

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1887

In Umatilla county, the East Oregonian says: "The total amount of delinquent taxes, including those of 1886, is about $54,000."

SOME one has discovered that the vendors of prize candy, cheap literature and cigars on railroad trains, not being employes, cannot ride without palpatte discrimination under the terms of the interstate commerce law.

The Irish nationalists charge the British government with endeavoring to entrap men to land dynamite in Ireland, where agents were ready to seize it and then with the hurrah that would naturally follow pass the coercion bill.

A ST LOUIS paper editorially exposes the faulty pedigree of the English Tudor dynasty. At one point where a marriage would have been proper there was none. The S. F. Alta thinks it is a wonder the Tudors were not found out before.

THE editor of the Pomeroy Independent throws himself on the five-cent counter in saying: "We know of no better place than Pomeroy for a newspaper man of small means and less brains to enter upon the journalistic sea of public opinion."

AGASSIZ is said to have summed up the result of his whole life in a single sentence. The work of great movements, like the work of great men, may often be summarized with equal succinctness. Every such movement makes its contribution to history.

RICH copper ore has been discovered in the Cascade mountains, about ten miles from the line of the Seattle & Eastern railroad. The finder says he has a ledge from thirty to thirty-five feet thick, and that the specimens exhibited were taken from a depth of ninety feet below the croppings. The mine is situated in King county.

DURING the session of the late Nebraska legislature Mr. Wyman, of Douglas, was suddenly seized with a spasm of reckless frankness and sprang to his feet and offered the following: "Resolved, That we are a pack of d---d fools!"—which was unanimously adopted. It was the most sensible and truthful resolution ever adopted by that body.

RARE pleading under the infancy act has been heard at the Norwich county court, England. A young farmer, Ed. W. Brete, evaded a claim for £44 for the maintenance of a child born out of wedlock, by declaring he was under twenty-one years of age when the child was born and entitled to protection under the infancy relief act on the ground that his son was not a necessity, and the question of necessity was gravely discussed and decided in Brete's favor, and so the unhappy infant gets no support from his infant father.

JOHN GARRETT, in a recent speech, is reported to have said that if the Lord had told Adam on the day that He breathed the breath of life into him that He would give him $25,000 a year for taking care of the garden, and Adam had kept his job and drawn his salary regularly until now, he would not have drawn as large a sum as Wm. H. Vanderbilt left at his death. Commenting upon this statement, and to show how interest can get away with wage earnings, the Dubuque, Ia., Times says: "Had Adam, while in the garden, found one of our big copper cents and placed it at compound interest with Satan or the serpent at 6 per cent., he would have more money coming to him than there is on the face of the globe."

Prohibitory Amendment.

The following is the proposed prohibitory amendment to the constitution of the state of Oregon, which the people will vote for or against on the 8th of November, next.

Article XIX Section 2. The manufacture, sale or the giving away, or the offering to give away, or the keeping for sale of any spirituous, vinous, malt, distilled, fermented, or any intoxicating liquors, whatever, is prohibited in this state, except for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes.

Sec. 2. The legislative assembly shall provide by law in what manner, by whom, and at what place such liquors, or any of them shall be manufactured or sold, or kept for sale for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes.

Sec. 3. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force six months from the date of its ratification by the electors.

Sec. 4. The legislative assembly shall amend, with sufficient penalties necessary to enforce this amendment.

Sudden Death.

DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY will prolong life by preventing those sudden deaths from heart disease which bring untold grief to families, often plunging them into poverty, because of the untimely disease of bread-winners. At druggists, $1.50; Descriptive treatise with each bottle, or address J. J. Mack & Co., S. F.

Getting Around High License.

Vermilion station, Minn., was grievously pained at the passage of the high license law, which compelled the four saloon keepers of that place to pay $500 license into the town treasury. Finally a solution to the vexed question was found. The four saloon keepers were sworn in as special policemen of Vermilion, and their salaries, fixed at $400 a year each. Then they took out their licenses at $500 each. In this way the village of Vermilion licenses its saloon keepers at $100 a year each to sell liquor.—Ex.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at W. E. Dement & Co.'s Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.
