In the House of Representatives.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Dingley, of Maine, presented memorials from the Maine legislature in favor of legislation to protect American fishermen and the passage of the pleuro-pneumonia bill.
Belmont of New York, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported the house substitute bill for the senate retaliation bill under special order, and asked immediate consideration. It was finally determined that the debate, be limited to three hours. Belmont opened the debate, dwelling on the importance of the object on which the house was now asked to act. The question of the fisheries was one that had engaged the attention of our government from its foundation. Though from time to time temporary arrangement for the settlement has been made, it has now reached a point where it has again demanded the serious consideration of the country. It is not a mere commercial question, simply affecting the restriction of American fishermen. It is an important question whether the United States is willing to acquiesce in the repeated violations of the treaty. He briefly sketched the cause of the Canadian legislation, and commented upon it in the light of the correspondence recently published between Great Britain and the United States.
Soon after congress adjourns the fishing season will begin, and in self defense the power defensive in retaliation should be conferred upon the president. There has been no question in the senate as to the advisability of giving this power, but the bill, as it came from the senate, is open to certain objections. We have certain rights to the deep sea fisheries which no other nation except Great Britain herself possessed. It is but fair to the executive, that when congress placed upon him great responsibility, it should be conferred in distinct terms. This he did not think the senate bill did, therefore he favored the adoption of the substitute.

Rice said this should be no party case, but the case of the entire nation. The senate bill was not a party bill, but had been passed after careful consideration and able discussion by the vote of the senators on both sides of the chamber.
Something must be done to protect our national honor. During the past year 100 of our vessels had been subjected to search, and some of them seized by the Canadian authorities for touching Canadian shores for the purpose of trade. It is a very vital question with American honor whether any Canadian officer possessed such right of search or seizure. A vessel named Grover Cleveland had been stopped, and a vessel named T. F. Bayard had been warned off as a suspicious character. He thought one year of exclusion of Canada's fish would end the outrages. The substitute then by a vote of 135 yeas to 123 nays was agreed to, and the bill as thus amended was passed by a vote of 252 to 1, Dougherty of Florida, voting nay.

The bill differs from the measure passed by the senate by including provisions which prohibit the transportation of Canadian products or the moving of locomotives, cars, etc., into the United States

Useful and Harmful Medicines.
There is a certain class of remedies for constipation absolutely useless. These are blisters and potions made in great part of podophylla, aloes, rhubarb, gamboge, and other worthless ingredients. The damage they do to the stomachs of those who use them is incalculable. They evacuate the bowels, it is true, but always do so violently and profusely, and besides, grippe the bowels. Their effect is to weaken both them and the stomach. Better far to use the agreeable and salutary aperient, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the laxative effect of which is never preceded by pain, or accompanied by a convulsive, violent action of the bowels.
On the contrary, it invigorates those organs, the stomach and the entire system. As a means of curing and preventing malarial fevers, no medicine can compare with it, and it remedies nervous debility, rheumatism, kidney and bladder inactivity, and other inorganic ailments.

tress and all symptoms of Dyspepsia.

The Canadian Elections.
OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 23.—Returns as far as received indicate the election of 117 conservatives and 97 oppositionists. A large number of contests are still to be held, and the government majority no doubt will be further decreased. Among those elected as conservatives are a number of independents and bolters whose votes can be considered sure for Sir John Macdonald in the event of a vote of confidence on one of the issues of the past session.
From the complexion of the newly elected house it is generally believed that Sir John must secure new converts or appeal again to the country in the hope of securing more seats.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Further details from Riviera increase the disaster by earthquake. At Cervon, near Diano-Marino, 300 persons were killed by being buried in the ruins of falling buildings.
Railway traffic is suspended beyond Savona. Prisoners in the government jail at Finalbergo were alarmed at the earthquake and attempted to escape, but were overcome by the guards.

At Night Always have Soother at hand. It is the only safe medicine yet made that will remove all infantile disorders. It contains no Opium or Morphine, but gives the child natural ease from pain. Price 25 cents.

To those subject to the vexations of business life, dyspepsia and a feeling of debility, irregular and despondent, we say, take Simmons Liver Regulator. The Regulator is free from any injurious mineral substance; not disagreeable; can be taken at any time without interfering with business or pleasure.
It is gentle, safe, and a good digestor.
It is unequalled in the cure of piles, constipation, bad breath, sick headache and bilious complaints.

The snow is so deep and hard at

No One Need
Remain
A Dyspeptic.

"I have been suffering for over two years with Dyspepsia. For the last year I could not take a drink of cold water nor eat any meat without vomiting it up.
My life was a misery. I had had recommended Simmons Liver Regulator, of which I am now taking the second bottle, and the fact is that words cannot express the relief I feel. My appetite is very good, and I digest everything thoroughly. I sleep well now, and I used to be very restless. I am flesh-ing up fast; good strong food and Simmons Liver Regulator have done it all.
I write this in hopes of benefiting some one who has suffered as I did, and would take oath to these statements if desired."
