If our correspondents will condense their communications they will insure prompt insertion. Few ideas are of such great value as to need more than two columns to express them. The Various Tales The Telegraph Brings From Both Continents.

Berlin, Mar. 12.—Prince Bismarck to-day gave a dinner to the leaders of the various parties which voted for the septennate bill.

NEWS NOT CONFIRMED. New York, Mar. 12.—W. J. Carney, who has been associated in business with Capt. Jas. B. Eads, who was reported to have died in Nassau, in the Bermudas, said to-night that he had not received any definite information of Ead's death. This fact led him to hope that the report was untrue, although he knew that Capt. Eads was very sick at Nassau.

JUST TO SHOW THERE'S NO ILL FEELING. St. Petersburg, March 12.—The czar will send Grand Duke Vladimir and Grand Duke Michel, together with a large suite, to Berlin on the occasion of Emperor William's ninetieth birthday as a mark of cordiality.

BELOOF'S BOOMERANG. Sofia, Mar. 12.—A Russian named Beloof recently brought several bands of Montenegrin desperadoes numbering fifty men each into Sofia with a view to creating insurrection. ONLY FORTY-FIVE CASES. Los Angeles, March 12.—The following dispatch was sent this evening by the undersigned: "Out of a population of 95,000 in the city and county, there have been only forty-five cases of smallpox. Four of these cases resulted fatally. The authorities are taking every possible precaution and no fear of an epidemic is apprehended." Signed: D. H. Orme, member elect board of health; Dr. Hagen, city physician; and Mayor Workman.

THE POPE AND THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR. Rome, March 12.—The Congregation of the Holy Office are at present discussing the report of Cardinal Gibbon concerning the Knights of Labor in the United States and Canada. A decision is not expected for a long time. From the best informed sources it is learned that the council believe that a distinction must be made between members of the order in the two countries. The essentials, however, are the same and the Vatican will be found to look favorably on the Knights, so far as they use peaceful measures to secure a better condition of the working classes for which the order was organized. It will, however, speak in no uncertain sound against the use of violence, and will commend arbitration as the one means to settle disputes between employer and the employes. It will probably be found that when the report is finally made, that the order in America will be commended on certain conditions while that in Canada may be condemned. The congregation considers the question as one of the most important now before the Vatican, and the deliberations are generally presided over by the Pope himself.

CLERICAL COMMENDATION OF BEECHER. New York, March 12.—The clerical union of New York and Brooklyn, which has a membership of clergymen irrespective of creed, and of denomination, and having in mind the recent action of the body of ministers at Chicago relative to Henry Ward Beecher and his death, at a special meeting held to-day, unanimously adopted lengthy resolutions, the same being designed secondarily to offset the attitude of the Chicago clergy. They pay a glowing tribute to his commanding genius, and declare that he possessed a wealth of practical emotional, sensibility, spiritual insight, enthusiasm for the truths which kindle and master men, such as have made him supreme among the preachers and orators of his time. They review at length his career as a foremost champion of human liberty and of the rights of the oppressed, reviewed his attitude towards slavery, his position during and at the end of the civil war, and add: His chosen field of service was, therefore, the ministry of the Christian gospel. His office was to him as broad as philanthropy itself; its pulpit was his home and his throne; its maxims of justice and charity were the burden of his message. The tribute closes with words of sympathy to his wife and family, and with a resolution to attend the services in a body. The resolutions were signed by Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage and twenty-one others of various denominations.

BURIAL OF BEECHER. Brooklyn, Mar. 12.—The remains of Beecher were taken from Plymouth church at 8:30 this morning, and conveyed to Greenwood cemetery, where they were deposited in the large receiving vault, where they will remain until the family select a lot for final interment. All night long the church was guarded by Company "G." At seven o'clock this morning the remains were turned over to the church committee who had charge of the burial. Only the family and close personal friends of the deceased went to the cemetery. The funeral cortege proceeded from the church to Greenwood cemetery by the shortest route.

He has promised to act as starter of the race and will enter his own schooner as a competitor. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and was attended by all the leading yachtsmen of Great Britain.

