

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1885

To-morrow is a legal holiday. The high tides are "rough on rats." The list of candidates is increasing. Secure your seat for Friday night at Carl Adler's.

The bank of I. W. Case will be closed to-morrow. There will be a dance at Kuappa to-morrow evening.

Robert's rules are recognized authority in the city council. The theater will be comfortably warmed next Friday evening. "Forget-Me-Not" is one of the finest of plays and Jeffreys-Lewis unsurpassed in the artistic delineation of its principal character.

Those who appreciate fine acting and a good company will not fail to see Jeffreys-Lewis in "Forget-Me-Not," next Friday evening. Dr. O. B. Estes' card appears as a medical practitioner. He succeeds Dr. Lockhart who contemplates departure, and brings substantial recommendations.

In the U. S. court last Monday, Jas. Maxwell, convicted of killing Jno. Welsh on board the Olive S. Southard, October 16th, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

Through the efforts of Col. A. H. Stone, of Kuappa, the Smithsonian Institution has placed the Astoria Y. M. C. A. library on its free list, and will hereafter send its publications to the rooms.

On the O. R. & N. dock are 8,093 cases of salmon belonging to Jno. H. Devlin & Co., 5,450, packed by Wm. Hume & Co., put up by the Astoria Packing Co., 3,540 with Geo. T. Myers brand on them, and 300 consigned by J. O. Hanthorn.

During the severe blow last Sunday night, the Parthia dragged her anchors and went on the sands opposite scow bay. She was towed off when it was found that her anchors were badly fouled, whereupon she was brought to the dock to have them disentangled.

Considerable damage has been done to dykes on Lewis and Clarke's river, Young's river and elsewhere in this vicinity by the unusual high tides of the last three days. In several instances the water has washed completely over the dykes, undermining and destroying them, thus occasioning direct loss to the owners who with great care and expense had reclaimed the land.

HOW IS THIS?

Is the Chief of Police to be Elected or Appointed? In this column appears the act amending the charter. Sec. 8, of chapter 2, is amended, and sec. 15 of chapter 3 is amended. But sec. 135 of chapter 11 says that the common council have power and may appoint a chief of police. This section stands un repealed. Now, how is it? Is the chief of police to be elected by the people or appointed by the council?

AN ACT To amend section 1, chapter 1, section 8, chapter 2, section 15, chapter 3, of an act to incorporate the city of Astoria, in Clatsop county, Oregon, approved October 20th, 1876.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon: Section 1. That section 1, chapter 1, of an act to incorporate the city of Astoria in Clatsop county, Oregon, approved October 20th, 1876, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 1. The city of Astoria is bounded as follows: Beginning at the N. E. corner of the donation land claim of J. M. and Susan L. Shively, his wife, all of Clatsop county, Oregon, as established and designated by the surveys and plats of the United States; thence south, on the said claim line to the southeast corner of the town of Astoria, as laid out and recorded by J. M. Shively; thence southwest, along the southern limit of said town, to Salmon street; thence west, along the southern limit of said town to the claim line on the west of said donation land claim; thence westerly on the south line of the McClure claim to a point one hundred feet south of the southwest corner of Block No. 152 of the town of Astoria, as laid out and recorded by John McClure, as extended by Cyrus Olney; thence north on the west line of the extension of the town of Astoria to its intersection with Squemoqua street; thence west to a point eighteen rods east of the west line of John McClure's land claim; thence north to the line of ordinary high water of the Columbia river; thence west along the line of ordinary high water to the west line of said McClure's land claim; thence north on said west line to the state line of the state of Oregon; thence easterly along the state line to a point, north of the northeast corner of the donation land claim of J. M. and Susan L. Shively; thence south to the place of beginning.

Section 2. Amend section 8, chapter 2 of said act so as to read as follows: Section 8. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city of Astoria, the following named officers, to wit: A treasurer, assessor, auditor, attorney, superintendent of the streets, harbor master, surveyor, police judge, and chief of police, who shall be officers of this corporation and shall hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified, subject to removal by the council, by and with the concurrence of a majority of the members thereof, for misfeasance, inattention, or incompetency.

Section 3. Amend section 16, chapter 3, of said act so as to read as follows: Section 16. The mayor, treasurer, assessor, auditor, attorney, superintendent of streets, harbor master, surveyor, police judge, and chief of police, shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city; and the councilmen, by the qualified voters of the ward from which they are elected.

Section 4. In so much there is urgent necessity for the amendment of the section herein named, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the governor. Passed the house November 11th, 1885.

W. P. KEADY, Speaker of the House. Passed the senate November 13th, 1885. WM. WALDO, President of the Senate. Approved, November 19th, 1885. Z. F. MOODY, Governor.

