Under Two Flags.

The civil war was such a big thing, it lasted so long and covered such a vast expanse of territory...

It was a cold, wet day in April, 1865. The lieutenant had become separated from his command on the march...

The man was in a quandary. He dared not go back to his New England home. The people there all knew that he had been in the Confederate army...

Sometimes this follower of two flags passes through Georgia on a business trip. He never hunts up any of his old ex-Confederate comrades...
