More petitions than you can shake a stick at will be presented to the legislature this winter. Some of them are of merit, but many of them are manifestly impracticable.

The Soudan, Sudbourn, British Ambassador, Norna, Sarmatian and Oimara spread their white wings yesterday morning and flew to sea. The Arica, previously reported, ar-

Isaac Hyatt, who was convicted of murder at the last term of the circuit court for Washington county, at Hillsboro, was sentenced last Friday by Judge Taylor to the state's prison for life.

The Dolphin came in yesterday afternoon with a catch of fine fish which found ready purchase. This was her first trip. She will go out again as soon as some of the machinery is differently arranged.

Chas. Olsen, mate of the tug Co lumbia, fell and broke his left leg last evening. He was wheeling coal onto the tug and the wheel barrow tipping, he went with it and fell on the combings of the hatch. He was given prompt surgical attendance.

The second-class buoy off the entrance to Tillamook bay is reported gone, and the number one first-class can buoy just inside Shoalwater bay bar is also reported gone. At Shoal water bay the second-class bar buoy will be replaced by a first-class per-pendicular striped buoy.

The Idaho brought about 600 bar-rels of fine cold pressed fish oil from the works of the Northwestern Trading Co. at Killispoo. It will be put in the hold of an English vessel after awhile and taken to Liverpool and rectified and clarified and purified and put in bottles and sent back and bought here and used on salad.

Pythian Castle Hall was the scene of a pleasant gathering last evening, the oceasion being the partly public installation of the officers elect of Astor Lodge No. 6, and Pacific Lodge No. 17, K. of P., in presence of the members of the lodges, their families and invited friends. No city on the coast takes a more active interest, proportionately, in Pythian work than Astoria, and as the members of that order make the motto of the organization not alone a silent precept, but au active duty, the cardinal princi-ples of the order have a living growth in the hearts of its adherents and friends. Messra. Tuttle, Fulton and Cleveland delivered excellent addresses last evening, and after the installation there was a social dance.

Donkey parties are the latest wriggle in social gatherings. A large sil-houette representing a tailless donkey is cut out of paper or cloth and fas-tened upon the wall. To each of the guests are given a cambric tail and a pin. Then they are blindfolded, one by one, placed in a corner opposite the donkey, whirled three times around, and then started on a blind search for the donkey, upon which, if they reach it, the tail is to be pinned. If the gnest goes in another direction and stumbles against a wall door, chair, or anything else, there he must leave the tail. The movements of the blindfolded are said to be ludicrous. The person who makes the best effort to place the tail upon the donkey where it belongs receive a present of some kind, while the guest who makes the most unsuccess ful effort gets the booby prize.

This Should Be a Terrible Warning.

THE PUBLIC GOOD ALONE DESIRED

Under the heading "That Division Scheme," The St. Helens Mist objects to changing the Columbia county west boundary line, and comments on The Astorian's suggestion that the line be extended three miles eastward, partly as follows:

Any resident of Nehalem who desires to have any portion of that country at-tached to Classop county, evidently does not understand his own interests. If Astoria is more convenient for the Ne-halem settlers, will Tire Astorian please halem settlers, will The Astorian please inform us by what road they would travel to get there. Is there any road at all from Astoria to any portion of Clutsop county that is fit to be traveled by a wagon? Are your taxes less than ours, and is your county better governed in any way? In Columbia county, for instance, the farmers can dictate the politics and business affairs of the county.

The Mist really offers no objections worth considering, and the above quotation is all that is needed to
