DYNAMITERS.

SAN FRANCISCO is in a ferment over the alleged discovery of dynamiters connected with the anti-Chinese league in that city.

Hence all the talk must be taken with a grain of allowance. Apart from this phase of the question there appears to be good reason to believe that something of the kind has been discovered.

"The man who gave the name of Kooshier when arrested is also known as Kewalski. He was a Prussian, and speaks six languages.

"Charles M. Meladstadt is president of the Third ward anti-coolie club, and vice president of the German branch of the same.

"Oscar Eggers lives at 812 Clementina street, and is a peddler by occupation.

Commenting on the matter the Post says: "San Francisco is afflicted with demagogues. The half fool, half rogue is a dangerous mixture, and San Francisco is well acquainted with the type.

For some months past Coroner O'Donnell, a perfect specimen of the class, has been enjoying himself and worrying the city more or less.

the sand lot. He has made the Chinese question his hobby. Not long ago he issued a proclamation commanding the Chinese to leave the city before January 15th next, or take the consequences.

It is unfortunate for the Pacific coast, whose dwellers really want to see the Chinese go, that a lot of crazy cranks have taken up the cry in San Francisco and elsewhere just for the sake of notoriety, and bring the movement into disrepute.

EX-SPEAKER RANDALL is firm in his opposition to the attempted change in the rules of the House of Representatives. These rules are more important than would at first appear.

At English elections the government prints the tickets, a custom which to Americans appears singular. The tickets are probably "straight."

GEN. JAMES R. O'BEIRNE says in the New York Star that the Irish national league proposes to pay a stated salary of $1,500 to Parnell and the eighty-three nationalists recently elected to the British parliament.
