G. A. STINSON & CO., BLACKSMITHING,

He Has Had Six Wives.

Probably the oldest man in the United States is now living near Dalton, Mo., with his son. He is a colored man and was born in Prince Edwards Co., Va., about 1765. His first owner was James Ewing. He has been in the Ewing family since his birth, and calls himself Martin Ewing. Inasmuch as the longevity of many of these colored people is of a doubtful character, your corre-spondent will mention some facts to corroborate the statement just made Col. James Ewing, whom all the old citizens here knew, and whose family record is extant, died in 1859, at the age of 84. He often mentioned to his family that this man, Martin Ewing, was his dry nurse, and that he was a good many years older than himself. Martin claims that Col. Ewing was brought to his master's house a very small boy and his Martin's) business was to nurse him. Martin says he was old enough to plow corn at that time. Now, allowing the Colonel to have been 2 years old when he came to James Ewing's, Martin's master, and Martin to be 12, which he undoubtedly was, it makes this colored man 120 years old, as Colonel Ewing would be 110 if now This man's memory is good, and his mind clear. But few wrinkles furrow his cheek. If he would dye his hair his general appearance would indicate a man about 70. He has lost but few teeth, his eyesight is good, except a cataract in one eye, from a blow forty-five years ago. His appe-tite and digestion are as good as they were eighty years ago. He has smoked and chewed to hacco for 110 years, and always drank whisky when he and always drank whisky when he could get it, though he has not been drunk for thirty-five years. He was not a body servant of General Washington, and has no recollection of ever seeing him. His recollections of camp-meetings and the Methodists are very entertaining. When Lorenzo Dow preached his first sermon in his neighborhood, all the negros were allowed to go nights and Sunwere allowed to go nights and Sun-days. He thinks he was at the meeting when Dow found the stolen ax, and tells all the circumstances connected with it. He has had six wives, and his other social experi-ences are a good deal like Solomon's. Martin thinks religion don't do peo-ple good like it did a hundred years ago, but gives it most of his time now.—[St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Cure For Pites. Piles are frequently preceded by a ense of weight in the back, loins and ower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some effection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uncasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching after exting warm, is a comitching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itch ing, and effecting a permanent cure.
