THE "FOOT BURNERS."
A Tale of Arkansas During the War of the Rebellion.

There are many people in Arkansas who remember the following incident: During the war certain parts of Arkansas were infested with "foot burners." These wretches cared not for the success of either army, but were intent upon robbery. Generally the "foot burner" lived near, or at least was well acquainted in the neighborhood where he operated. He knew who had money. When the "foot burners" asked a man to reveal the hiding place of his valuables and were refused, they seized the man, bound him, and proceeded to roast his feet.

One day, in the northern part of this State, Judge Grimley, who was known to be wealthy, carried a heavy, square box to a well known preacher—the Rev. Mr. Aldrich—and said:—"Brother Aldrich, I am going away, and I wish you would keep this box until I return. All I want is your promise to keep it."
"I'll be running risk in taking it," Mr. Aldrich replied, "but to accommodate you, I will take it and secrete it until your return."
The judge thanked him and took his departure. A few weeks later a party of "foot burners" went to the preacher's house and demanded the box.
"I cannot give it to you," replied Aldrich.
"Seize him, men."
The preacher was tied and thrown on the ground. A fire was kindled and the unfortunate man's feet were thrust into the blaze.
"Now will you tell us where that box is?"
"No."
They threw more fuel on the fire. Finally, seeing that he would not tell, the wretches went away. For a long time it was thought that the preacher would die. Both feet were burned off, and during many months he was confined to his bed.

Shortly after the war closed the judge returned home. The next day after his arrival, the preacher had the box brought from its hiding place, then, after the old man was placed in a buggy, he drove to the judge's house, and when the judge had come out to the gate, he said:—"Here is your box, sir. It nearly cost me my life, and I shall never be able to walk again, but I have kept the promise I made you."
"I am very sorry to know that the foot-burners got a hold of you," said the judge, "but why didn't you give them the box?"
"Because I knew that its contents were valuable."
"Oh, no, my dear sir, the box is full of hot shoe nails."
The scoundrel had given the preacher a box full of nails, in order that the attention of the foot burners might be drawn from himself, so that he could, with his money, leave the neighborhood.—[Arkansas Traveler.]

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites.
Very Palatable and Increases Flesh.—Dr. F. H. CLEMENT, Brighton, Ills., says: "Scott's Emulsion is the best I have ever prescribed. It is very palatable, easily assimilated, and gives strength and health to the patient."

It appears that the sandy wastes in the interior of Long Island are to be utilized. The thrifty farmers of Suffolk County are experimenting in raising peanuts on this hitherto unprofitable soil.

TAKE
LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.
This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.
The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.
No loss of time, no interruption or stoppage of business while taking the Regulator.
Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.
If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.
I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.
