

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1887

At last we have "the president's reasons."

WONDER how much O. R. & N. stock secretary Endicott has, anyhow!

It begins to look now as though next year's Republican presidential nomination lay between Blaine and Sherman, and the Democratic presidential nomination between Cleveland and Hill.

THE effect of the failure of the deficiency bill will be more serious than is generally believed, inasmuch as it contained provisions for supplying pressing demands for postal cards, stamps, and other items connected with the postal service, the denial of which will, it is expected, seriously embarrass the department and the public. The legal machinery of the government will also be materially disarranged during the remainder of the fiscal year, as no money will be available for jurors, witnesses or marshals' fees.

In 1857 Macaulay, writing of the American Republic, used these words: "The day will come when, in the state of New York, a multitude of people, not one of whom has had more than half a breakfast, or expects to have more than half a dinner, will choose a legislature. Is it possible to doubt that sort of a legislature will be chosen? On one side is a statesman preaching patience, respect for vested rights, strict observance of public faith; on the other is a demagogue, canting about the tyranny of capitalists and usurers, and asking why anybody should be permitted to drink champagne and to ride in carriages while thousands of honest folks are in want of necessities. Which of the two candidates is likely to be preferred by the workingman who hears his children crying for more bread; I seriously apprehend that you will, in some such seasons of adversity as I have described, do things which will prevent prosperity from returning. Either some Caesar or Napoleon will seize the reins of government with a strong hand, or your republic will be as fearfully plundered and laid waste by barbarians in the twentieth century as the Roman empire was in the fifth, with this difference, that Huns and Vandals will have been engendered within your own country and by your own institutions."

Not Much Use, But They Will Kick. At several towns in eastern Oregon, meetings have been called to express the public indignation over the "pocket" veto of the river and harbor bill. No Terrors For a Georgia Man. A Georgia man who was recently hanged by a mob says that he felt no pain from the operation and that he rather liked it. Where Rip Had the Advantage. A Detroit paper says that "Secretary Bayard is the Rip Van Winkle of the administration." Oh, no, he isn't. Rip woke up.—Chicago Times. Astoria Could Spare a Barrel or Two. In some parts of Kansas no rain has fallen for eighteen months, and water is selling for forty cents a barrel. A Gift for All. In order to give all a chance to test it, and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but shows unbounded faith in the merits of this great remedy. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of Throat, Chest, or Lungs, are especially requested to call at W. E. Dement & Co.'s Drug Store, and get a Trial Bottle Free, Large Bottles $1. —All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices, at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria. One of the ups and downs of an energetic merchant's existence is to keep the quality up and the prices down. By the way, they are doing it at the Crystal Palace. A luxury and necessity for rich and poor who wish to enjoy good health, and who do not wish to resort to bitter nauseous liver medicines and cathartics, is the concentrated liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. 50c. and $1 bottles for sale by W. It is a well known fact, when you wish a pair of glasses to fit the eye properly you must patronize an oculist, to get the exact measurement of the eye, then take his prescription to an optician to have it made. And by patronizing me, you get your exact eye measurement. I also give you the number and color of lens for each eye, which can be filled anywhere, you also get a pair of glasses made to your order, for less money than an ordinary examination by an oculist. Don't miss this opportunity as I am here. DR. S. HARMON.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. A Card From Jas. W. Welch.

EDITOR ASTORIAN: I wish to state a few facts in relation to my arrest spoken of in your paper of the 15th, as I think there is more or less spite work in the matter, and as they pay the expenses on one side and Welch on the other, certain parties can have a little cheap notoriety without cost to themselves. In the first place the improvement is in front of property in litigation and I only claim one fourth interest in said property. Last year I had it repaired at the request of the street committee, for which I had to pay the whole amount out of my own pocket. This kind of work I have been doing for some years in nearly all matters where I am interested and my purse has got tired and depleted and I have made up my mind not to do so any more as it is a paying investment. I informed our most efficient street commissioner when he notified me to repair said street, how the property stood, and told him afterward in presence of Mr. Bergman that if he, Mr. Logan, would go and make the repair that I would pay for one fourth of it whether it was done legally or not. But I would prefer that the city would order the repair, according to the law as the charter provides and sell the property for the improvement and I would buy it so I could get my money back. I will also say that in my opinion that compelling the owners along said street to keep it in repair is wrong as it is a thoroughfare that benefits every business man in the city, more than it does the owners of the property, as they can't lease or improve the property so that it will pay the taxes. The city improved part of Main street which is no benefit compared to Hemlock to the business community of the city, and there is no just reason why they should not do the same on this street. Now we all know that there is but one street leading to Upper Astoria over which every body travels, yet the property owners are expected to keep this street in repair. The charter provides in chapter 8, Sec. 97 that if the council thinks proper it can order by ordinance any particular repairs made at the expense of the city. When it is considered that this street is used more than any other street in the city and consequently the most expensive to keep in repair would it not be just for the city to pay part of the expense. Again I deny the powers of the council to provide for the arrest of a party for failing to make repairs. The only remedy the city has is to pass an ordinance assessing the cost against the property and then if the money is not paid, sell the property. But in my case, the first time in the history of the city, I think it was thought necessary to make an arrest for failing to pay a tax that I had violated any law or been guilty of any wrong act because I had refused to pay an unjust or illegal tax. This is probably the first time in the history of this state that a person has been arrested for refusing to pay a tax. I claim to be a law abiding citizen and make the above remarks in justice. JAMES W. WELCH.
