The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY.....DECEMBER 8, 1885

Short Days.

Too many generals and officers; too few working privates.

The New York Novelty store has a grand opening to-night.

The British Benevolent society meets at 7:30 this evening.

The State sailed yesterday; the British bark Chasca arrived.

Apples were never plentier nor better than during the present season.

The pilot schooner is alongside Gray's dock and goes outside to-day.

Repairs on the Oregon were finished at San Francisco last Saturday.

What has become of all this agitation about "the swamp land frauds?"

The water pipes are working satisfactorily again and everybody is well supplied.

Bill Nye will lecture in Portland to-morrow evening. He would draw well here.

Jeff advertises the United States restaurant. He gives all he advertises and keeps all his promises.

Politics, like other amusements of life, is something in which a spinal column is a necessary element to success.

Tickets for the Grismer-Davies performances may be had at the New York Novelty store. The box sheet opens to-morrow morning.

Carl Adler's crystal palace presented a brilliant appearance last evening. The exhibition is a handsome one. You are invited this evening.

On the Independent ticket the name of Jno. Rogers appears for chief of police and Dr. O'Brien for councilman from the second ward.

An overflowing water pipe in the second story of Kinney's building damaged a considerable lot of goods on the first floor last Sunday evening.

The Portland city council is considering an ordinance taxing the citizens of that city for the privilege of an opportunity of making a living by residence therein.

Sun rises, 7:29: sun sets, 4:16. The interval of light from 12 M. to dark will be no shorter, that's one consolation. But the sun will rise twelve minutes later before we see '86.

The dynamo for the electrical light is on Wilson & Fisher's dock, and on the next steamer is expected the rest of the plant and the electrician, when work will proceed to completion.

"Byrnes & Helene are doing Oregon a great deal of good in their variety hall at St. Louis."—Welcome. They would do it more good if they would settle their advertising bills.

Sudden deaths are said to be more frequent. Men who desire eternal salvation should place all their affairs in order, for they know not the day nor the hour. No man can be saved who dies owing the printer.

Ship captains and others in Portland have raised a purse of $135 to assist Mrs. Raymond, the wife of the captain of the Grasmere, who is desirous of going to California there to take refuge with her daughter.

The man that says "I told you so," is resting himself. He will be out early on Thursday morning and chuck full of reminiscences, able to tell you just how it happened and how things might have been fixed.

Yesterday was a cold raw day in this latitude and longitude. The sun shone brightly a part of the time and the wind blew from the northwest. The water was lumpy and craft of all kinds laid close to shore.

The Oregonian says a wholesale discharge of conductors has taken place on the Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Utah & Northern. The general opinion is that the ticket-punchers were caught pocketing railroad fares.

It is reported that in the event of Willie Pohl's election he will resign and Dave Hart will be the auditor and clerk. A good many people would like to know if the report is true or not. It seems, however, almost incredible, but such is the rumor.

While the Respigadera was being docked at the Main street dock yesterday afternoon her head gear caught in the corner of the lower dock and carried away some of the roof and the stanchions of the lower corner, doing about $100 worth of damage.

Yesterday Binger Hermann took his seat in congress for the first time, though elected eighteen months ago. Oregon takes time by the foretop in electing her solitary congressman. In less than six months the commonwealth will elect Mr. Hermann's successor.

Lewis & Dryden's "Travelers Guide" for December is received. The Northern Pacific has a map on pages 66 and 67. "K-a-l-a-m-a" begins at Scarborough head, and "P-o-r-t-l-a-n-d" about fifteen miles S. W. of Tillamook rock. There is no Astoria to be seen. Goose lake and Scio show up well and the Maginnis mines are quite prominent.

Y. M. C. A.

Special business meeting to-night at 7:30. All members are requested to be present, to settle important business.

Griffin & Reed are opening a large and varied assortment of holiday goods to-day. Do not be hasty in making your selections.

A large stock of toys and juvenile books for the youngsters at the City Book Store.

Christmas cards, Prang's, Whitney's, Tuck's and Hildershimer's in endless variety at the City Book Store.

TELEGRAPHIC TICKS.

OMAHA, Dec. 7.—Troops from every fort in the department of the Platte have received orders to be ready to march at a moment's notice. The inference is that several thousand troops are to be stationed at Camp Douglas, near Salt Lake, Utah, for fear of a Mormon uprising.

NOSTALGIA.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—Letters from Mrs. Geo. H. Pendleton, wife of the American minister to Berlin, state that they are very much dissatisfied with that city. Her husband's resignation may be expected at any time.

WORKING FOR THOMPSON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—Prominent Democrats of Washington territory are now here urging the appointment of Jno. G. Thompson as secretary of that territory.

Barclay Henley, of California, the only Democratic congressman from the Pacific coast, will offer a resolution to-morrow demanding an investigation of the charges relative to his Mexican citizenship.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

MERITT'S CORNERS, N. Y., Dec. 7.—Another terrible accident occurred here to-day on the new Croton aqueduct. Some men were descending in a bucket when a cross beam fell a hundred feet striking them, and killing nearly all.

HAD TO GO TO BED.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 7.—The villages of Beaver Falls and New Brighton use natural gas. Yesterday was an intensely cold day in this region and the gas supply in some way was cut off. Business of every nature had to be suspended. The people had to go to bed to keep from freezing to death. No church, no cooking, a very unusual and unpleasant experience.

