

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1898

The Willamette came in yesterday with 2,200 tons coal from Seattle. E. C. Holden advertises a furniture sale for 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. See adv't.

It cost Salem $17,000.46 to run her municipal government in 1885. Salem is about as large as Astoria. The British ship Lord Conning, 1,465, McGuire master, 72 days from Adelaide, is reported outside.

The wind blew steadily from the northeast yesterday and the unanimous verdict was that the air felt chilly.

It cost Portland $241,533.56 for municipal expenses in '85. The city has $21,874.75 in its treasury, and owes $96,500.

Mr. G. W. Poindexter sustained a severe fall at the skating rink last evening, resulting in a dislocation of the wrist.

Considerable time is being distributed in upper Astoria and elsewhere, and judging by the lights in upper windows of nights, white men have a job converting the time into nets.

Next Tuesday, the 12th inst., E. C. Holden will sell a choice collection of fine household furniture, at the residence of Mrs. E. B. Hume. See adv't.

The New York Shipping List states that Messrs. W. T. Coleman & Co. have removed their business, in that city to a larger and more commodious new building, No. 71 Hudson street.

The regular meeting of the Clatsop county Educational association will be held this evening in the hall of the Hook and Ladder Co., over Van Dusen's store. All friends of education are cordially invited.

The current number of Harper's Weekly has a picture of the Rev. Sam Jones, the celebrated preacher and revivalist. It looks enough like Phil. Bowers to have been engraved from his photograph.

On the 7th of January, 1849 Capt. J. G. Hustler left New York for California on the Sarah McFarland. Thirty-seven years is a big slice of a man's life. The greater part of those thirty-seven years have been spent in Astoria.

A. V. Allen has filed in the county clerk's office a new addition to Astoria, comprising a portion of what is known as Union town. The new addition is designated as Union. Two streets are laid out on the plot, "Flavel" and "Washington."

A dangerous piece of street is reported on Oshing's Court street which needs immediate attention. Mrs. John Stephens was with difficulty rescued there last evening, by Chris. Evenson, the supposition being that but for timely assistance she would have drowned. She was conveyed to the hospital.

Seaside Lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W., installed the following officers last evening: P. M. W., Geo. McLean; M. W., C. T. Thomas; Foreman, Joe Ferrell; Overseer, N. Jones; Recorder, C. Brown; Financier, S. T. McKenn; Receiver, Jno. Bryce; Guide, L. E. Selig; J. Watchman, J. R. Wherry; O. Watchman: Chas. Steinhart; medical examiner, Dr. Jay Tuttle. The installation was performed by District deputy Geo. McLean. The lodge has a splendid library to which valuable additions are constantly being made.

County Court Proceedings. The county court was in session yesterday. Chas. Wirkkala was admitted to citizenship. In the matter of taxes of Cutting & Co., it was ordered that a reduction of 18.3 mills be allowed on $7,000 of their assessment. J. C. Ward was admitted to citizenship.

The contract for building a bridge across Ohanna creek was let to Wm. Matheson for $565. Road District No. 6 was enlarged to include all from east line of city west to Salmon street in addition to what it heretofore comprised. B. Gallagher was appointed supervisor.

John McCann was appointed supervisor district No. 5. C. F. Harder, district No. 4; B. E. Tucker, district No. 9; H. F. Fisher, district No. 11; P. H. Bagley, district No. 12; Geo. Hunter, district No. 13; Thos. Cahill, district No. 14; W. A. Foster, district No. 15. Court adjourned, sine die.

Singular Accident to the Olympian. VICTORIA, Jan. 6.—An extraordinary accident befell the O. R. & N. Co.'s steamer Olympian this morning. Shortly after leaving Port Townsend, when off Point Nelson, she encountered a tide rip, a huge wave from which surged through the wheelhouse, carrying away the bulkhead and scullery and knocked down and seriously injured two boys who were washing dishes. A passenger was also knocked down by the wave, and all three were only saved from being washed overboard by the high guard which fortunately remained. The damage to the steamer is about $200.

The Hickok Burner Can be had at the New York Novelty Store; it is any lamp, requires a splendid light. Every one buys it on sight. Call and see it. You will save money and eyesight by using it.

Attention Knights! Each and every member of Pacific Lodge, No. 17, K. of P., and all old working brothers, are requested to be present at lodge this evening, as installation of officers is to take place and business of importance is to be transacted. By order C. C. Attest: W. A. SHERMAN, K. of R. & S.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Statement of the Other Survivor of the Wreck of the "Carrie B. Lake."

Capt. Al. Harris came up on the Gen. Canby yesterday morning. To him we are indebted for the following, which is the statement of Jas. Dunne, one of the two men whose lives were saved at the time the Carrie B. Lake went ashore as reported at length in previous issues of THE ASTORIAN. Dunne is the man who was on the schooner and was saved by Capt. Harris and the life crew. He says: "We went ashore at 6 P. M., Sunday, Jan. 3rd, all hands in the cabin except myself at the wheel, the weather being thick and hazy, wind east southeast. I suddenly sighted breakers right ahead. I sung out, 'Breakers ahead,' and put the helm hard up, but she would not answer her helm soon enough to avoid outer breakers. She soon struck and the captain gave orders to get the boat ready, and in about fifteen minutes after burning fire-up all hands, five in number, left the vessel. When about 50 yards inshore of vessel the boat capsized on a sand bar, the water being about 3 feet deep. All hands, except myself, made for the shore. I could hear them moaning and attempted to follow them, but found the water deepening and I turned back to vessel, and got aboard and stayed there. The vessel drifted along and inshore about a mile. The wind having risen to a gale, I lowered away the fore-sail, stay-sail and jib to keep the vessel from going off shore, and remained by her until 2 A. M. when I saw red lights burned on the beach, and soon after 'this the life crew arrived and took me off."

