Burdette's Advice to Young Men.
So you have got yourself into trouble, my son? Gone a little wrong, have you? Yes, well, that means, you know, that you have gone clear wrong; there is no mugwumpery in morals, my boy. And you've had such a hard time getting back that it made you a little bitter and cynical, and you think all the world is rather hard and selfish and pitiless, and especially severe on you? Well, I wouldn't feel that way at all, if I were you. I don't think I ever did feel that way, and I know more about it than you do. I've been farther down the Jericho road than you. Went down there to let my beard grow. Great town for toots, from away back. It's a bad country. Never heard of but one good woman in Jericho, and she did not move in good society. But, my son, it isn't society's fault that you got into trouble. You knew what the Jericho road was before you went down that way. You knew there was a curse on the town. You were safe enough in Jerusalem; why didn't you stay there? Don't feel bitter towards all the world because you fell among thieves and got cleaned out. It is a kind, good natured, forgiving old world, if you give it a chance to be forgiving. True, it doesn't always look that way to a fellow in trouble, because then the fellow is apt to look at the wrong people.

You found on the Jericho road, say, six or eight thieves—that is, a half dozen professionals and two amateurs who passed by on the other side—and only one Good Samaritan, and naturally it seems to you that the heaven of good is utterly lost in the great mass of rascality and hypocrisy; but, bless you, my son, in the great honest living world, in the world that is trying to do right, and trying to lead men to better things than Jericho excursions, in the only world that really lives and cares for just such fellows as you, in the real world of men and women who deal with the young man all the more gently when his smarting wounds are deepest, the one good Samaritan outweighs a regiment of these villains who beat you, and robbed you, and passed you by on the road to Jericho. Never mind the priest and the Levite, my son. They were going down to Jericho, too, you remember. And one closing word, my son. Unless you are smarter and stronger than the thieves down Jericho way—and I guess maybe you are not, very few men are—why you keep off that road. You stay in Jerusalem and you'll have more money and less headache.

A Chance for Health
Is afforded those fast sinking into a condition of hopeless debility. The means are at hand. In the form of a general medicine cordial, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters embodies the combined qualities of a blood purifier and depurative, and tonic and an alternative. While it promotes digestion and assimilation, and stimulates appetite, it has the further effect of purifying the life current and strengthening the nervous system. As the blood grows richer and purer by its use, they who resort to this sterling medicinal agent, acquire not only vigor but bodily substance. A healthful change in the secretions is effected by it, and that sure and rapid physical decay, which a chronic obstruction of the functions of the system produces, is arrested. The prime causes of disease being removed, health is speedily renovated and vigor restored.

Capt. C. F. Powell, under orders from headquarters of the engineer corps, will soon make a thorough inspection of all the government works in process of construction on this coast.

A Clear Complexion.
How can you expect a clear complexion when the blood is full of impurities and the stomach clogged? The blood becomes impure because the liver does not act properly and work off the poison from the system, and the certain results are blotches, pimples and eruptions. Purify the blood with Simmons Liver Regulator, and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels, and then the skin will become clear.

A Little Mixed.
The World publishes a curious list of peculiar relationships by the custom of protracted intermarriages in families prevalent among the inhabitants of the land lying between the Delaware and the Chesapeake bays. The most striking example is furnished by a respectable family of farmers, bearing the old name of Smith, living near Barnards wharf, on the road leading to Cambridge. The present head of the family, Mark Smith, is the father of a half-dozen boys. Mark Smith, his father, Jonathan Smith, who came from England, and Mark Smith's sons, Tedrick and Samuel, all married sisters. The women were the daughters of George Hurlbert, who formerly lived near Barnards wharf. Mark Smith's wife died ten years ago, leaving no children. Mark then married his father's widow. She had been his father's second wife and was only Mark's stepmother. She had a daughter by William L. Tilghman. After she had borne Smith a child he was divorced from her, whereupon she was wedded to Hurlbert, the father of Smith's first wife. She had had a child by Hurlbert. To further complicate matters, Samuel Smith's wife died and he married Tilghman's sister, who was a sister to Hurlbert's wife. The climax was reached when Tedrick Smith's son Johnathan, married the daughter that his grandfather's second wife had previously borne by William L. Tilghman. Was there ever a more mixed up family?

At San Francisco last Friday, the trial of Captain Drake, of the wrecked steamer Normanton, when twenty-five Japanese passengers lost their lives, resulted in a verdict of manslaughter. He was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Caspar Ramsley, 30 years old, while driving cattle across Mollala river, in Clackamas county the other day, slipped from his horse and was drowned.

Proper Treatment for Coughs.
That the reader may fully understand what constitutes a good Cough and Lung Syrup, we will say that Tar and Wild Cherry is the base of the best remedies yet discovered. These ingredients with several others equally as efficacious, enter largely into Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup, thus making it one of the most reliable now on the market.
