According to the best accounts procurable, "spring" will begin at five o'clock, standard time, to-morrow afo clock, standard time, to-morrow af-ternoon. Let's see: 'tis occasionally showery in the gentle spring time. Tennyson says "In the spring a brighter iris glows upon the bur-nished dove; in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of here " which is probably the second of love," which is probably the case, more or less.

W. E. Warren, Wallace Stuart, Henry Wetherill, and two or three others are reported about to buy a schooner in San Francisco and go ernising to Alaska for seals. They expect to put out about $6,500 in the fitting up of an 80 foot vessel that cost $16,000 four years ago. The Venture is being fitted up at Ilwaco on the same errand and the projectors expect to get away about May 1st.
