NEW YORK, May 19 .- The Mail and Express says: The Clan-na-Gael society, which numbers among its members two United States senators, the governors of several states, mayors by the dozen, as well as congressmen of national importance, is completely disrupted and the fight among classes has become so bitter that certain members have been charged with selling the secrets of the order to the British government, which has been the means of supplying in-formation to the London Times.

The Clan-na-Gael society was formed in the United States after the Abarline revolution in Ireland during the spring of 1867. A camp was organized in every city of the United States and every town of consequence. Brooklyn has nearly a dozen camps, with members as high as seven and eight hundred. New York has more. Philladelphia follows next, then Chicago, St. Louis, Pitts-bug, Troy, Buffalo, Albany, San Francisco, New Haven, Boston, Lowell, Providence, Scranton and Hoosick Falls. Powderly was one of the chiefs when mayor of Scrantop. The society is osth-bound and the object is to free Ireland.

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies, A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multi-tude of low test, she it weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO, 106 Wall-st., N. 1.

To day the society is not only split in halves, but one of the members, said to reside in New Haven, is charged with appropriating $40,000 from the revolutionary funds, and other members of the supreme board are taxed with living on assessments drawn from the members. Open warfare has been instituted between the leaders, and the camps are divided into almost equal factions, the seceders taking with them the name of Clan-na-Gael, the camps remaining in the original order adopting another name.
