CLATSOP MILL CO., Astoria, Or. STHO PRIMACE- Novel Fact and Fiction.

Is the sole province of the novel ragged edges and sharp corners, unrelieved by any softening or heroic treatment? or is it to so weave the ideal into the real that we, the readers, may find ourselves renewed and cheered with fresh inspiration for the task of daily living-since assuredly it goes without saying that, for the majority of us, life is a task and a grinding one; for the few the worldly success of the dollar, for the many unceasing toil and mental strain to the end. From this point of view the demand would seem to be for a fiction that shall help to sweeten life.

This realm, pure and simple, will never do. While one cannot fail to appreciate the use of reality as the ground-work of our fiction, as of other arts, one can look above and beyond it to that power of the imagination which shall take us up to a higher plane of thought and action, pointing the not impossible way for human nature to heroicaims and ends. lessons alone, together with faithful reproductions of the hard and prosaic details of the life about us, cannot satisfy the cravings of the human heart nor ease the weary mind. Are the elements of this life severe, ter of fact, common, vulgar? All the greater need would appear of a reac-tionary fiction. Mr. Howells, as the pioneer of realism in America, has struck a clear, honest, far-reaching note, a note to be respected and ad-mired, but that there is a sweeter and higher one yet within the gamut of our American fiction cannot be doubted.-[Letter in the Boston Her-

Cure For Piles. Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some effection of the kidneys or neighboring organs At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspir-ation, producing a very disagreeable liching after acting warm is a comitching, after getting warm, is a com-mon attendant. The National Complaint. Dyspensia is the national complaint. Alost every other man or woman you meet has it, and the resu't is that the number of pseudo-remedles for it is as numerous as Pharach's host. They are for the most part worth less. There is, however, a searching eradi cant of this distressing and old scate malady me whose genuine merits long since raised It to a foremost place among the staple medselnes of America. Hostetter's Stomach Bit cines of America. Hostetier's Stomach lift was extirpates dyspepsia with greater cer-lainty and prompiltude than any known canedy, and is a most gental invigorant, ap-entizer and and to secretion. These are and imply assertions, as thousands of our coun-rimen and women who have expertenced is effects are aware, but are backed up by refrigable proofs repeatedly hild before the public.
