NEWS FROM LONDON.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Parnell's malady is reported to be Bright's disease of the kidneys. It is thought improbable that he will be able to stand the strain of parliament. In the event of his enforced retirement, Healy will probably succeed him in the leadership of the Irish party.

Fifty conservative members of parliament met to-day to discuss the question of a measure to be based on the report of a commission appointed in search of the causes of the depression in trade. The drift of opinion favored tabling the resolution and supporting the principle of reciprocity, and declaring that where foreign fiscal arrangements attack British trade, counteracting duties should be levied, and several other drafts of notions were discussed, but a decision was finally reserved till another meeting.

At Chamberlain's conference with Lord Salisbury to-day there was stated the government's proposed measure extending the scope of the Ashbourn act. The new measure approaches the Chamberlain land purchase scheme and will strengthen the radical union's adherence to the conservatives.

FRENCH FINANCES.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—The Bourse opened depressed. Besides the political rumors and general financial mistrust, a general suspension of all conditions made the transaction of business almost an impossibility. Members of "Couleuse's" were practically refused credit and dealings and last prices were, therefore, in many instances nominal. Italian rates were largely offered, but found few buyers. After official hours they were nominally quoted at 90-10 against 90-40; 3 per cent. rentes for money fell 2 francs 90 centimes and for account 2 francs 5 centimes. Credit fancier is down 75 francs; Suez canal shares, 87 francs; Ottoman bank, 17 francs; Panama canal, 7 francs, 50 centimes. The opinion prevails that unless the banks and great capitalists come to the relief of the market many disastrous failures are inevitable.

THE STRIKES AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, February 4.—The Republic of the White Star line and the Erie of the National line company were not loaded to-day by green hands in time to sail. The Morgan line pier is choked with freight and the gates are closed. Green men began unloading the Helola, the regular non-union men loading the Canardet Aurania. Roanoke and Breakwater of the old Dominion line sailed yesterday, but not with full cargo.

A public meeting of business men has been called to meet at Steinway hall on Saturday night to consider

NO TIDINGS FROM THE "DAWN."

There is no word regarding the little steamer Dawn that through some accident to her machinery or from other unknown cause drifted to sea last Thursday morning. The last seen of her was at noon that day. She was then off MacKenzie Head, the water being comparatively smooth, the wind off shore, which would tend to drive her to the south-west.

It is a surprise that no tug went to her assistance that day. The tug men who were at Baker's bay and Sand Island say that they thought it was the Dolphin, which looks reasonable enough, for a good many others at the cape and elsewhere thought so too, but the Pioneer and Escort were both lying here, the former at Flavel's dock and the latter at the O. R. & N. dock, and though Al. Harris of the life station crew made official request, he could not get either tug.

The Pioneer went out yesterday morning to look for the missing vessel and cruised around well out in the offing the greater part of the day, but could see no sign of her. Two tugs will go out again to-day to renew the search. A little more promptness would have been more commendable. With a small boat, no provisions, little fuel, poorly fitted and apparently disabled, but two men aboard, the chances of the little craft seemed slim when carried out to sea, and the most ordinary dictates of humanity suggested that immediate aid be furnished.

Church and Hermann, the captain and engineer, were the only two on board the vessel, and the fate of themselves and their little boat is still a matter of painful uncertainty.

It is possible that the boat did not founder but drifted in the track of some passing coaster or steamer and the two lives thus saved.

A Cold Day in Astoria.

At one o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer at the U. S. signal service office in this city indicated fifteen degrees—seventeen degrees below the freezing point—the coldest it has been for several years in this city. The beaten snow craked with frost under the feet, the stars flamed and glittered, and the east wind cut like a knife. Men who had to make early rounds found it very disagreeable, and the annoyance pervaded every pursuit, waterpipes were frozen, roofs leaked, and a general discomfort prevailed. Throughout the day the chief effort was to keep warm, the thermometer at eleven A. M., standing at 19, the barometer being 33.183—unusually high.

Cold weather is not welcome here. We are not prepared for it, and the worst of it is that it is not worth while being prepared for it. It comes so seldom and its reign is so brief that it is almost a useless expense to get ready for freezing weather. About the time one realizes that the ground is frozen, that the water doesn't run, that the potatoes in the back shed and the milk in the kitchen, and the water at the back of the stove are frozen, and that the wood is low and no hauling it comes a soft, warm wind from the west, and presently the icicles drop, the snow disappears and everything is warm and maggy again. Our homes "ain't built that way," they are not put up with a view to winter wear and a few days of such weather as the present results in general discomfort, which, fortunately, is of brief duration.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor you are bothered with Head-ache, you are fidgetty, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap brandy and whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at W. E. DeWent & Co's Drug Store.

Unnecessary Misery.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. HAMBURG FIGS were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents. At all druggists. J. J. Mack & Co., proprietors, S. F.

A CHILD'S SKIN.

Ears and Scalp Covered with Eczematous Scabs and Sores Cured by Cuticura.

MY little son, aged eight years, has been afflicted with Eczema of the scalp, and at times a great portion of the body, ever since he was two years old. It began in his ears, and extended to a scarp, which became covered with scabs and sores, and from which a sticky fluid poured out, causing intense itching and distress, and leaving his hair matted and lifeless. I determined to try Cuticura. Gradual cure was effected, and his hair came out as a piece of beefsteak. A gradual cure was effected, and his hair came out as a piece of beefsteak. A gradual cure was effected, and his hair came out as a piece of beefsteak.

At night a wound a rash his head, and his scalp was covered with blood. I used Cuticura on his scalp, and in many ways tried to prevent his scratching, but it was no use. He would scratch. I took him to the hospital and to the best physicians in Peabody without success. About this time, some friends, who had been cured by Cuticura, advised me to try them. I began to use them on the 15th of January last. In seven months every particle of the disease was removed, and a spot of scab remains on his scalp to tell the story of his suffering. His hair has returned, and is thick and strong, and his scalp is smooth and cool as any child in the world. I cannot say enough to express my gratitude for this wonderful cure by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and will all similarly afflicted to know that my statement is true and without exaggeration.

CHARLES MCKAY, Peabody, Mass.

I have seen Mr. McKay's boy when badly affected with the Eczema. He was a pitiful sight to look at. I know that he has tried our best physicians, and did all a father could do for a suffering child, but availed nothing. I show that the state's health has made you a reward for the curing of his boy by your CUTICURA REMEDIES are true in every particular.

WILLIAM J. MCCARTHY, 32 Foster St., Peabody, Mass.

I do not know of any instance in which the Cuticura Remedies have failed to produce satisfactory results. I believe I have sold more of them than I can ever count during the thirty-three years of my experience as a druggist. A. D. THYNE, Batavia, N. Y.

A Word About Catarrh.

It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and distress, dulling the sense of hearing, transmitting the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and filling the nostrils with a disagreeable odor. Insidiously, creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it eats into the membranes lining the air passages, the bones, eating through the skull, and causing inflammation, slouching and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alternatives are simply protracted suffering, leading to a fatal termination. SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, by Inhalation and by Internal Administration, has never failed; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, bearing smell and taste have been removed, and the disease thoroughly driven out.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one of the most RADICAL CURE, and a CATARRHIC SOLVENT, a 100 IMPROVED INHALER, neatly wrapped in the package, with full directions; price, $1.00. FOSTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON.
