FRESH CLATSOP EGGS Can be had of L. M. Shaffer 61 Water St., and Wherry & Co.'s market opposite Occident Hotel. I don't claim they are fresh as some do who have but a few chickens, and it takes them a month to get a shipment, but because I have the largest Chicken ranch this side of Portland, run by experienced hands, pick up the eggs every day and bring them to town 2 times a week. And don't you forget that every egg bought from the above parties is guaranteed by them to be fresh. S. K. STANLEY.

An Opinion on Prohibition. ASTORIA, March 9th, 1887. EDITOR ASTORIAN: In your issue of this morning I notice what senator Ingalls has to say about the result of prohibition in Kansas. Let us see what others say about it. John A. Martin, Governor of Kansas, says in his annual message: "Truly intemperance is decreasing in Kansas; drinking habits are giving place to sobriety, and public sentiment is deepening and strengthening in favor of wholesome and practical laws to wholop the open saloon, and the vice, the crime, the poverty, the suffering and the sorrow at which it is the fruitful source." And again he says: "It is my opinion that not more than one-tenth of the liquor is sold in the state to-day that there was before the passage of the prohibitory law." The Chicago News lately published the opinions of every probate judge in the state of Kansas on this subject of the effects of prohibition. Out of fifty-five there were fifty-two who testified that prohibition did prohibit, crime was greatly diminished; that taxes were lessened, and that the people were happier, more contented, more prosperous, since prohibition went into effect. If prohibition is a failure in Kansas, who sells the liquor? Some say the drug stores sell. Then of course we must expect to find a great increase in the number of drug stores to make up for the deficiency in saloons. But there is no such increase. In Kansas, as in Oregon, every drug store and every saloon is compelled to take out a United States license to sell liquors. Now let us compare Kansas with Oregon in this respect. In Oregon there is one license to every 131 souls; in Kansas there is one to every 608 souls. That includes the drug stores.

How about taxes? The saloon causes four-fifths of our crime. It is the crime that causes our taxes here in Clatsop county as elsewhere. So when we have abolished the saloon we reduce the taxes, do we? Yes, that's it. Here in Clatsop county, with about sixty saloons, our taxes (not including city taxes) are about $5 to $6 per capita; in prohibition Kansas, 20 cents per capita; in prohibition Maine they are 10 cents per capita. Prohibition Vermont has a 10 cent tax, while high license Illinois has a $7 per capita tax.

Now see what Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, of Maine, says about the success of prohibition in that state. He says: "Intemperance has steadily decreased in Maine since the first enactment of the prohibitory law, until now it can be said with truth that there is no equal number of people in the Anglo Saxon world among whom so small an amount of intoxicating liquor is consumed as among the 650,000 inhabitants of Maine." AUG. C. KINNEY, M. D.

TRIED IN THE CRUCIBLE. S.S.S. About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. They tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me, and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and it is rapidly disappearing. I would advise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial. Mrs. NANCY J. McCONAUGHEY, Ashe Grove, Tippecanoe Co., Ind. Feb. 16, 1886.

DR. S. HARMON Oculist. The Duplex Eye Illuminator. By this machine I am able to detect the slightest disease of the eye. I have also an invention by which I am able to measure the focus of the eyes; then, I make glasses to suit each eye accordingly. I have a large supply of Brazilian Pebble Lens, for eyes, in different stages, which can be secured only by an Oculist. Also have the Medicated Lens, which, in some cases, advantage cannot express. The benefit the human eye derive from them. For instance, a large eye, and a large pupil, cannot see the pebble, as they give too much light. The Medicated having tint lens, a great benefit to a weak or diseased eye. I have no spectacles like those of ordinary manufacture. My goods are made to order, accordingly as each eye requires. I claim to be a Practical Optician, and will prove to the public that need my services that I am exactly what I claim to be. The difference between a pair of ordinary glasses and glasses made under the same size as a candle to an electric light. Office - Room 11, Occident Hotel, Astoria.
