GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19, 1887.

Rules to be observed in passing on final proof papers in pre-emption and commuted homestead cases:

I. Where final proof or any part thereof is taken before the day advertised, require new advertisement and new proof, in whole or in part, as the case may require, to cover that which was taken out of time.

II. Where final proof or any part thereof is taken after the day advertised, require new advertisement and new proof, in whole or in part, as above provided, unless on day advertised due notice had been given of postponement to a day certain by the officer taking the proof and the proof be taken in accordance with said postponement. Facts of postponement and notice must be certified by the officer taking the last proof.

III. The entire proof must be taken in accordance with notice given. If the testimony of either claimant or witnesses is taken at a different time or place than that advertised, require new advertisement and new proof as to such defective testimony.

IV. When witness not named in advertisement is substituted for advertised witness, require new notice and proof covering the testimony of substituted witness.

V. The certification of naturalization papers or other court records should be received only when made under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court in which such papers appear of record, but where a judicial record is shown to have existed and is now lost or destroyed, proof of the same may be made by secondary evidence, in accordance with the rules of evidence governing such proof.

VI. Where final proof is taken by officer not named in advertisement, it may be accepted if otherwise sufficient, provided that the proof is taken at the time and exact place designated in the printed notice, and provided the officer advertised to take said proof shall officially certify that no protest was ever filed before him against claimant's entry.

VII. The number, cause, and duration of all absences to be satisfactorily accounted for.

VIII. When the proof is made before register and receiver and certificate does not bear date of said proof, require of register and receiver explanation thereof, and if the delay was caused by failure to tender the money at date of making said proof require final affidavit, with corroborating proof, to cover date certificate was issued.

IX. When proof is made before any other officer, allow the necessary time only for a prompt transmittal of the papers to the district land office, and if any longer is shown between date of proof and date of certificate (if proof is otherwise sufficient) require affidavit of continued residence and non-alienation to cover date of final certificate.

WM. A. J. SPARKS,
Commissioner.
Approved Feb. 21, 1887.
H. L. MULBROW,
Acting Secretary.

AN UNDISPUTED TEST OF MERIT.
A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than 150,000,000 persons must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in BRANDRETT'S PILLS. This fact illustrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, all female complaints and weaknesses.

Laidlaw's mill on Gray's harbor will soon be started up.

Erysipelas and Obstinate Ulcers, Boils, Carbuncles and Running Sores of every kind are cleansed, the poisons germs destroyed and a speedy cure effected by using Darby Propylactic Fluid.

"I have been afflicted with the Erysipelas. Nothing would heal the sore or stop the running. I used Darby's Propylactic Fluid and found a speedy cure. Have also tried it in several other cases and it proved effectual."—S. P. GREEK.

How Some Wives Go to Sleep.

There is an article going the rounds entitled "How the Girls Go to Sleep." The manner in which they go to sleep, according to the article, can't hold a candle to the way married women go to sleep.

Instead of thinking what she should have attended to before going to bed, she thinks of it afterward. While she is revolving these matters in her mind, and while snugly tucked up in bed, the old man is scratching his head in front of the fire and wondering how he will pay the next month's rent.

Suddenly she exclaims:
"James, did you lock the door?"
"What door?" says James.
"The cellar door," says she.
"No," says James.
"Well, you had better go down and lock it, for I heard some one in the back yard last night."
Accordingly James paddles down the stairs and locks the door.
About the time James returns and is going to bed she remarks:
"Did you shut the stair door?"
"No," says James.
"Well, if it is not shut the cat will get up into the chamber."
"Let her come up, then," says James, ill-naturedly.
"My goodness, no!" returns his wife, "she'd suck the baby's breath."
Then James paddles down stairs again and steps on a tack, and closes the stair door, and speaks to himself of the cat, and returns to the bedroom.

Just as he begins to climb into his couch his wife observes:
"I forgot to bring up some water. Suppose you bring up some in the big tin."
And so James, with a muttered slliloquy, goes down into the dark kitchen and falls over a chair and raps all the tinware off the wall in search of the "tin," and then jerks the stair door open and howls:
"Where the deuce are the matches?"
She gives him minute directions where to find the matches, and adds that she would rather go and get the water herself than have the whole neighborhood raised about it; after which James finds the matches, procures the water, and comes up stairs and plunges into bed.

Presently his wife says:
"James, let's have an understanding about money matters. Now, next week I've got to pay—"
"I don't know what you'll have to pay and don't care," shouts James, as he lurches around and jams his face against the wall, "all I want is sleep."
"That's all very well for you," snaps his wife, as she pulls the covers viciously; "you never think of the worry and trouble I have. And there is Araminta, who I believe is taking the measles."
"Let her take 'em," says James.
Hereupon she begins to cry softly, but about the time James is falling into a gentle sleep she punches him in the ribs with her elbow and says:
"Did you hear the scandal about Mrs. Jones?"
"Where?" says James, sleepily.
"Why, Mrs. Jones."
"Where?" inquired James.
"I declare," said his wife, "you are getting more stupid every day. You know Mrs. Jones that lives at 21? Well, day before yesterday Susan Smith told Mrs. Thompson that Sam Barker had said that Mrs. Jones had—"
Here she paused and listened. James is snoring in profound slumber.
With a snort of rage she pulls the covers off him, wraps up in them, and lies awake until 2 A. M. thinking how badly used she is.
And this is the way some married women go to sleep.

It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system, and if used in time is a great preventive of sickness. I often recommend it to my friends, and shall continue to do so."

TIME AND DOCTORS' BILLS SAVED BY always keeping Simmons Liver Regulator in the house.
"I have found Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine I ever used for anything that may happen, have used it in Indigestion, Colic, Diarrhoea, Biliousness, and found it to relieve immediately. After eating a hearty supper, if, on going to bed, I take about a teaspoonful, I never feel the effects of the supper eaten."