BOILED DOWN. A snowstorm, not unusually severe, though general, prevails throughout the Rocky mountain region. The snow blockade, caused by drifting, has been confined to Kansas and Nebraska, delaying the Burlington, Kansas Pacific and Santa Fe trains from thirty-six to seventy-two hours.

The London Times correspondent at Mandalay telegraphs that 10,000 rebels are scouring the country within a radius of twenty miles of the capital, and they threaten to attack the town. Fears of an emente are felt, owing to the great reduction of the British force at Mandalay by the withdrawal of troops for the expedition to Bhama.

In the senate last Wednesday, Hale, of New Hampshire charged that in his state the appointment of postmasters was made a subject of barter and sale. Vest, of Missouri, defended the administration and said that he believed it to have been the intention of the framers of the constitution that the government should be administered by friends of the administration which the people should place in power.

A number of unofficial liberal members of parliament have been making overtures to the Parnellites for cooperation of the latter in raising the question as to home rule during the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. Parnell declines to reply to liberal overtures unless they are accompanied by an express agreement to grant Ireland home rule. If the queen's speech refers to Ireland the Parnellites will await the government's proposal.

A manifesto which the Spanish bishops submitted to the pope on the death of King Alfonso has been approved by the pope and will be published forthwith. The pope says: "I would strongly impress upon you that although politics are based upon religion you must not engage in politics. Provided faith in Catholic principles is respected all forms of government are admissible." This is considered a fatal blow to the pretensions of the Carlists, who, it is claimed, use religion as a cloak for the advance of despotism.

Senator Vance, of North Carolina, says that his bill for repeal of the civil service law was introduced in good faith and he will make a speech at an early day in support of it. He declares the law to be a farce and sham, and that the last presidential campaign was fought on the issue of "Turn the rascals out," but since the election it has been discovered that that battle cry was all a mistake, as there are no rascals in office. Vance says he doesn't care to be hard on the administration, but that he will certainly give it a tussle on the civil service and silver questions.

In the senate on the 6th, G. Jay, of Delaware spoke against silver. He said that silver coinage had served a useful purpose as subsidiary coin, but no country desired a basis of silver coin alone, and if gold were supplanted by silver we would have a silver basis. The gold standard, had kept us in easy relations with the rest of the world. Bimetallism could not be reached by one country alone. McPherson, of New Jersey said silver dollars had thus far remained at par with gold, because they had but a limited use and were limited in number within the limit of public needs; but the Gresham law still held good after three centuries of observation, namely, that bad money drives out good money. All history teaches that with a currency of a fluctuating value, as ours was tending to become, speculation was encouraged and monetary ruin hastened. The loss would always fall on the producers of our country, as the importers would protect themselves.

Hard Times. While money is close, wages and prices low, expenses should be cut down in every household. Economy the watch word for Mothers, head of Doctor bills, by always keeping in the house a bottle of Dr. Bosank's Cough and Lung Syrup. A Help to Good Digestion.

In the British Medical Journal Dr. W. Roberts, of England, discusses the effect of liquors, tea, coffee, and cocoa on digestion. All of them retard the chemical processes, but most of them stimulate the glandular activity and muscular contractions. Distilled spirits retard the salivary or peptic digestion but slightly when sparingly used.

Wines were found to be highly injurious to salivary digestion. On peptic digestion all wines exert a retarding influence. They stimulate the glandular and muscular activity of the stomach. Effervescent wines exert the greatest amount of good when one's digestion is out of order everything goes away, unless, as in the case of T. T. Seals, of Bellaire, Ohio, who had had dyspepsia for seven years, the digestive apparatus is kept in apple pie eating order by Warner's Tippecanoe, the best appetite producer and regulator in the world.

Tea, even in minute quantities, completely paralyzes the action of the saliva. The tannin in a strong tea is injurious. Weak tea should be used, if at all. Strong coffee and cocoa are also injurious if used in excess.—[The Cosmopolitan.]

A PORTAGE RAILROAD.

The O. R. & N. Company Commence the Construction of a Portage Road.

The O. R. & N. company have taken time by the Conkling curl, says the Standard of the 6th, and put in a large force of men to work on the construction of a railroad around the portage at the Dalles, so as to have a cheap line for freight between here and Lewiston.

The people of Walla Walla are organizing a marine railway association for the purpose of building a railroad for the transportation of steamboats around the same portage, and have engineers at work making the preliminary surveys. This has evidently spurred the O. R. & N. company into action, and before the Wallawallians have made up their minds about what they are going to do the railroad company will have their road completed.

Superintendent H. S. Rowe has been sent for to oversee the work, and Captain James Troup will locate the steamer landings at either end of the road.

The road will be about ten miles in length, and will start from the big eddy near Three Mile creek and run to some sheltered place above Celilo. It is expected that narrow gauge iron will be used in the work, as the company has on hand a large amount of narrow gauge rolling stock, and this will answer the purpose as well as any for the present, as the portage road is only intended for freight traffic. At the present rate of progress the road will be completed within six weeks. The construction force lately employed on the Panama extension have been brought down and set to work on this road.

The enterprise has been quietly worked up for the evident purpose of "getting there" before all others, and the other day when Superintendent Rowe proceeded to the scene of action, it was announced simply that he had gone to The Dalles to attend to some minor railroad business. It is stated now that some 200 men are engaged in grading the proposed road and preparing for the track. Such a portage would indicate that the O. R. & N. company mean to have a system of transportation which will insure greatly reduced rates for shippers in the future.
