

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1885

The Columbia sailed for San Francisco yesterday morning.

The rainy season has set in, but milk doesn't seem to get any cheaper.

The Washington Packing Co. will hold its annual meeting at one o'clock this afternoon.

The barometer was lower yesterday than at any time this season.

Carl Adler offers special inducements to any newspaper or magazine publisher.

The Statesman hears it as a rumor that Judge Dawne is not in Alaska, and that his present whereabouts is unknown.

The usual bear stories have not come to hand yet; duck and grouse stories are common enough.

Wilson & Fisher's delivery wagon was badly damaged yesterday morning, the horse attached to it running away and overturning it.

The Bonita arrived at San Francisco last Monday from Alaskan ports. She brought down the crew of the wrecked whaling bark Montana.

Remember that Cushing Post Cornet band give fine music at the skating rink every Saturday evening.

Postmaster Chance, who loves a joke as well as anybody, while going down street yesterday morning with a long square box under his arm.

Several of Barbara Frazier's neighbors united in sending a petition yesterday to the county court asking that that nuisance be sent to the asylum or somewhere else where she won't bother people.

Jack Dempsey sent a challenge yesterday to Burke, of San Francisco, to come up to Portland and fight him.

The United States grand jury convened in Portland yesterday. Among the matters to be examined into is that of James Maxwell, who murdered John Welch on board the Olive St. Southern, October 18th.

Capt. Al Stream came over from North Cove in the tug Hunter yesterday.

J. A. McCrea goes to Victoria this morning where he takes a government position.

Miss Clara S. Foltz, the "lady lawyer," is heading this way. She has a lecture on Col. E. D. Baker, entitled "The gray eagle of Mt. Hood."

J. E. Day, recently appointed Presbyterian minister for Clatsop and Ilwaco, is in the city. It is thought that a ministerial residence will shortly be built at or near Skippanon.

Major Adams is in the city and will lecture at Liberty hall this evening at 8 o'clock; subject "Life in Columbia County for the Last 20 Years."

Our Home and Fireside Magazine, 25 engravings and 12 large engravings free to every subscriber.

For Rent. The store next door to Empire Store. Apply to Carl Adler.

Shoemaker Wanted. To do repairing, etc.; apply to Jno. Hahn.

Girl Wanted. A competent girl to do housework can hear of a good situation by applying at this office.

School Books 20 per cent less than any other place at Adler's.

Parties wishing spars or piling of any size or length can be supplied by leaving orders with J. H. D. Gray.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL

Logs are scarce at $6 in Seattle. The News wants Tacoma defined geographically as "a town with a Chinaman."

Flour is selling for $1.75 per 100 pounds of first-class quality at various interior points.

The telegraph line from Montreal to Victoria through British territory was connected yesterday.

The works of the Oregon Iron and Steel company at Oswego have been closed down for an indefinite period.

Nineteen hotels and restaurants in Portland have recently discharged their Chinese help and are now employing none but white hands.

Tobacco of good quality is being successfully raised near Walla Walla. One man netted some $400 an acre from three acres this season.

The Oregon Pacific has engaged boats to ply between Corvallis and Harrisburg, and also between Corvallis and Albany to gather up all the grain to be found along the river between these points.

The Union understands that arrangements are about perfected for placing an independent steamer on Snake river to carry wheat to Ainsworth and merchandise and passengers to various points on that stream.

A Chico, Cal., paper says: A young man in Colusa county shot himself a year ago because a young woman refused to marry him.

The other day the girl committed suicide because the boy refused to marry her. The world changes and so do boys and girls.

What is pronounced by practical miners to be the most promising find yet made in the Coquille district are the discoveries of W. B. Cable and R. W. Chilson, on the Columbia river, three miles above Six Mile bar.

Capt. J. J. Gilbert and his party of Washington territory coast surveyors have completed their work for this year, and gone into winter quarters at Olympia.

Several of Barbara Frazier's neighbors united in sending a petition yesterday to the county court asking that that nuisance be sent to the asylum or somewhere else where she won't bother people.

Jack Dempsey sent a challenge yesterday to Burke, of San Francisco, to come up to Portland and fight him.

The United States grand jury convened in Portland yesterday. Among the matters to be examined into is that of James Maxwell, who murdered John Welch on board the Olive St. Southern, October 18th.

