A Trip Toward the Nehalem.

EDITOR ASTORIAN:
Thinking the many readers of THE ASTORIAN would be pleased to hear something from the Nehalem country, I will give you a brief description of my trip to that country.
Starting from Astoria the weather was fine and the water smooth. We had a very pleasant trip up the Young's and Klaskanine rivers to the Kaim farm where we spent the afternoon and the night following. We were entertained by Mr. Peterson, a very genial gentleman and foreman on the Kaim farm. After a very pleasant night and a good breakfast, we started on our way rejoicing. For about four miles we passed over a rolling or hilly country on a very good road; the country is dotted with nice looking farm houses, which denote a prosperous neighborhood; thence for about ten miles there is no settler, although there is good land along the route. The first settler in the Nehalem is a Mr. Wage, a new settler; one mile further and we come to Mr. Deuser's; he has a fine place. Here we noticed quite a band of nice cattle. The next place is a deserted place belonging to Mr. Bender, the janitor at the custom house, and adjoining is Chris. Olsen, a new settler.
Half a mile and further we come to the residence of W. H. Lewis who has a fine farm. He has sixty or seventy acres in cultivation. Here we saw some nice looking cattle and two fine young colts. Half a mile further and we come to the residence of John Wesley Slaughter. He also has a fine farm and a nice band of cattle. Near by is Mr. Evans the Fishhawk smith, also a new settler. One mile and a half and we come to the residence of Squire Robbins. All have heard of the woman on the Longtom hunting for the well with a ten foot pole. Well, we actually saw the squire wading two feet deep in water with a bucket to get to his spring. He says he does not believe in drinking creek water when he has a good spring on his farm. Across the creek is the residence of W. A. Foster. He has a fine farm and it is very productive, we should say, from the number of heads we saw bobbing around. Here is located the Fishhawk schoolhouse, a log structure, too small, we should say, for the present need of this prosperous neighborhood.
Half a mile further we come to the residence of J. W. Walker. Being wet, hungry and tired, we were glad to accept the hospitality of our friend Mr. W., and he entertained us well. He has some nice cattle and some fine horses.
Nehalem is certainly the finest part of Clatsop county I have yet seen. All that is needed is a wagon road from Astoria to the Nehalem river. Then this part of the county would be as good as any part of Oregon.

ST. VITUS'S DANCE CURED.
FARMINGDALE, L. I., N. Y., Sept. 2, 1885.
I have been troubled for several years with an affection of the nerves which no doctor or no medicine could cure until I tried BRANDETH'S PILLS. I would be taken with a violent pain in the middle of my spine, and my arms and legs would twitch violently. It acted something like St. Vitus Dance, for I couldn't control my limbs. It would come and go once or twice a month, lasting two or three days at a time. Finally, at the beginning of one of my attacks, I took five BRANDETH'S PILLS. As soon as they acted freely I found myself almost well. So I continued taking them for a month—one or two a night. It is now a year since I have had an attack, and I attribute my cure to BRANDETH'S PILLS.

A Very Just Complaint.

MISHAWAKA, Or., Jan. 27, 1887.
EDITOR ASTORIAN:
As we are seldom heard from except in connection with some road petition, I have something else to write about. We have about twenty settlers living on unsurveyed land. Some of them have lived for years and several have lived for fifteen years on their claims and are still unable to get their patents. We have made efforts to get our land surveyed; we have petitioned and have offered to furnish the men to make the survey if the government would furnish the surveyor and allow us to help ourselves. Our settlers here have trouble in determining the division lines between their claims. Old settlers are selling out their improvements and leaving because they cannot even go on an extended visit without being in danger of losing their work. They have to sell their work for fifty cents on the dollar and even less. Four of our settlers have died and their heirs are unable to get a title to the years of hard work done on the claim. We have over twenty settlers and putting a very low estimate on their improvements there is over $10,000 worth of labor done and over 3,000 acres of land which would soon be taxable if surveyed. There are at least fifty good claims yet to be taken on the township we wish surveyed that is fit for agricultural purposes, and very nearly all the remainder is valuable timber land. Some of it is very fine fir timber, beside spruce and some cedar. When there is any way to get lumber from the mouth of the Nehalem river this will be valuable. Is it necessary to give any more reasons why it should be surveyed? We should like to know some reason why it should not.
Yours truly,
J. R. WHERRY.

For Cholera, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Inflammation of the Bowels or Colic.
Take internally from five to ten drops of Darby's Prophylactic Fluid in a tablespoonful of water every hour or two until improvement takes place. There is no danger in taking more of it and it frequently if occasion requires. In chronic cases, or when the stomach refuses to retain anything else, use injections of the Fluid and water. We have never known a case that did not readily yield to such treatment, and it saved the lives of many.

Good Results in Every Case.
D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds, with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery.

Safer and Better than Calomel!
I have been subject to severe spells of Constipation of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 5 to 20 grains of calomel, which generally laid me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief, without any interruption to my business.
