how long will a man of 67, and that eats peas with his knife live?"

"According to our table, madam."

"According to our table, madam," replied the agent, "he should on the average, survive cleven years, three months and sixteen days."

"That," said the visitor, "would be till the 21st of April, 1896?" "Precisely, madam, on the average expectation of mortality, for we must all die, and it is therefore well to in-sure against loss to the loved ones in

"And how much could I insure his lite for "" "Oh, for any amount—say for $10,000!" he answered taking up a blank form of application. "Let me recommend the unexcepted advantages offered by our non-forfeitable endow

a company whose character .---

ment policy."

"Well," said the young woman,
"I think, then, that I'll marry him." "Insure him, you mean?"

rected the agent.
"No, marry him; you insure him.
You see," she added with a burst of confidence, "I love Herbert, and Mr. confidence, "I love Herbert, and Mr. Dawkins is old enough to be my grandfather. But Herbert is poor, and I just worship the corner lots that Mr. Dawkins builds on. And Herbert is very patient, and says that if I will only fix a day, no matter how long he may have to wait, he will be happy. Now you say Mr. Dawkins will die by the 21st of April, 1896; and as it wouldn't be decent to Send for Hew to Chrest to Discuss marry again till I've been a year in GRUSS Phuples, Skin Blembshes and Baby marry again till I've been a year in mourning, I'll arrange to marry Her-bert on the 22d of April, 1897, and if Mr. Dawkins doesn't die by then you'll give me $10,000. Oh, thank you!" and with a deep bow she swept out of the office.

Your Boy's Companions.

See that your boys have good associates. A mother is quick to ob-serve; she can judge the kind of companions her boys have by their behavior in the house when the boys bring them home, and, if she knows they are not all she would wish, will advise and admonish they are not good. Better let them have a few good companions than many who are "hail fellows well met." A father has more opportunities for observing the outside life of the boys than the mother, and should spare a few minutes of his surplus time to inquire into the outside life of his boys just entering into life. A well regulated household depends upon the conduct of the father as of the mother. Com-man's year children's respect from their intency and you will always have it through life.

"It used to be real fun to watch my mother make cookies," remarked McGurgle to his wife. "Make cookies!" "Yes, these kind of snaps," he said, lifting another off the plate. "Why was it fun to see your mother make them?" "Because she did it so gingerly," he answered, dodging the pickle-dish, followed by the spoon-holder. lowed by the spoon-holder.