Capt. Al Stream came over from North Cove in the tug Hunter yesterday.

J. A. McCrea goes to Victoria this morning where he takes a government position.

Miss Clara S. Foltz, the "lady lawyer," is heading this way. She has a lecture on Col. E. D. Baker, entitled "The gray eagle of Mt. Hood."

J. E. Day, recently appointed Presbyterian minister for Clatsop and Ilwaco, is in the city. It is thought that a ministerial residence will shortly be built at or near Skippanon.

Our Home and Fireside Magazine, 25 engravings and 12 large engravings free to every subscriber.

For Rent. The store next door to Empire Store. Apply to Carl Adler.

Shoemaker Wanted. To do repairing, etc.; apply to Jno. Hahn.

Girl Wanted. A competent girl to do housework can hear of a good situation by applying at this office.

School Books 20 per cent less than any other place at Adler's.

Parties wishing spars or piling of any size or length can be supplied by leaving orders with J. H. D. Gray.

ENGLISH SALMON NOTES.

Our market shows continued activity, and prices have advanced a further 6d per case, and there are now no parcels offering to arrive at under 21s per case.

The name of the man who shot and killed James P. Maloney, at Sparta, Union county, last Wednesday, was Jacob Knapp.

The works of the Oregon Iron and Steel company at Oswego have been closed down for an indefinite period.

Nineteen hotels and restaurants in Portland have recently discharged their Chinese help and are now employing none but white hands.

Tobacco of good quality is being successfully raised near Walla Walla. One man netted some $400 an acre from three acres this season.

The Oregon Pacific has engaged boats to ply between Corvallis and Harrisburg, and also between Corvallis and Albany to gather up all the grain to be found along the river between these points.

The Union understands that arrangements are about perfected for placing an independent steamer on Snake river to carry wheat to Ainsworth and merchandise and passengers to various points on that stream.

A Chico, Cal., paper says: A young man in Colusa county shot himself a year ago because a young woman refused to marry him.

The other day the girl committed suicide because the boy refused to marry her. The world changes and so do boys and girls.

What is pronounced by practical miners to be the most promising find yet made in the Coquille district are the discoveries of W. B. Cable and R. W. Chilson, on the Columbia river, three miles above Six Mile bar.

Capt. J. J. Gilbert and his party of Washington territory coast surveyors have completed their work for this year, and gone into winter quarters at Olympia.

Several of Barbara Frazier's neighbors united in sending a petition yesterday to the county court asking that that nuisance be sent to the asylum or somewhere else where she won't bother people.

Jack Dempsey sent a challenge yesterday to Burke, of San Francisco, to come up to Portland and fight him.

The United States grand jury convened in Portland yesterday. Among the matters to be examined into is that of James Maxwell, who murdered John Welch on board the Olive St. Southern, October 18th.

Capt. Al Stream came over from North Cove in the tug Hunter yesterday.

J. A. McCrea goes to Victoria this morning where he takes a government position.

Miss Clara S. Foltz, the "lady lawyer," is heading this way. She has a lecture on Col. E. D. Baker, entitled "The gray eagle of Mt. Hood."

J. E. Day, recently appointed Presbyterian minister for Clatsop and Ilwaco, is in the city. It is thought that a ministerial residence will shortly be built at or near Skippanon.

Our Home and Fireside Magazine, 25 engravings and 12 large engravings free to every subscriber.

For Rent. The store next door to Empire Store. Apply to Carl Adler.

Shoemaker Wanted. To do repairing, etc.; apply to Jno. Hahn.

Girl Wanted. A competent girl to do housework can hear of a good situation by applying at this office.

School Books 20 per cent less than any other place at Adler's.

Parties wishing spars or piling of any size or length can be supplied by leaving orders with J. H. D. Gray.

A VERDICT OF "NOT GUILTY."

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—The jury in the case of the United States against Perry Bayne, after being out thirty minutes, returned at seven o'clock a verdict of "not guilty."

The name of the man who shot and killed James P. Maloney, at Sparta, Union county, last Wednesday, was Jacob Knapp.

The works of the Oregon Iron and Steel company at Oswego have been closed down for an indefinite period.

Nineteen hotels and restaurants in Portland have recently discharged their Chinese help and are now employing none but white hands.

