Regular council meeting to-night.

The British Benevolent association Ross, the escaped convict, is still at J. will meet in Mr. P. L. Cherry's office large, but the police officers are conat eight o'clock this evening.

The O. R. & N. and Northern Pacitic companies have issued circulars | resigned. abrogating all special rate contracts after April 1st.

A picture in Griffin & Reed's window, of Rescue hose team, the champions at the state firemen's tournament of '86, attracted considerable attention yesterday. It is a large and well mounted group, and is the work of S. B. Crow.

In eastern Oregon, says the News, the man who now owns a ton of hay is respected. He who possesses ten tons is considered wealthy, while the proprietor of 100 tons is looked up to like a bonanza king and is spoken of as a possible candidate for the United States senate.

Mr. C. W. Shively, the efficient clerk of School District No. 18, has finished the enumeration of children of school age in that district. There are 287 males and 201 females, a to-tal of 488; of these 88 are Chinese. The number enrolled during the term has been 172; the average daily attendance has been 110. The school has been run successfully and satisfactorily to the majority and there is a fund of over $1,200 in the school treasury.

The treasury department has is-sued some new rules regarding steam vessels, from which the following is taken: Sec. 24. Masters and pilots of steamers on lakes and seaboards are required to have their wheel chains fixed so that the wheel and helm shall move in the same direction, so that when the wheel is put to starboard the vessel's head shall go to port, and where the wheel is put to port the vessels head should go to the starboard.

If the bar in the Columbia just above the month of the Willamette was removed, the Columbia would not block up with ice so as to ob-struct navigation, says the Vancouver Independent. If the Columbia waterway convention will continue its good work the obstruction may be removed. In time that bar will get into the mouth of the Willamette,
