

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1886. THE PANAMA CANAL.

THE financial condition of the Panama Canal company is full of suggestions to the American people. A company whose financial standing is impaired in the early stages of an enterprise is not likely to recover.

SECRETARY MANNING recently replied to the inquiry as to whether the bonds presented for redemption under his recent rule would be paid in silver, that they would "be paid in good, lawful money."

MESSRS. RANDALL, Hewitt, Crisp, Hiseock, Phelps and Reed, composing the ordinance commission appointed during the last session of congress, will soon report to the house of representatives that the steel needed for armor plates, either for ships or land fortifications, and all the steel ingots needed for the manufacture of guns for the navy or for coast defenses, can be manufactured in this country.

SILVER was quoted in New York yesterday at 101 1/2 an ounce. This is about the lowest price the metal has ever touched. Yet the standard silver dollar buys as much as ever, and for all money purposes it is just as good as gold.

THE St. Paul Pioneer Press has eight label suits on hand and six more threatened. The city of Quito has 60,000 people and no newspapers.

AT ROSS' OPERA HOUSE JANUARY 16. Great Trick and Fancy. BICYCLE RIDING! MR. WARREN Will perform the most wonderful feats that have ever been produced in the North West.

EXCURSION TICKETS!! FROM ASTORIA TO PORTLAND AND RETURN For $2.50! ON THE "TELEPHONE."

require ten years to complete it. When we look forward to the possible and probable advantages of having all the waterways between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans in our possession, the sum, large in itself, seems insignificant.