Flowers From Knappa. ROSE HILL, KNAPPA, O., March 13th, 1887.

EDITOR ASTORIAN: I send you a bouquet of flowers, every leaf picked from my garden to-day, which we esteem a compliment to the lovely climate of Oregon.

Spring has opened with evidences of prosperity on every hand, and we rejoice at the prospect of being connected with the world by railroad as well as water. We consider Knappa, with its wealth of timber, good agricultural land and extensive stock ranges, one of Clatsop county's most favored hamlets—only waiting, Micawber-like, for future developments.

P. F. KNAPE. Accompanying the above was a tastefully arranged bouquet of beautiful spring blossoms, which filled the office with the perfume of their fragrant presence.

Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own household work. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain."

COLUMBIA BAR IMPROVEMENT.

There Will Be Active Operations at the Jetty This Year.

There being considerable inquiry regarding possible or probable operations at the mouth of the river this season, THE ASTORIAN addressed an inquiry to the head of the engineer department having charge and control of the matter, and yesterday evening received the following information in response, which is in every way authentic: "It is expected to conduct jetty operations this summer. The furnishing of stone, piles and perhaps brush will be let to contract. The failure of the river and harbor bill necessitates several changes in the expected extent and method of operations. That bill not only contained a liberal appropriation for the mouth of the Columbia, but also a provision for the purchase of needed land. Had the appropriation been made the government would probably have bought the right of way and quarry grounds, and built, by contract, a narrow gauge road from the jetty site to the quarry, then let to contract the furnishing and delivering of stone from the quarry over this road. A land delivery of stone seems now out of the question, without waiting two years, or until another appropriation is made. The next best thing is to build or hire a wharf for receiving material, at or near Tanzy point, and have a track from there to the jetty. If the government owned the land leading to a suitable wharf site, that arrangement would probably be carried out. The law, however, forbids the purchase of land, even that for a right of way for a short railroad. I doubt if a contractor could afford to build this piece of road and to build and hire a wharf for the small contract which can only now be made. However, bidders will have the option of delivering stone in dump cars at a point on the reservation, or in barges at an extension of the present Fort Stevens wharf."

ASTONISHING SUCCESS. It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada.

UNNECESSARY MISERY. Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. HAMBURG FIGS were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents. At all druggists. J. J. Mack & Co., proprietors, S. F.

THE FACE. The care of the complexion has become an accomplished and necessary study of refined tastes can afford to ignore, and in leading society circles it claims as much thought as do the fashions. It is an acknowledged fact that the variations of our climate are very severe on the complexion, noticeable by a roughness and dryness of the skin, and to counteract this effect it becomes necessary to call in the aid of art. In the selection of this agent too much care cannot be exercised. It is well known to the chemist that many of the so-called "blooms," "balms," "creams," etc., contain lead and other poisonous substances, the long-continued use of which is dangerous. Wisdom's Robertine is guaranteed under a forfeiture of $1,000, to be absolutely free from poisonous substances. If you have not yet tried it, do so at once, and be one of the hundreds who pronounce it the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Wisdom's Robertine is sold at fifty cents per bottle.

BUT TO BE COMPLETE.

It Would Need Continuance to an Ocean Terminus at Astoria.

The plan now suggested by Northern Pacific men of covering the obstructions at The Dalles and the Cascades by a long portage on the north bank of the Columbia, is about the shrewdest railroad scheme yet proposed in the northwest. As a means of cutting the Oregon Railway and Navigation at comparatively small expense, it would be a masterly stroke. Two millions of dollars spent here could dictate terms to the forty-three millions invested in the O. R. & N. True a portage road would not directly affect all the freight of the Columbia basin since the places of production are often farther otherwise remote from the river, but it would command all the Yakima business, all the wool and grain freights which originate at Arlington, The Dalles and other river points. The proposed portage road would make the river a direct competitor for about one-third of the grain and nearly all the wool of the basin. A local road from Snake river through the Palouse country; another from the Columbia through the Walla Walla valley and a third into the heart of Umatilla country would practically parallel the lines of the O. R. & N. Rarely has a railroad such an opportunity to cut into the business of its rival.—Oregonian, 12.
