An Infernal Machine in His Vest Pocket.

A young man in Brooklyn, after consulting his watch, dropped it into his pocket, when he was startled by an explosion, which was followed by many others in rapid succession. Before he could remove his clothing, it had been burned through to the flesh and a painful wound inflicted. The hand in which he held the watch was also severely burned. An examination proved the explosion to have been caused by chlorate of potash tablets, which he was in the habit of carrying loose in his pocket, and which were ignited by the watch being dropped quickly upon them.

Henrico Enlightens Andromeda.

"We could not do without the doctors, girl, for they are merry fellows in their way, and please us oft with rare experiment. Then there be nostrums 'neath the firmament, which having been begot in nature's way, need that we give them sometime patronage, and but for these same doctors, winsome wench, the world would little know their noxiousness. So let them be—these doctors and their ills! 'Twere so like heaven an' they were not here, that there'd be nothing need of change, and then for ministers we'd have no use since gone would be all future speculation.—[Yonkers Gazette.

Etiquette for the Seaside Only.

A seasonable bit of gallant etiquette is offering to empty a lady's slipper of the sand gathered during a stroll on the beach. The lady hops on one foot while her cavalier, very much in the same way he would pick a stone from a horse's hoof, deftly extracts the gritty particles which have made the fair one "go lame." Fashionable slippers were not made for country walking, but they are a "boon," as Artemus Ward once said of the Tower of London, to idle youngsters, who pose as gallants of the deepest dye at summer resorts.—[Boston Beacon.

Care of the Eye.

Be careful to avoid reading fine print.

Never read till the eyes become over fatigued.

Hold your book or paper at least ten or twelve inches from your eyes.

Never change suddenly from a very dark room to one brightly lighted.

When reading or writing, see that the light falls on the page from the left side, and from above.

Do not read while in a reclining or recumbent position. This is highly important advice to follow.

If the eyes are weak, be particularly careful not to smoke. Tobacco smoke is irritating to the eyes of most persons.

When traveling, it is well to protect the eyes from cinders, smoke, dust and bright sunlight with smoked glasses.

If the eye becomes weak, procure one of the little glass dups, to be had of any druggist, called an eye douche, and refresh them by an occasional bath.

Do not rub the eye when a foreign body enters it, but take hold of the lashes of the upper lid and pull the lid away from the eyeball; the flow of fluid from under the lid will often wash out the offending particle.

Cure For Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some effection of the kidneys or neighboring organs At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by J. W. Conn.

ECZEMA ON A CHILD.

Your most valuable CUTICURA REMEDIES have done my child so much good that I feel like saying this to the benefit of those who are troubled with skin diseases. My little girl was troubled with Eczema, and I tried several doctors and medicines, but they did not do her any good until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which speedily cured her, for which I owe you many thanks and many nights of rest.

ANTON BOS-MIER, Edinburgh, Ind.

TETTER OF THE SCALP.

All of your CUTICURA REMEDIES give very good satisfaction. The CUTICURA I especially recommend for the diseases for which it is used. I know from experience its value.

DR. H. J. PRATT, Monroe, Wis.
