Pungent Paragraphs.

The Arabian soldiers are said to be fed on pie. "No wonder," observes the Yonkors Statesman, "that they are continually filled with feelings of war." We should think an overplus of pie would be more apt to fill them with feelings of woe.—[Norristown

It is common superstition in Chicago that when it thunders some angel must have dropped off her slippers while climbing up the golden stairs.—[Lowell Citizen.

A traveler, recently returned from India, was relating his traveling impressions. "What a country that is!" he exclaimed. "There every-body keeps dozens of servants. I body keeps dozens of servants. I had four whose sole business was to look after my pipe. One brought it to me, another filled it, a third lighted it for me—" "And the fourth?" "The fourth smoked it for me. Tobacco never agreed with me."—[Miscelanes.

First small boy—"What does your pap do for a living?"
Second small boy—(from New York) "My pap's a great man, he is. He's an officeholder."
"What's his office, then?"

"He's a building inspector."
"I'd think that would be awful dangerous, going around unsafe buildings." "Oh, no. He don't go near 'em till they fall down."—[Philadelphia Call.

Father-"How did you like the sermon of the new minister, Min-Minnie-"I didn't like it a bit, papa."
Father—"Why not? What did he preach about?'

Minnie—"Oh, he talked all the time about 'a flea from the Mountain of Sin,' and never said a word about the mosquitoes and the wood-ticks along Brushy Fork!"-[Newman Independent.

If ministers only knew how much preaching the devil does in church porches they'd have their pulpits fixed near the entrance, where they could see their congregations, and at the same time have an eye on the boys and girls who make religion a cloak for mashing.—[Fall River Her-

After Fogg had sat through a long discourse by Parson Jones, Deacon Smith was anxious to know how Fogg liked it, and the deacon wasn't more than half pleased when Fogg replied that the parson was a good man, a very good man—one whom nobody could accuse of making light of the Seriatures (Boston Tren of the Scriptures. - [Boston Transcript.

A good deacon in one of our city churches meandered along one of the docks yesterday and noticing a crowd of boys fishing, he commenced to re-prove them for breaking the Sab-bath. In the middle of his harangue he stopped suddenly to ejaculate:
"Look out, bub, you've got a bite," to a small boy whose attention had been distracted from his line. Human nature was too strong for him. -[Saginaw News.

"Oh, yes, Smith is a very religious man." "Is he?" "Certainly. He rents a $500 pew in our church."— Boston Post.

A little fellow who is always to be found at church on Sunday—Benny Diction.—[Boston Times.

Cure For Piles. Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some effection of the kidneys or neighboring organs At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uncasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspir-ation, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a com mon attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the appli-cation of Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts of fected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itch ing, and effecting a per-manent cure. Price 50 cents. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by J. W. Conn.

Salem, Mass., prides itself upon a policeman who plays polo. That's all right. Anything that will keep a Salem policeman awake should be worthy of a note.—[Fall River Advance.

You Can Have It.

"My dear, what would I give to have your hair?" is often said by middle-aged ladies to young ones. Madam, you may have just such hair. Parker's Hair Balsam will give it to you. It will stop your hair from falling off, restore the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly envying the girls. The Balsam is not oily, not a dye, but is an elegant dressing, and is especi-ally recommended for its cleanliness and purity.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of munhood, &c, I will send a recipe that will cure you. FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, New York City.
