Swamp Land Investigation.
At last there is definite action in the matter of the swamp land frauds in this state. The United States grand jury now in session is giving the matter thorough investigation. The particular subject of inquiry is whether any one in the effort to acquire these lands has committed perjury or obtained any one to commit perjury, or whether there has been conspiracy to defraud the United States out of any swamp land or any other land. If the jury finds reasonable grounds for supposing that any of these crimes have been committed they will indict the parties.

A cloud of witnesses has been summoned from different parts of the state. Among those who have already been before the jury are Hon. T. W. Davenport, Hon. Warren Truitt, Hon. I. Townsend, Gen. Tolman, J. A. Fisk and many others. Four witnesses arrived here yesterday from Burns, in Harney valley. They have been six days on the way, having been obliged to go around into Idaho to get here. One of them, Mr. McMenaney, is in the employ of Mr. Todhunter, a cattleman, and Mr. I. L. Poujade, and the others are also cattlemen. A lot of witnesses have been summoned from Camp Bidwell, Cal., and Judge Townsend, register of the land office at Lakeview, will arrive today with the books and maps pertaining to his office.

Special land agent Shackelford has a whole box full of maps at the office of the district attorney, and though he says nothing, he looks as if he was now hauling in his net with good prospects of catching a big lot of swamp anglers and other fish. Of course no one can tell who may be indicted by the grand jury, but if there is any one who is more likely to be indicted than any other it is Hen Owens. As he has been associated with many, including even some state officials, in swamp land transactions, there is a glorious uncertainty as to who may be placed on trial for having acquired too much swamp land.—Oregonian.

WEAK LUNGS MADE STRONG.
Persons who stay in-doors all the time and lean over a counter or a desk, sooner or later discover that their lungs are giving out. Editors are often thus afflicted. Erastus R. Sutherland, editor of The Eastern State Journal, White Plains, New York, writes:
"I have used ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, in my family since 1868. In that year I had an attack of pneumonia from which I was not expected to recover. My lungs were left in a very weak state. I commenced using ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, wearing them constantly three months, two on the breast and two on the back. The result was surprising, at least to me. The pains in my lungs had left me, and I felt like 'a giant refreshed with new wine.'"

The Pacific Journal hears that Messrs. Weatherwax and Leavenworth, of Aberdeen and Cosmopolis have purchased the tug boat Donald, and will employ her on Gray's harbor.

High License In New York.
ALBANY, March 25.—Bourbon was banished to the gallery yesterday, where, side by side with prohibition, it watched the struggle over Crosby's high license bill. As soon as the bill was announced, ex-speaker Erwin moved to call the roll of the house and the only absentees were Evans, of Oneida, and Hill, of Albany, who were ill in bed and were formally excused. Assemblyman Crosby offered three amendments that were agreed upon by the friends of the bill. One increased the cost of a "shopkeepers' beer license" from $50 to $100, another struck cider out, and the third made high license applicable only to cities of more than 400,000 inhabitants. In other words, only to New York and Brooklyn. All three amendments were adopted by the Republican majority, but not until after a long period of argument and filibustering by the minority. The Democrats made a series of vigorous assaults on the bill and filibustered nearly four hours. The bill finally passed by the votes of 69 Republicans and 1 Democrat for, and 52 Democrats and 4 Republicans against. The bill provides that licenses to sell liquor of any kind to be drunk on the premises shall be not less than $1,000. A license to sell malt liquor and wine to be drunk on the premises shall be not less than $100. The storekeepers' liquor license, to sell liquors of any kind, not to be drunk on the premises, and druggists' license are to be not less than $100 each.

The reason Why Acker's Blood Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it.

Safer and Better than Calomel!
I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel, which generally laid me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons Liver Regulator, which cures me relief, without any interruption to business.
