Magnetic People,

People are always talking about personal fascination, as though it were some occult quality of which no account can be given. Some are born magnetic, they say, and some are not and, with the vague term magnetic, they hand the matter over to the world of mystery. Young girls, for example, are in a state of chronic bewilderment over the puzzle of this question. They see one of their mates making a ten-strike among the men at a ball. How does she do it, they cry. She is not half so pretty as Ellen Jones or Mary Alcott, and there they sit in the corner. She is not as sweet and amiable as this one, as sensible and true as that, and yet were she honey and the men bees, no more lively swarming would be witnorsed. There is no use trying to find out the secret; she has the oc-cult quality of magnetism, and that is all that can be said. No, young ladies, you are simply on the wrong scent. Very likely, the open secret lies in no charmool beauty or intelli-gence, but in a quick and electric vi-vacity of spirits that acts like a breeze on the sluggish water, making the waves begin to skip and dance so producing an exhilarating effect all round. Now, what is there on the face of the earth people so crave as to be exhibitanted, and so delivered from the oppression of lumpishness and stupidity? These young fellows feel this in the depths. They are bashful, paralyzed and have nothing to say. Suddenly this young girl wakes them up and they find themselves laughing and rattling away. The blood is circulating, the feet are dancing, the sense or nonsense, is streaming merrily through their brains. No wonder each one wants to get into contact with this electric battery. The secret of personal fascination always lies in one single point, that is, in power to excite in another person happy feelings of a high degree of intensity and to make that person identify such feelings with the charm and power of the cherished cause of them

A Mournful Prophecy of Woes,

Prof. Grimmer in a pamphlet published in 1879 predicted seven years of disaster and famine, beginning with 1880 and ending with 1887, during which the world will be a hell of strife and carnage. He said: "From 1880 to 1887 will be one uni versal carnival of death. Asia will be depopulated, Europe nearly so. America will lose fitteen millions of her people. Besides a plague we are to have storms and tidal waves, mountains are to toss their heads thro' the choicest valleys, navigators will be lost by the thousands owing to the capricious deflexures of the to the capricious ucin and sill ap-magnetic needle, and islands will appear and disappear in the ocean. the beasts, birds and fishes will be diseased, famine and civil strife will destroy most of the human beings left alive by plague, and finally two years of fire —1885 to 1887—will rage with fury in every part of the globe. In 1887 the 'Star of Bethlehem' will 'reappear in Cassiopia's Chair,' the immediate results being universal war and portentous floods and shipwrecks. North America is to be again involved in civil war unless a 'Napoleon' arises to quell it, but during these terrible days the Pacific States will be a veritable paradise of peace, compared to the hellish strife that will be waged throughout the world. The people that may manage to survive till 1887 will have reason to be thankful."

What Parents Feur.

Many persons especially parents object to quack nostrums as likely to engender or encourage a love for strong drink. They are right. Better to die of disease than of drunkenness. The use of Parker's Tonic does not involve this danger. It not only builds up the system, curing all ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, but it stimulates without intoxicating and absolutely cures the appetite for liquor.
