"THE OLDEST TWINS."

An Astonishing Number of Elderly Twins Developed.

A letter in a late issue of the Toledo Blade, giving the case of a pair of twins supposed to be the oldest in the country, brought a shoal of letters to that office upon the subject. We have briefly summarized them in order to mention all:—

There are living in our town, Abington, Lackawanna County, Pa., two twins named Joseph and Benjamin Miller. They were born in 1809, and are now 76 years old, both healthy and active. They are the sons of Rev. Joseph Miller, a Baptist clergyman, who preached to one congregation 53 years.

Mrs. Palmeter, of Winthrop, Ia., and Mrs. Dunbar, Geneva, Wis., are twins, and were 75 years old the 5th of last August.

A family formerly lived in Delaware County, O., by the name of McLeod, in which were 11 sons and 2 daughters. The daughters are still living and 10 of the sons. The oldest of the children were 2 boys, named John and Reynold McLeod. They were born in October, 1809, and are consequently 76 years old.

Isaac Martz and Moses Martz are 73 years of age, and still live at Arcadia, Ind. Their wives are twin sisters and were 69 last February. Each family has 12 children, most of whom are living.

Mr. E. K. Carden and brother, of Waukegan, Minn., are twins, and passed their 74th birthday February 5, 1885.

Jonathan and David Chase were born March 16, 1795, and are consequently 90 years old. They are now living at Fall River, Wis. Uncle Jonathan cuts his own wood, goes to the post-office regularly after his mail, and reads without glasses. He is a Seventh-day Adventist and very radical in his views. David moved here from Haverhill, N. H., last fall. He can get around finely for a cripple, having lost a foot a good many years ago.

There are twins living in Fort Madison, Iowa, 85 years old. Their names are Mrs. Campeon and Mrs. Hildebrand.

George and Nathaniel Pierce are twins, and were 85 years old last May. George lives in New York, and Nathaniel lives in Wisconsin. Both have long, white beards that have been so for 30 years.

Mary and Nancy Howard, living near Anderson, Ind., are in the 85th year of their age, and are both old maids, always having lived under the same roof, and keeping house undivided.

Mrs. Caroline Cook, of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Charlotte Westcott, of Iowa City, Iowa, are twin sisters, and were 82 years old February 23. The latter has a son and daughter, twins, 47 years old.

C. H. Merhoff and brother, of Louisville, Ky., are hale and hearty, having passed the 73d milestone of their life, January 8, 1884.

A. H. Seefeld and sister are living at Plainfield, Ill., and were born at Genoa, Cayuga County, New York, February 25, 1813.

Malinda Carter, of Plymouth, Kan., and Mahala Daugherty, of Stiles, Ia., are still living, and were 72 last March.

Elizabeth Smiley writes that she and her sister Mary were 71 last February, and that both are enjoying good health.

Two twin sisters, widows, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Bean, live at Sisler, Iowa.