CONGRESS ORGANIZED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—The U. S. senate was called to order at noon. Senator Geo. F. Edmunds, of Vermont, nominated John Sherman of Ohio for president of the senate: Senator Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana nominated I. G. Harris of Tennessee. The nays and yeas were called and Sherman was declared elected.

The house was called to order at noon: J. G. Carlisle and T. B. Reed were nominated for speaker resulting in the election of Carlisle.

A peculiar accident is recorded as happening to a passenger train on the Oregon & California railroad last week. It ran into a tunnel this side of Delta, but found its exit at the farther end completely barred by a land slide; backing up to extricate itself from the unpleasant predicament, a land slide was found to have as completely blockaded the entrance at this end after the train went in. The train with its load of human beings had to remain prisoners for the night, until a train hand succeeded in crawling out and going for help in the morning.

Considerable discussion goes on regarding to-morrow's election. The general impression is that no one will have a very large majority. In 1881 there were 510 votes polled: in 1883, 768 votes were cast for mayor. In that election in the first ward Cleveland had 294 votes for councilman, Bergman, 247: in the second ward Dealey had 127 votes for council man, Orcutt 74. Last year it stood respectively, Bergman, 234: Sherman, 213: Gratke, 134: Welch, 133. The next election in Astoria will be under the registry law.

Three bad men attacked Chas. Wright as he was going home at seven o'clock last Sunday evening, with $500 in his pocket. The encounter took place on the north side of Concomly street above Polk. He put the robbers to flight, escaping with a blow on the back of his head, but fell from the trestle work into the soft earth below, a distance of eight feet. The marauders have not yet been arrested.

One of the funiest characteristics of average humanity is the tendency to kick because the other fellow got the nomination. There ought to be some way so that there would be two nominations for each office on each ticket. But then there is the third fellow, the one who expected to be "a compromise" candidate. What are you going to do with him? or, rather, what is he going to do with you?

OIL PAINTINGS GIVEN AWAY.

Desiring to show our appreciation of the liberal patronage we are receiving from the people of this vicinity, we have completed arrangements for a grand holiday free gift distribution of oil paintings in real gold leaf frames. The pictures are now on exhibition in our window and all are urged to see the collection before the distribution takes place. You will find it well worth your attention. All our customers will stand an equal chance of winning a prize.

Until the drawing takes place every person, who, at any one time purchases goods of us to the amount of $2 or upwards, will receive a numbered ticket, which gives them one chance in the drawing for prizes. The distribution of prizes will be superintended by a committee of disinterested persons. Separate cards with numbers coresponding to those on every ticket given out will be placed in a closed sack and after being thoroughly mixed, a person selected by the committee will be blindfolded, and will draw a numbered card from the sack. Whoever holds the ticket which corresponds in number with the card so drawn will receive the first prize. A second drawing will then be made for the second prize, and so on until all the prizes are fairly distributed. Everybody is invited to take a chance for the prizes.

Do not fail to see the beautiful paintings. Also our splendid display of Christmas goods for the many, suitable for young and old, which we are prepared to furnish at prices lower than the lowest. Drawing will take place at our store January 1st, 1886.

CARL ADLER.

IN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—An effort is being made to secure a place on the committee on commerce for Congressman Hermann, of Oregon. It is the wish of members from the Pacific coast to have one of their members on that committee, and opinion inclines in favor of Hermann; but there is a delay in making up the committee, on account of the proposed change in rules. If some of the committees are abolished, as proposed from some quarters, or if the work of some of the committees is increased, these changes will have to be made before the speaker can intelligently make up the committee.

Senator Dolph has been carefully canvassing the prospects of securing a large appropriation for the improvement of the mouth of the Columbia river. He states that the outlook is very favorable. The engineers have reported that the present plan of improving the mouth of the Columbia has been successful so far, and in this report and from the general feeling in the senate Dolph believes that an adequate sum will be appropriated for either completing or carring on a large part of the work.

NOT OPEN TO SETTLEMENT.

Since the forfeiture of the Astoria land grant considerable inquiry has been made regarding that portion of the O. C. grant lying in Cowlitz, Pacific and Wahkiakum counties, W. T. Under date of the 4th inst., Fred. W. Sparling, register of the land office at Vancouver, writes:

"The so-called forfeited lands of the Oregon Central railroad company are not open to settlement, as the question is not fully settled yet, and it will probably be several months before it is finally settled. The Northern Pacific railroad company has given notice that it will appeal from the decision of the commissioner of the general land official to the secretary of the interior. So it will be some time before the matter is settled.

FRED. W. SPARLING."

The Wages of Sin.

The new melodrama, "The Wages of Sin," has caught the town, and the Baldwin theater is filled nightly by brilliant and enthusiastic audiences. It is beyond question, the most powerful work of the kind presented in this city in years. The sad, strong scenes are deftly relieved by clever comedy, and the startling effects of the thrilling situations and climaxes are in marked contrast to the sparkling effervescence of those in which pleasanter phases of life and character are represented. The feelings of the audience are so wrought upon by the scenes, that outbursts of applause are frequent and long continued.—S. F. Examiner.