Tobacco of good quality is being successfully raised near Walla Walla. One man netted some $400 an acre from three acres this season.

The Oregon Pacific has engaged boats to ply between Corvallis and Harrisburg, and also between Corvallis and Albany to gather up all the grain to be found along the river between these points.

The Union understands that arrangements are about perfected for placing an independent steamer on Snake river to carry wheat to Ainsworth and merchandise and passengers to various points on that stream.

A Chico, Cal., paper says: A young man in Colusa county shot himself a year ago because a young woman refused to marry him.

The other day the girl committed suicide because the boy refused to marry her. The world changes and so do boys and girls.

What is pronounced by practical miners to be the most promising find yet made in the Coquille district are the discoveries of W. B. Cable and R. W. Chilson, on the Columbia river, three miles above Six Mile bar.

Capt. J. J. Gilbert and his party of Washington territory coast surveyors have completed their work for this year, and gone into winter quarters at Olympia.

Several of Barbara Frazier's neighbors united in sending a petition yesterday to the county court asking that that nuisance be sent to the asylum or somewhere else where she won't bother people.

Jack Dempsey sent a challenge yesterday to Burke, of San Francisco, to come up to Portland and fight him.

The United States grand jury convened in Portland yesterday. Among the matters to be examined into is that of James Maxwell, who murdered John Welch on board the Olive St. Southern, October 18th.

Capt. Al Stream came over from North Cove in the tug Hunter yesterday.

J. A. McCrea goes to Victoria this morning where he takes a government position.

Miss Clara S. Foltz, the "lady lawyer," is heading this way. She has a lecture on Col. E. D. Baker, entitled "The gray eagle of Mt. Hood."

J. E. Day, recently appointed Presbyterian minister for Clatsop and Ilwaco, is in the city. It is thought that a ministerial residence will shortly be built at or near Skippanon.

Our Home and Fireside Magazine, 25 engravings and 12 large engravings free to every subscriber.

For Rent. The store next door to Empire Store. Apply to Carl Adler.

Shoemaker Wanted. To do repairing, etc.; apply to Jno. Hahn.

Girl Wanted. A competent girl to do housework can hear of a good situation by applying at this office.

School Books 20 per cent less than any other place at Adler's.

Parties wishing spars or piling of any size or length can be supplied by leaving orders with J. H. D. Gray.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The following proclamation has been issued by the president of the United States:

The American people have always abundant cause to be thankful to Almighty God, whose watchful care and guiding hand have been manifested in every stage of their national life.

The works of the Oregon Iron and Steel company at Oswego have been closed down for an indefinite period.

Nineteen hotels and restaurants in Portland have recently discharged their Chinese help and are now employing none but white hands.

Tobacco of good quality is being successfully raised near Walla Walla. One man netted some $400 an acre from three acres this season.

The Oregon Pacific has engaged boats to ply between Corvallis and Harrisburg, and also between Corvallis and Albany to gather up all the grain to be found along the river between these points.

The Union understands that arrangements are about perfected for placing an independent steamer on Snake river to carry wheat to Ainsworth and merchandise and passengers to various points on that stream.

A Chico, Cal., paper says: A young man in Colusa county shot himself a year ago because a young woman refused to marry him.

The other day the girl committed suicide because the boy refused to marry her. The world changes and so do boys and girls.

What is pronounced by practical miners to be the most promising find yet made in the Coquille district are the discoveries of W. B. Cable and R. W. Chilson, on the Columbia river, three miles above Six Mile bar.

Capt. J. J. Gilbert and his party of Washington territory coast surveyors have completed their work for this year, and gone into winter quarters at Olympia.

Several of Barbara Frazier's neighbors united in sending a petition yesterday to the county court asking that that nuisance be sent to the asylum or somewhere else where she won't bother people.

Jack Dempsey sent a challenge yesterday to Burke, of San Francisco, to come up to Portland and fight him.

The United States grand jury convened in Portland yesterday. Among the matters to be examined into is that of James Maxwell, who murdered John Welch on board the Olive St. Southern, October 18th.

Capt. Al Stream came over from North Cove in the tug Hunter yesterday.

J. A. McCrea goes to Victoria this morning where he takes a government position.

Miss Clara S. Foltz, the "lady lawyer," is heading this way. She has a lecture on Col. E. D. Baker, entitled "The gray eagle of Mt. Hood."

