An Ambitious Old Man.

The Oregon Mist says: Daniel Hess, who made final proof before Clerk Dale, a week ago Tuesday last, took up his homestead in the Nehalem valley, at the advanced age of 75, being now 80 years of age. If there is any county in the state that has an octogenarian homesteader we would like to hear from it. Think of the nerve it took for a man 75 years of age to tackle a woods ranch in the Nehalem valley. About eighteen acres of his land have been slashed and over six acres are in cultivation. Mr. Hess has done all the work himself, and on Monday last walked the greater part of the distance from his ranch to the county seat over thirty miles.

"Do you know, my friend," said a very solemn political individual, "that when you silently drop that snow-white ballot from your fingers it floats down in rhythmic grace and settles the destinies of a nation?" "No, sir, I don't," replied the impecunious voter, "but I know when I drop it into the box it settles my bargain with the boss of this 'ere ward."

Endorsement of a Leading Physician. "I have used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid extensively as a disinfectant and deodorizer and find it an admirable preparation. Whenever there are offensive discharges from wounds, abscesses, etc., it is wonderful in its action. I consider it the best preparation known as a gargle in diphtheria or scarlet fever." J. CRESWELL LEWIS, M. D., Phila.

Feeding steers of ten to eleven hundred pounds are now selling in Kansas City and Chicago for ten to twelve dollars more than fat steers of same weight brought last fall. This is certainly a good sign of better prices the coming fall.

TRIED IN THE CRUCIBLE.

S.S.S. About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit.

The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up.

My general health had been bad for two or three years-I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and it is rapidly disappearing. I would advise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial.
