THEY MARRIED THE GIRLS.
How a Troupe of Female Variety Performers Retired to Private Life.
Two or three weeks ago Aleck Bosoutow, a well known manager of theatrical enterprises in the west, went into the Black Hills country with a small troupe of variety performers, most of the members of which were young women. He arrived here last night from the hills with more money than he knew what to do with, and announced that he would organize another company and go back there as soon as possible. As the attractions he had with him a month ago are not to be seen in the vicinity, he was asked what had become of them.

"The women are all up in the hills," he replied, "every one of them. That's the beauty of the thing. We hadn't been there long before the girls began to receive propositions of marriage. I saw that there was nothing but ruin ahead of me unless I could head off this thing, and so I told the girls that while they were looking out for themselves they should not forget me. I had brought them into the promised land and I was deserving of a considerate treatment. You see I had always treated my people pretty decent, and they felt friendly toward me. My proposition was that the girls who wanted to accept offers of marriage should do so, but that they should inform their admirers that they were under contract with me for one year, and that these contracts could be broken only by the payment of a forfeit of $250. They agreed to this, and I insisted on nothing but that they should all hang together and go with me to Sturgis, where we would disband. With this understanding we set out for Sturgis. The boys from Rapid City, Lead City and Deadwood followed us, and at Sturgis I had the best houses of the season. It beat anything you ever saw. I was at the door and they shouldered dollars at me until I couldn't get away with them. After three nights of this sort of thing we disbanded; every lady in the company was married, and I got $250 for each of them. No, I'm not exactly in the matrimonial agency business, but it does look that way a little for a fact. On the next trip I intend to put it into the contract that anybody leaving the company before the end of the engagement shall forfeit $250. In this way I shall make sure of making a little money. It was nothing but sheer good nature on the part of the girls that enabled me to lay up a cent on this trip. My company would have melted away like a snowbank in July if the women hadn't been inclined to do the fair thing by me.

"The love making of these fellows is absolutely irresistible. I never saw anything like it. It flatters a woman half to death. They hang around and look at her, and offer to do all sorts of favors for her. One of my ladies went to the postoffice in Sturgis and received a couple of newspapers from Rapid City containing some favorable mention of her performance, and when she started to return to the hotel three or four chaps offered to carry them for her, one of them saying as he, with greater boldness than the rest, seized the papers, that 'no woman don't carry no freight in this town.'"
—Sidney, Nebraska, Letter.

TESTIMONY OF A PAINTER.
No. 105 CARLTON AVENUE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.
Alcock's Porous Plasters are undoubtedly the best external remedy manufactured. I make this assertion to the public from my own personal experience of their wonderful virtues. Suffering from severe pains in my side and chest, contracted through a severe cold, I applied a couple of Alcock's Porous Plasters upon going to bed at night. The result was, that in eight hours after applying them I could get up and walk about with very little pain or ache, when the night previous I could neither get up nor down without help, nor stop to remove my shoes. I have since used them in my family for various ailments, and have never known them to fail to give almost immediate relief.
T. H. BACKUS.

Wretched, Indeed.
Are those whom a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeable symptoms indicative of liver complaint. Nausea, sick headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood and loss of appetite, signalize it as one of the most distressing, as it is one of the most common, of maladies. There is, however, a benign specific for the disease and all its unpleasant manifestations. It is the concentrated essence of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. Besides rectifying liver disorders, it invigorates the feeble, conquers kidney and bladder complaints, and hastens the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague.

Jack Hackett was bitten by a rattlesnake in Maine in October last. He drank all the whiskey he could, and kept alive until a few days ago, when the virus triumphed over the remedy.
The reason Why Acker's Blood Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it.

Congress's Closing Hours.
WASHINGTON, March 4.—At 5 o'clock this morning the effects of the sixteen-hour session were visible in the appearance of remnants of documents and reports. The atmosphere in the house was very impure and oppressive, and was well impregnated with tobacco smoke, notwithstanding the repeated appeals of the speaker to members requesting them to observe the rule which prohibited smoking on the floor. As early as 7 o'clock spectators began to occupy the galleries, and an hour before the expiration of the forty-ninth congress by limitation at least 200 persons were present.
It was understood up to a late hour of the forenoon that the president would not occupy his room at the capitol, as has been the custom of his predecessors, but nevertheless he came, being influenced doubtless to some extent by messages sent to him from members of both branches. Speaker Carlisle telephoned at 10 A. M. that the president's presence was necessary to save the District of Columbia and deficiency bills, which could not be enrolled in time to reach the White House, nearly two miles away. Senators Sherman and Saulsbury, appointed at 11 o'clock a committee on the part of the senate to notify the president that congress awaited any final message he might have to send, caused it to be made known they would perform their duty by going to the president's room at the capitol, and if they did not find him there would report the fact to the senate, assuming that he had no further communications to make.
The president and cabinet reached the capitol at 12 o'clock, actual time. The clocks of the two houses were set back, and the senate adjourned without day at 11:55 A. M., senate time—12:04, actual time.

How's Your Liver?
Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.
NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever see anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced. It seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.
