ASTORIA, OREGON:

MARCH 12, 1886 FRIDAY

Seattle expects to be lighted by electricity by April 1st.

It takes a Tacoma Ledger reporter fifty minutes to go two miles. The Northern Pacific Co. is going to build railroad shops and a round house at Taco ma.

"Happy" Cal Wagner's minstrels disbanded in Seattle, with much resultant unhappiness it is said.

At 10:30 to-morrow morning B. S. Worsley will sell a miscellaneous lot of government goods at his auction store.

The mist was heavy on the river yesterday, continuing throughout the day and making navigation a matter of slow progress

The seasons of target practice for the posts in this department have been announced, the earliest to commence in April.

THE LAST PRONUNCIAMENTO.

A committee of the local assembly A committee of the local assembly of the Knights of labor, appointed for the purpose has reported a plan for dealing with the Chinese and convict labor problems. The follow-ing is an outline of the plan: An or-ganization, to be known as the "Bu-reau of Labor of the Pacific coast" shall be formed, the government of which shall be vested in an executive board consisting of one member from board consisting of one member from each local assembly of the Knights of Labor, which board shall appoint a secretary, to collect information. It is declared that if no move is made in thirty days by the Chinese to commence shipment as requested by the Knights of Labor, the executive board of the bureau of industry shall request all employers of Chinese or prison labor to make arrangements to discontinue such labor within the next sixty days. If, after ninety days, any person be found employ-ing, directly or indirectly, Chinese or prison labor, the executive board shall boycott them in a most energetic manner. If the deportation of the Chinese has not commenced 120 days after the issuance of the plan. the executive board shall call on the Knights of Labor in the United States, Canada and British Columbia, and all labor organizations to assist us in a most vigorous boycott of the whole Chinese race living in America and of all their employers. After this period action shall be continued until the end is reached.-Cal. Grocer and Canner, Mar. 5.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Hale and Mil-lard, designated by the house as special committee to investigate and report the facts concerning ownership of Pan-Elec-tric telephone stock by certain public officers, took the deposition of Senator Vest, at his residence this afternoon. The senator stated that he first heard of the Pan Electric telephone company through a printed circular sent to him through the mails, some time in April, 1884. The circular gave the names of the officials of the company, and the prr-poses for which it was organized. He noticed that the name of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, was mentioned in the cir-cular as connected with the enterprise. He called on Senator Harris, and by him was referred to Senator Garland, who was referred to Senator Garland, who was referred to Senator Garland, who was referred to Renator Garland, who was referred to Senator Garland, who was referred to Renator Garland, who was referred to Renator Garland, who was referred to Renator Garland, who was referred to Senator Garland, who was referred to Renator Garland, who was referred to take, and did take, 100 shares of Pan Electric stock, for which he gave his check for $1000 on the Metropolitan national bank of Washing-ton, which was read on the following day WASHINGTON, March 10 .- Hale and Mil-