Received and filed in the office of the secretary of state, November 19th, 1885. R. P. EARHART, Sec. of State. UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, STATE OF OREGON: OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, SALEM, Nov. 20, 1885.

I, R. P. Earhart, do hereby certify that I am the secretary of state of the state of Oregon, and custodian of the great seal thereof; that the foregoing transcript of House Bill No. 9, for an act to amend section 1, chapter 1, section 8, of an act to incorporate the city of Astoria in Clatsop county, Oregon, approved October 20th, 1876, has been by me compared with the original copy of the said act now on file in this office, and that it is a true and correct transcript thereof, and the whole of said original act.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed hereto the great seal of the state of Oregon. Done at the capitol at Salem, Oregon, this 20th day of November, A. D., 1885. R. P. EARHART, Secretary of State.

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

O. Sovey Elected Councilman from the Second Ward—Judges of Election Appointed—Etc. The city council met in regular session last evening, Mayor J. W. Hume in the chair; present, Councilmen Bergman, Cooper, Cleveland, Gratke and Trenchard. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

C. J. Trenchard moved the reconsideration of the vote on the nomination of O. Sovey for councilman. The motion was seconded, and carried by the following vote, Aye, Councilmen Bergman, Cleveland, Gratke and Trenchard; no, Councilman Cooper. The motion was adopted. The council then proceeded to vote on the election of O. Sovey to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Thos. Dealey, as councilman from the second ward. The election resulted in a unanimous vote in the affirmative. Councilman Trenchard moved that Councilman Gratke be appointed a committee to conduct the newly-elected councilman to his seat, which was done. The auditor and clerk then administered the oath of office to Councilman Sovey, who took his seat.

A petition was read from several citizens asking for a reduction in the salaries of the city officers. On motion it was referred to the council as a committee of the whole to report at the next regular meeting. A petition was read asking that some laquer in a building on the west end of Consonly street be declared a nuisance and immediately removed. After some debate the prayer of the petitioners was granted.

A communication was read from the mayor regarding the dismissal of Officer Tatton from the police force on account of alleged redundancy in the number of officers, and recommending that the dismissal be permanent. It was moved and seconded that the recommendation be referred to committee on health and police. Councilman Trenchard moved an amendment that the recommendation be confirmed. Councilman Cleveland moved that the recommendation be laid upon the table. Councilman Bergman thought that what the mayor had done, should, under the circumstances, be concurred in. The amendment was then carried by a unanimous vote. Discussion then ensued regarding Robert's rules, original motions, modes of procedure, etc. Councilman Cleveland then made a plain motion, that Police officer Tatton be discharged. Carried.

The petition of residents in the vicinity of Benton and 7th streets, for a lamp was granted. The reports of the committees to whom was referred the reports of street superintendent and sexton for October, finding same correct, were adopted. On motion of Councilman Trenchard, the name of Councilman Sovey was placed in the committee lists heretofore occupied by Thos. Dealey. Ordinances were passed granting liquor licenses to Wherity & Gilmore and C. Carlson. The following claims were ordered paid: G. H. Heather, $1.70; T. Day, $1.70; J. A. Montgomery, $7; Astoria Gas Light Co., $9.89.

The following resolutions were adopted. Resolved: That J. O. Fruit, J. W. Bottom and Eugene Brock, be appointed judges and C. Moffitt and T. Boelling, clerks of election in the 1st ward and J. H. D. Gray, Peter Gorman and Dr. J. O. Brien, judges, and M. J. Meara and P. A. Stokes, clerks of election in the 2nd ward. Polls to be held in the Engine House of Resace Co. No. 2 in the first ward; and in Cleveland and Henry's boat shop in the 2nd ward. A. A. CLEVELAND.

Resolved: That the auditor and clerk give due and legal notice of the city election to be held on the second Wednesday in December for the purpose of electing two councilmen to serve for three years, a mayor, treasurer, assessor, auditor, attorney, superintendent of streets, harbor master, surveyor, police judge and chief of police, for a term of two years, or until their successors are elected and qualified. C. J. TRENCHARD.

Resolved, That the laquer now stored on Consonly street having been declared a nuisance the same is hereby declared a nuisance and the same is referred to the chief of police for immediate removal. C. J. TRENCHARD. Astoria, Or., Nov. 24, 1885. Councilman Cleveland requested an opinion from the city attorney regarding this question: As some indebtedness was assumed by the city could the segregation of the five acre tracts relieve that portion of the then city from its share of financial responsibility? He also asked for an opinion regarding what provision if any there now existed in filling the vacancy of elective officers other than councilmen. A. J. JOURNAL.

JEFFREYS LEWIS.

