BOSTON DOG STORIES.

Showing the Intelligence of Really Cultured Animals.

There is a Newfoundland dog, Lion by name, who gives daily proof of his comprehension of what is said to him. A lady called on his mistress the other day. During her call Lion came in rather slyly, lay down on the parlor carpet and went to sleep. The conversation ran on, and the visitor said finally:—

"What a handsome Newfoundland you have!"

Lion opened one eye.

"Yes," said his mistress, "he is a very good dog, and takes excellent care of the children."

Lion opened the other eye and wagged his tail complacently to and fro along the carpet.

"When the baby goes out he always goes with her, and I feel perfectly sure then no harm can come to her," his mistress went on.

Lion's tail thumped up and down violently on the carpet.

"And he is so gentle to them all, and such a playmate and companion to them, that we would not take a thousand dollars for him."

Lion's tail now went up and down, to and fro, and round and round with great and undisguised glee.

"But," said his mistress, "Lion has one serious fault."

Total subsidence of Lion's tail, together with the appearance of an expression of great concern on his face.

"He will come in here with his dirty feet and lie down on the carpet, when I have told him time and time again that he mustn't do it."

Here Lion arose with an air of the utmost dejection and humiliation and slunk out of the room, with his lately exuberant tail totally crestfallen.

A dog went every day, with a dime given him by his master, to buy meat for dinner at a butcher's shop.

The dog always presented his dime, which went into the till, and then his meat was given him and he trotted home with it. One day the butcher thought he would play a trick on his customer, just to see what he would do. So he put the dime in his drawer and went about other business. The dog waited patiently a long time to be waited on, showing some signs of impatience. The butcher made no sign of serving him. Finally the dog began to bark violently, walking meanwhile from the till to the chopping-block.

"What do you mean, you rascal?" shouted the butcher. "Get out of here; get out!" And he kicked the dog out of the shop.

The dog lingered an instant, and then trotted away in a determined manner down the street. In a few minutes he came back—with a policeman.—[Boston Record.

Squelched at Last.

"Young man," said a stern-looking lady passenger on the Niagara express to the newsmonger who had just tossed a novel in her lap, "didn't I tell you I wanted none of this stuff?"

"Yes'm," retorted the newsmonger with a grin, "they all say that."

"I'll fix him," said the lady, in a fierce whisper, as he passed on, and opening the window, she sat back in wait for the common nuisance. This time he came around with an armful of caramels. He laid a half-pound package in the lady's lap and was passing on, when the latter seized the box and coolly tossed it out of the window.

"What d'ye mean?" asked the nuisance.

"I'm throwing your goods out of the window, and I'll do the same to everything you give me," replied the irate passenger.

"You'll pay for it," said the man savagely.

"Go ahead and collect," retorted the other.

The news and candy vendor looked at her a moment, and then realizing that he was beaten, moved on, at last crushed.—[New York Post.

A Galveston school-teacher had a great deal of trouble making a boy understand his lesson. Finally, however, he succeeded, and drawing a long breath, remarked: "If it wasn't for me you would be the biggest donkey on Galveston island!"

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites.

For Bronchial Troubles and General Debility.—THOMAS BOYNE, of Digby, N. S., makes the following statement: "I have been using Scott's Emulsion for six months, and have derived more benefit from it than any other treatment, indeed I believe it has saved my life, and can honestly recommend it to any one for bronchial trouble or any debilitating disease."

At a negro wedding when the minister read the words "love, honor, and obey," the groom interrupted him, and said: "Read that again, sah; read it wunces mo', so de lady kin ketch de full solemnity of de meanin', Ise been married befo'."

The Sisters in charge of St. Vincent's Infant Asylum of Baltimore, Maryland, write that St. Jacobs Oil has been used repeatedly in that institution for rheumatism, and for the pains caused by bruises and other accidents, and that its effect has been wonderful.

Are you made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shoh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. For sale by W. E. Dement & Co.

The Retort Courteous.

One of the neatest retorts ever made in Cambridge, Mass.—not a bad soil for good things—was a brief response lately given by a young lady to an undergraduate who offered her, with some hesitation, his seat in a horse-car. She got in with an elder companion. The car was crowded, and two young men sat near. One gave his seat to once to the elder lady; the other kept his place. His friend asked him—disguising it, however, in German—why he did not give his place to the young lady. He answered, in the same language: "Because she is not pretty enough." After a little reflection, however, he, too, rose and surrendered his seat. The young lady took it, and thanked him—in German!

The Scavengers of Panama.

The narrow, rocky point of land on which the city is built has a backbone through the middle and slopes on both sides and at the end down to the water's edge. No city was ever better situated for drainage. There can be no apology for its not being perfectly drained. On a fine morning, when you have taken a very early cup of coffee, you saunter out for a walk on the ancient rampart and encounter a procession of skinny old hags of the serving class hobbling along towards the beach with capacious and malodorous vessels on their heads. These are about the only scavengers that Panama possesses. Their vocation is as old as the city.—[Correspondence San Francisco Chronicle.

Where Clothing Is Cheap.

For years Americans have been in the habit when abroad of buying suits of clothes, thereby saving from ten to forty per cent. Now, it is said, the importation into New York of English-made suits on private orders is a big business. The clothes are delivered at the door of the purchaser, who is put to no trouble at the custom-house, and the price is generally a third that charged by American tailors. An agent takes the measure and satisfaction is guaranteed.—[Boston Transcript.

THE GREAT REGULATOR

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

PURELY VEGETABLE.

Are You Bilious?

The Regulator never fails to cure. I most cheerfully recommend it to all who suffer from Bilious Attacks or any Disease caused by a disarranged state of the Liver.

W. R. BERNARD, KANSAS CITY, Mo.

Do You Want Good Digestion?

I suffered intensely with Full Stomach, Headaches, a swollen Liver, and indigestion. Simmons' Liver Regulator, told me it was a sure cure for my trouble. The first dose I took relieved me very much, and in one week's time I was as strong and hearty as I ever was. It is the best medicine I ever took for Dyspepsia.

REV. M. B. WHEATON, Cor. Sec'y Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va.

Do You Suffer from Constipation?

Testimony of HERMAN WARNER, Chief Justice of the Court: "I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for Constipation of my Bowels, caused by a temporary Derangement of the Liver, for the last three or four years, and always with decided benefit."

Have You Malaria?

I have had experience with Simmons' Liver Regulator since 1865, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times for diseases peculiar to malarial regions. So good a medicine is scarce in any other country.

REV. M. B. WHEATON, Cor. Sec'y Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va.

Safer and Better than Calomel!

I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel, which generally laid me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief, without any interruption to my business.