J. E. Day, recently appointed Presbyterian minister for Clatsop and Ilwaco, is in the city. It is thought that a ministerial residence will shortly be built at or near Skippanon.

Our Home and Fireside Magazine, 25 engravings and 12 large engravings free to every subscriber.

For Rent. The store next door to Empire Store. Apply to Carl Adler.

Shoemaker Wanted. To do repairing, etc.; apply to Jno. Hahn.

Girl Wanted. A competent girl to do housework can hear of a good situation by applying at this office.

School Books 20 per cent less than any other place at Adler's.

Parties wishing spars or piling of any size or length can be supplied by leaving orders with J. H. D. Gray.

1885 FALL AND WINTER 1886

NEW GOODS!

Having purchased extensively in Eastern and San Francisco Markets, I am now prepared to show the Largest and Most Varied Assortment of DRY GOODS and CLOTHING in the State of Oregon.

- New Silks, New Velvets, New Cloaks, New Buttons, New Hosiery, New Ribbons, New Blankets, New Dress Goods, New Suitings, New Wraps, New Trimmings, New Underwear, New Gloves, New Flannels, Etc., Etc.

Every Department is Complete!

Being one of the Largest Buyers of Dry Goods and Clothing In The North West,

Buying Direct From The Manufacturers and Importers, Saving the Extra Profits of Middlemen, We are enabled to

Give Our Customers the Benefit! We Only Carry

FIRST CLASS GOODS! And Our Prices are Low.

WHOLESALE COUNTRY ORDERS Specially Attended to and Filled With Dispatch.

C. H. COOPER'S Wholesale and Retail Stores, Astoria, Oregon.

GO TO THE O. K. Hair Dressing Saloon

W. E. DEMENT & CO. DRUGGISTS. ASTORIA, OREGON. Carry in Stock, DRUGS, CHEMICALS, TOILET and FANCY ARTICLES

CITY BOOK STORE. Fine Stationery. Blank Books, School Books and Supplies,

Musical Instruments, Sheet Music and general variety of Novelties. All Publications Received as Soon as Published.

GRIFFIN & REED. Furniture and Upholstering, Mattresses Made and Repaired.

GUSTAV BONTGEN, GUNSMITH. NEAR VAN DUSEN'S STORE, UPPER ASTORIA.

H. P. GREGORY & CO., No. 5 North Front St., Portland, Or. Importers and Dealers in

Wood-working Machinery, PLANERS, MOLDERS, MORTISERS, TENONERS, Band-sawing Machines, Lathes, Boring Machines, Band Saws, Scroll Saws, Rubber and Leather Belting, MILL FINDINGS GENERALLY Notice. THE PARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between C. E. Bain and E. J. Hart is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

G. A. STINSON & CO., BLACKSMITHING, At Capt. Rogers old stand, corner of Cass and Court Streets.

Men's Furnishing Goods CUSTOM WORK CONTINUES A SPECIALTY. GOODS AT LOWEST PRICES AND SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. MacDONALD & McINTOSH.

WHITE COOKS! EMPLOYED AT THE Pioneer Restaurant.

The Tables Supplied with the Best the Market Affords. In the Sleeping Department, Clean, Comfortable Beds.

J. G. ROSS, Proprietor, MAIN STREET, ASTORIA, OREGON.

Fall and Winter Goods. New Suitings, Fine Underwear, and the latest styles in Scarfs and Ties just received at McIntosh's furnishing store.

Ready For Business. For a good steak, a delicious cup of coffee or a plate of fine oysters go to Frank Falzer's Coffee, Oyster and Chop House; opposite M. C. Crosby's.

Keynote to Health. Health is wealth. Wealth means independence. The keynote is Dr. Bosanquet's Cough and Lung Syrup, the best Cough Syrup in the world.

Keynote to Health. Health is wealth. Wealth means independence. The keynote is Dr. Bosanquet's Cough and Lung Syrup, the best Cough Syrup in the world.

Cheap Single Bedsteads. And Mattresses, for sale cheap, at M. Olsen's, corner of Main and Jefferson streets.

Keynote to Health. Health is wealth. Wealth means independence. The keynote is Dr. Bosanquet's Cough and Lung Syrup, the best Cough Syrup in the world.