Street Improvement Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Common Council of the city of Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon, propose to order the improvement of that portion of Chenamus street, in the said city of Astoria as laid out and recorded by John McClure, from the east side of Benton street to the east side of Olney street; by removing all defective piles, caps, stringers, planking and timbers, and replacing the same with new and sound fir piles, caps, stringers, planking and timbers, corresponding in size with that now in use. All of said improvements to be made at the expense of the property adjacent thereto; and unless a remonstrance signed by the owners of two-thirds of the property fronting on said portion of said street, be filed with the auditor and clerk within ten days of the final publication of this notice, viz: Tuesday, December 22nd, 1885, the Common Council will order said improvements made.
By order of the Common Council.

To a Busy Mother.

The human brain needs rest and change. The human mind needs relaxation. The human heart needs pleasant companionship. Deprive them of these requisites, and the result, in nine cases out of ten, will be insanity. Perhaps you imagine that I mean to frighten you. Why, to tell the truth, if I could not arouse you to a sense of your condition unless I terrified you a little, I would rather do so than see you an inmate of an insane asylum. You see this to be quite in accordance with the rest of nature's laws. The body cannot subsist on one kind of diet; it must have more or less variety; and behold how plentifully our Creator has provided for this great need in the abundant fruitfulness of earth, air, and sea! How soon the palate tires of one article of diet! How soon the body starves when fed upon one thing! Dear friend, I beseech you give this subject your most careful consideration, for I perceive you are killing yourself with the constant strain brought to bear upon body and mind, and unless you consent to relax that strain you will suffer very seriously in consequence.

Your "nervous headaches" are sent, perhaps, as warnings, which, if heeded, may prove your salvation from more serious trouble. I have found it exceedingly injurious to work during the evening. You have been busy all day with one duty or another; the night has come; you can find no warrant in scripture for continuing your labors, but you can for resting from them.

So let the work-basket remain undisturbed; let the needle rest. You will be all the more skillful with it on the morrow. Spend the evening in reading, conversing, playing interesting games with your children or in visiting your friends; or, better still, if you feel able, in attending an interesting lecture or concert; then, when you retire, you will sleep sweetly and awake refreshed and equal to the performance of the day's duties.

Never eat heartily when "tired to death." Drink a cup of tea and eat a cracker or two, or beat up an egg in half a pint of milk, sweeten and flavor to taste and drink it. This will strengthen you, and will not make any demands upon your weary stomach or digestive organs. And another thing: Do not rise early in the morning and trot all over the house doing this and seeing to that for hours before you eat anything. Put on the coffee, if you use that beverage, or the tea, if you use that, as soon as possible, and pour yourself out a cup just as soon as it is in a condition for drinking, and add whatever light, easily digested article of food you may like best. This done—and you must eat slowly, and at your case—you will find that you can return to your work and fairly "make things fly."

You will catch yourself singing, perhaps, and when your husband and children come down fresh from their slumbers, they will meet a smiling face and sit down to breakfast presided over by a cheerful hostess. Force yourself to try this plan once or twice and I know you will be pleased with it. I have the greatest faith in it, because I proved it in my own case, and this is true of all the suggestions I have given in this letter.—[Illustrated Christian Weekly.

Cure For Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by J. W. Conn.
