

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1885

It is too close to be comfortable to know that but one life stands between the government and anarchy, and should President Cleveland die that there is no one who could legally take his place.

The board of county commissioners were discussing, yesterday, the matter of a poor farm. It is thought that a poor farm would be more economical and useful than the present system of supporting the indigent.

If anything would justify lawless dispersal of the Chinese it would be a sight afforded here last week—the refusal of work to white men and the placing of it in the hands of Chinese.

It is such short sighted action as this that retards the development of this country.

The Welcome has often heard the old dodge of a graceless scamp who not being of voting age, put the figures "21" in his shoes and "22" in his hat, and then swearing at the polls that he was "between twenty-one and twenty-two;" but we are informed of some of the swamp land certificate of title that beats voting "all to pieces."

For sale—a female slave—300,000 reis; cooks, washes, irons. Apply at No. 10 Catete st.

For sale—a beautiful goat, with plenty of milk of a superior quality. Apply at No. 19 Barrose st.

For sale—a superb bull dog for 40,000 reis, carefully taught to guard a house.

There is no slave market in Rio de Janeiro, and has not been one for several years, all transactions in human flesh being conducted privately; but there are agents who buy and sell on commission, like the real estate and cattle dealers of the United States.

THE CENTURY for 1885-86.

The remarkable interest in the War Papers and in the many timely articles and strong serial features published recently in THE CENTURY has given that magazine a regular circulation of MORE THAN 200,000 COPIES MONTHLY.

THE WAR PAPERS By General Grant and Others. The war will be continued (most of them illustrated) until the chief events of the Civil War have been described by leading participants on both sides.

Serial Stories by W. D. Howells, Mary Halleck Foote and George W. Cable. Mr. Howells' serial in a lighter vein than "The Rise of Silas Lapham," Mrs. Foote's is a story of mining life, and Mr. Cable's a novelistic and realistic tale.

Special Features. Include "A Tricycle's Passage to Rome," illustrated by Bennett; Historical Papers by Edward Eggleston, and others; Papers on Poetry, by S. G. W. Benjamin, lately U. S. minister, with numerous illustrations; Astronomical Articles, practical and popular, on "Sidereal Astronomy"; Papers on Christian Unity by representatives of various religious denominations; Papers on Manual Education, by various experts, etc.

Illustrations. Will be kept up to the standard which has made THE CENTURY engraving famous the world over.

Prices. A Special Offer. Regular subscription price, $4.00 a year. To enable new readers to read THE WAR PAPERS, with contributions from Generals Grant, Beauregard, McClellan, J. E. Johnston, Lee, Wallace, Admiral Porter and others, we will send the 12 back numbers, November, 1884, to October, 1885, with a year's subscription beginning with November 1885, for $5.00 for the whole.

1886. Harper's Magazine. ILLUSTRATED. The December Number will begin the seventy-second volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE. Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angles," and Mr. Howells' "Indian Summer"—holding the foremost place in current literary fiction—run through several numbers, and will be followed by serial stories from R. D. BLACKMORE and Mrs. D. M. CRAIK. A new editorial department, discussing topics suggested by the current literature of America and Europe, will be contributed by W. D. Howells, beginning with the January Number. The great literary event of the year will be the publication of a series of papers—taking the shape of a story and depicting characteristically American society as seen at our leading pleasure resorts—written by CHARLES DICKENS WARREN, and illustrated by G. S. REINHART. THE MAGAZINE will give special attention to American subjects, treated by leading American artists.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS. Per Year: HARPER'S MAGAZINE, $4.00; HARPER'S WEEKLY, $2.00; HARPER'S BAZAR, 4.00; HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 2.00; HARPER'S PRANKS, 2.00; HARPER'S BRARY, One Year (52 Numbers), 10.00.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. The most popular Weekly newspaper devoted to science, mechanics, engineering, discoveries, inventions and patents ever published. Every number illustrated with splendid engravings. This publication furnishes monthly a complete compendium of information which no person should be without.

Notice. IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE ANNUAL MEETING of the stockholders of the Scandinavian Packing Co. will be held at the company's office on Monday, Dec. 14th, 1885, at 9 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of electing a board of directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. By order of the president. H. PLATE, Secretary.