The Greatest Actress in America in Her Line. For the engagement of this celebrated actress, who appears at Ross' Opera House Friday evening, Manager Sam. C. Mott certainly deserves the thanks of the theater going public of Astoria, and her appearance will surely call out the assessment loving portion of the city. Her performance of "Stephanie" in "Forget-Me-Not" will be an emotional representation long to be remembered. Of her performance of this character at the Baldwin theater last week the San Francisco Post says:

"Miss Jeffreys Lewis is undoubtedly the greatest actress in her line in America to-day—perhaps in the world. Her art is an inspiration—it was born in her, is part of her being, and she herself must often be unconscious of the spirit which animates her work. Many actors and actresses of the present day who have achieved considerable fame are mere machines. Place Miss Jeffreys Lewis beside them and it would have about the same effect as putting a diamond of purest water among a lot of paste imitations. Now Miss Lewis does everything out of the amplitude of her own varied inspirations. We watched her as Hortense last week, and this week as Stephanie, and observed that her movements are rarely alike on successive evenings. She realizes the part she is playing, and for the time being is not Jeffreys Lewis playing a part, but the author's character endowed with life. How she does hold the senses enchained in the role of the adventurous Stephanie? One's nerves are at full tension from her first entrance to her last exit. She's the play itself. Nothing in woman kind could be more bewitching than the pretty, pouting archedness with which she bends her shapely head. Her wonderful delicacy of sarcasm, fine as the point of a cambric needle, yet severe as the slash of a Malay creese, is genuine itself. She uses the weapon of woman with unequalled skill. What a wealth of art she has at her command to lure a victim to her net. With a look, a smile, a touch, almost she seems to possess the power to enchain the senses of a man of more than ordinary brain, and bring him captive to her feet. What strikes the close observer most is the rare mobility of her features. She has Aimee's power of suggestion, with Adelaide Nielson's sweet womanly softness and Ristori's grand dramatic force. She delights in surprises, copies no model, studies no methods but is art itself."

Artistic Eccentricities. In traversing the grand galleries of paintings in Europe one is constantly annoyed by the astounding anachronisms and ignorance of manners and customs in the times anterior to their own which most of the artists exhibit. Tintoretto, an Italian painter, in a picture of the Children of Israel gathering manna, has taken the precaution to arm them with the modern invention of guns. Cigoli painted the aged Simeon at the circumcision of the infant Saviour, and, as aged men in these days wear spectacles, has shown his sagacity by placing them on Simeon's nose. In a picture by Verrio of Christ healing the sick, the lookers on are represented as standing with periwigs on their heads. To match, or, rather, to exceed, this ludicrous representation, Dimer has painted the expulsion of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden by an angel in a dress fashionably trimmed with founcces. The same painter, in his scene of Peter denying Christ, represents a Roman soldier very comfortably smoking a pipe of tobacco. A Dutch painter, in a picture of the wise men worshipping the Holy Child, has drawn one of them in a large white surplice and in boots and spurs, and he is in the act of presenting to the child a model of a Dutch man-of-war. In a Dutch picture of Abraham offering up his son, instead of the patriarch "stretching forth his hand and taking the knife," as the Scripture informs us, he is represented using a more effectual instrument—he is holding to Isaac's head a blunderbuss. Berlin represents in a picture the Virgin and Child listening to a violin; and in another picture he has drawn King David playing the harp at the marriage of Christ with St. Catharine.

A French artist has drawn, with true French taste, the Lord's Supper, with the table ornamented with tumblers, filled with cigar lighters; and, as if to crown the list of these absurd and ludicrous anachronisms, the Garden of Eden has been drawn with Adam and Eve in all their primeval simplicity.—[Exchange.]

The meeting then adjourned.

Fill Together! If you want your town to progress pull together. Differ as much as you please in politics and religion, but when it comes to matters pertaining to your interest and the prosperity and growth of your town, pull together. If your neighbor proposes a measure that is calculated to promote public good, don't hold back because you didn't propose it yourself, but give it a hearty support and pull together. Don't sneer and talk about big heads, but take hold and pull together. That town succeeds the best, the citizens of which take a pride in it, work for its success each in his way, but all pull together, encourage new comers and new enterprises.—E. E.

Killed by a Falling Tree. Chas. Sandborg was instantly killed on Jacob Sture's place, near Knappa, last Monday by a falling tree. He, with a man named John Johnson and a brother of Jacob Sture's, was working getting out timber. Close by was a dead piece of a tree, about twenty feet long, that had fallen partly and was leaning against some other trees. While sawing with Johnson the piece fell, striking him square across the body. Deceased was a single man, aged 41 years. The funeral took place at Knappa yesterday.
