ORDINANCE NO. 453.

To Provide a Board of Health and to Protect the Public From Contagious and Infectious Diseases.

The City of Astoria does ordain as follows: Section 1. There shall be a board of health, which shall consist of the mayor, who shall be ex-officio president of the board, the committee on health and police of the common council, and a health officer.

Section 2. The chief of police shall be ex-officio health inspector, and shall perform such duties as are required of him in this ordinance and as may be directed from time to time by the board of health.

Section 3. In case the mayor, from any cause, shall be unable to attend to his duties as president of the board of health, the board may choose any other member of said board as president thereof, and the member so chosen shall possess the powers and perform the duties of the mayor, in that respect, during the absence or inability of the mayor to act.

Section 4. The board of health shall have power, whenever in their judgment the public health shall require it: 1. To order any vessel at the wharves of the city, or in the vicinity thereof (except vessels of war of the United States), to the quarantine grounds or other place of safety; and may require all articles or things landed in the city from such vessel, to be seized and returned to the vessel, or removed to the quarantine ground. And in case any master, owner or consignee of any vessel shall neglect or refuse to obey an order of the board of health or the president thereof may make the removal ordered at the expense of such master, owner or consignee.

Section 5. To require the removal of all persons landed into the city from any vessel at the wharves or in the vicinity of the city. 3. To direct the cleaning and fumigation of any vessel or its cargo, in the port of Astoria, and the destruction of any bedding, clothing or portion of the cargo that they may deem infected and likely to spread disease.

Section 6. To order to be thrown overboard or destroyed any portion of the cargo of any vessel in said port that may be in a decayed, injured condition and likely on that account to produce disease.

Section 7. To prevent communication between any vessel ordered into quarantine and the city, except under such regulations as the said board, in conjunction with the state health officer, may establish.

Section 8. To appoint such other officers, in addition to the health officer and health inspector, as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this ordinance; and to authorize the said inspector and officers to enter into and examine all vessels in the port, except vessels of war, and all buildings and premises of every description within the city; and to ascertain and report to said board the condition thereof, so far as the public health may be affected thereby.

Section 9. To give such directions, and adopt such measures as in their judgment may be necessary for cleaning and purifying an, building or premises, and to cause to be done in relation thereto, everything which in their opinion may be proper to preserve the health of the city.

Section 10. To prevent the spreading of contagious disease by forbidding all communication with a house or person infected with such a disease, except such as they may deem necessary for any purpose; and by causing to be removed to a place provided therefor, any person infected with such a disease, so far as they lawfully can; and by doing or causing to be done any other act that they may deem necessary to effect such object.

Section 11. To provide (by and with the consent of the common council), whenever an epidemic disease shall prevail in the city, as many hospital buildings as they may deem necessary, and furnish the same with such physicians, nurses, attendants, and supplies as they may deem necessary or advisable.

Section 12. Compensation for the health inspector, physicians and others appointed by the board of health under the provisions of this ordinance, shall be fixed by the common council upon the recommendation of the board of health.

Section 13. The expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance shall be paid by the persons and property removed, or by the property subject to and sanitary regulations in other respects, or by the city, as in the judgment of the board of health may in each case be deemed just.

Section 14. It shall be the duty of the health inspector, under the direction of the board of health, to search out all accumulations of filth, street rubbish, foul drains and cesspools, neglected privies and pools of stagnant water; to serve notice upon the persons whose duties it is to remove such prolific causes of disease and to prosecute the persons who shall neglect to perform the duties required of them by the regulations of the board of health, or by the health ordinances of the common council, and in general it shall be the duty of the health inspector to carry into effect all the orders and regulations of the board of health; and, under the direction of the state health officer, to carry into effect the quarantine laws and regulations of the state of Oregon.

Section 15. It shall be the duty of each physician in this city to report to the board of health, in writing, every patient he shall have laboring under Asiatic cholera, or small-pox or other infectious disease, within twelve hours after he shall be satisfied with the nature of the disease and also to report every case of any such disease within twelve hours after the same may come to his knowledge; and, further, it shall be the duty of every such physician to report to the board every case of death, from any such disease, coming to his knowledge, within twelve hours after it shall have occurred or come to his knowledge.

Section 16. It shall be the duty of every person keeping a hotel, boarding house or lodging house in this city, to report, in writing, to the board of health, within the time mentioned in section eight, the name of every person boarding or lodging at his or her house whom he or she shall have reason to believe to be sick with the cholera, or small-pox or any other contagious or infectious disease, and if any deaths occurring at his or her house from any such diseases; and every master, owner or consignee of a vessel lying at a wharf or in the harbor of Astoria, shall make a like report and within the same time.

Section 17. It shall be the duty of the owner or occupant of every house, store, building or tenement in the city, wherein any person may be sick with the cholera, or small-pox or other contagious or infectious disease to give notice, in writing, to the board of health within twelve hours after the existence of such disease shall come to his or her knowledge.

Section 18. It shall be the duty of the owner or occupant of every hotel, boarding house, lodging house, private house, store, building or tenement in the city, wherein any person may have the cholera, small-pox or other contagious or infectious disease, to give notice to the public immediately of the existence of such disease in such hotel, boarding house, lodging house, private house, store, building or tenement by placing a yellow flag in some conspicuous place on the premises where it may be seen by persons passing on the street near said premises, and in case the owner or occupant of any such house, store, building or tenement shall fail or neglect to place such flag as aforesaid, it is hereby made the duty of the chief of police, as soon as he is informed of the existence of such disease in any such house, store, building or tenement, to cause such flag to be placed as aforesaid; and such flag, whether placed as aforesaid by such owner or occupant or by the chief of police, shall remain there until such person having such disease shall have so far recovered that no danger by infection shall remain; and no person shall take down or destroy such flag, when so planted, before the removal of all danger by infection.

Section 19. No person having cholera, small-pox or other contagious or infectious disease, and no person having waited upon or nursed any person having any such disease, without the permission of the board of health, shall go out in public, or pass from house to house or building to building, or appear in any street, alley or other public place in said city until all danger from infection shall be removed, and if the chief of police shall see or be informed of any person violating this section, it shall be his duty to cause such person to be taken forthwith to his or her place of residence, if within the city, and if such residence is not within the city, then to such place as the board of health may direct.

Section 20. No person having cholera, small-pox or other contagious or infectious disease, and no person having waited upon or nursed any person having any such disease, without the permission of the board of health, shall go out in public, or pass from house to house or building to building, or appear in any street, alley or other public place in said city until all danger from infection shall be removed, and if the chief of police shall see or be informed of any person violating this section, it shall be his duty to cause such person to be taken forthwith to his or her place of residence, if within the city, and if such residence is not within the city, then to such place as the board of health may direct.

Section 21. It shall be the duty of the owner or occupant of any hotel or house, as aforesaid, store, building or tenement in the city, wherein any person may have been sick of any disease mentioned in this ordinance, or death or recovery of such person from such disease, forthwith to destroy, by burning or burying, the clothes worn by such person during such sickness, and to cleanse and purify the room and house, store, tenement or building in which such sick person was confined.
