PSORIASIS.

And All Itching and Scaly Skin and Scalp Diseases Cured by Cuticura.

PSORIASIS, Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Itches, Pruritus, Scald Head, Migrating, Dandruff, Barbers', Bakers', Grocers', and Washerwomen's Itch, and every species of Itching, Burning, Scaly, Pimples, Blisters, and eruptions of the Skin, are cured by CUTICURA SOAP, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA OIL, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier internally, when physicians and all other remedies fail.

PSORIASIS, OR SCALY SKIN. I, John J. Case, D. S., having practiced dermatology in this country for thirty years, and being well known to thousands hereabouts, with a view to help any who are afflicted as I have been for the past twelve years, I feel that CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me of Psoriasis, or Scaly Skin, in eight days, after the doctors whom I had consulted gave me no help.

DISTRESSING BRUISES. Your CUTICURA REMEDIES performed a wonderful cure last summer on one of our customers, an old gentleman of seventy years of age, who suffered with terrible distressing eruptions on his head and face, and who had tried all remedies and doctors to no purpose.

MORE WONDERFUL YET. I, J. C. Trullinger, cured of Psoriasis or Lepra, of twenty years' stand, by CUTICURA REMEDIES. The most wonderful cure on record. A dispendent of scaly fell from him daily. Physicians and his friends thought he must die. Cure sworn to before a Justice of the Peace and Henderson's most prominent citizens.

SOO FOR NOTHING. Wm. Gordon, 27 Arlington Ave., Chelsea, Mass., writes: "Having paid out over $200 to first-class doctors to cure my baby without success, I tried the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which completely cured, after using three packages."

CUTICURA REMEDIES. Are sold in bottles. Price: CUTICURA SOAP, RESOLVENT, OIL, SOFT SOAP. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON.

She Fumigated.

A woman went down to Grand Trunk depot the other day to see about some freight expected from Canada, and after looking over the files the agent informed her that the goods had arrived in Windsor but were being fumigated.

"What business have they to fumigate my boxes over there?" loudly demanded the woman.

"Oh, they won't fumigate the boxes at all. They will simply fumigate them."

"Well, I won't pay for nothing of the sort, and I want you to understand it now!"

"There will be no charge, ma'am, no charge."

"And if they go and mark my bureau and bedsteads with paint or chalk I'll have damages!" she said, as she pulled on her mittens.

"They won't do it, ma'am. The law requires fumigation. It is simply fumigation."

"She went out shaking her head, and on the next block stopped the driver of an express wagon and asked:--

"Do you know what they fumigate goods for over in Windsor?"

"Well, ma'am, I can't say for certain, but it has something to do with small-pox."

"Tip!" she screamed, as she jumped a foot high. "They are going to fumigate the small-pox all through 'em to revenge me for moving out of the country! Show me to the nearest police station!"

The Rise of Eugene Hale.

In the Maine Legislature of 1862, my seat-mate was a gray-haired, good-looking man, every inch a gentleman--Mr. Grant, of Ellsworth--who treated me cordially from the first, and between us there grew up a lasting friendship. He had been in the House before, and helped me to get the "hang of the school-house." After we became acquainted, Mr. Grant inquired about Eugene Hale, who was a young man settled at Ellsworth. I had known Eugene from early boyhood, dividing his time between working on the farm and going to school, and I gave him a good recommendation. How could I do otherwise? For no young man ever stood fairer or better in the community in which he was raised. When I met Eugene I told him what I had said to Mr. Grant.

"Now, Eugene, I want you to fill the bill," said I. "When Eugene got his foot into Congress there was no power to get him out, until the greenback craze knocked his trotters out from under him. Seth Milliken, who represented Eugene's old district, had not forgotten what kicked Eugene, and when a bill was before Congress to make more eighty-five-cent dollars, he voted against it."--(Solon Chase, in Augusta Journal.)

Spitz, the Policeman.

A family living in Brooklyn possesses a dog of the Spitz variety, which is blessed with a remarkable degree of intelligence. Every night, when the master of the house is about to have the doors locked, he dispatches the dog to the yard to look up and bring in the cat. This the clever Spitz never fails to do, hunting in all possible nooks and hiding places, and eventually returning in a dignified triumph with the cat limp and dependent from his mouth. The strangest part of his story is, that the cat herself does not appear in the least to mind this rather summary cutting short of her "evening out," but regards the performance as quite legitimate, and settles herself meekly enough for a night by the furnace fire.--(Boston Courier.)

"I will not kiss your baby," said Grover Cleveland, true. "Just kiss my boy," the mother cried, "and his pa will vote for you."--(Providence Star.)

Cure For Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by J. W. Conn.
