Vigorous Journalism.
 If the editor of the weekly Bazon will keep till next week without salt and we can have the law against cruelty to animals repealed, we will eat him up. The editor of that paper shows clearly this week that his soul is as small as a mustard seed. His brains could be wrapped up in a gun wad and still leave room for his moral principle and courtesy.—Crosby, Tenn., Clarion.

The cowboys of eastern Washington have a language of their own which no "tenderfoot" may attain unto until he has served his novitiate. They call a horse herder a "horse wrangler," and horse breaker a "bruncho buster." Their steed is often a "cayuse," and to dress well is to "rag proper." When a cowboy goes out on the prairie he "hits the flat." Whisky is "family disturbance," and to eat is to "chew." His hat is a "cady," his whip a "quirt," his rubber coat a "slicker," his leather overalls are "chaps" or "chappersals," and his revolver is a "45." Bacon is "overland trout," and unbranded cattle are "mavericks."

Since 1870 the restrictions imposed by labor organizations have driven thirty-five manufacturing establishments, employing 8,155 hands, and paying $3,321,000 annually in wages, from Massachusetts into Maine and New Hampshire, where those restrictions do not exist.
 Miss Agnes Dulph, daughter of Senator Dolph of Oregon, and one of the reigning belles, of Washington, wears what she likes, so it is becoming, and to see her stepping out of her carriage in a stunning, all-red costume, with a big black hat and feathers," is said to be "like the rush of a comet."

If you marry Mr. Jones' daughter by his first wife and he marries your sister for his second wife you will have your father-in-law for a brother-in-law; your children will be the grand-children of their uncle and his children will be the nephews or nieces of their sister and uncles or aunts of their cousins.

S.S.S.
 About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctor pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and it is rapidly disappearing. I would advise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial.
