"Dun Gone."

"I reckon he's dun bin called fur, sah," said the old man as he came around to the grocery.

"Somebody dying?" asked a man who was passing.

"Yes, sah."

"Who is it?"

"Jupiter, sah—my dog Jupiter. Mebbe ye wouldn't mind gwine aroun' dar wid me? It's lonely like to be wid anybody dyin'."

The old man's voice proved that he was deeply moved, and the pedestrian went with him.

Round the corner and a half a block up the street they turned into a yard, and there lay the old dog on the grass, eyes half closed and breathing heavily.

"He's moas' gone—moas' gone!" whispered the old man as he knelt on the ground and softly smoothed the body.

"What's the matter?"

Cure For Piles

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs.

At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure.
