The Secrets of the Eyes.

Generally speaking, blue eyes signify constancy and devotion to friends.

Black eyes denote as a rule sensuous character and an inconstant, fickle disposition.

The main characteristics of the violet eye, which is called the woman's eye, are affection and purity, chivalric belief, and limited or deficient intellectuality.

Gray eyes are the most expressive of all eyes and denote strong qualities of mind and soul.

Self-satisfaction and conceit are commonly the characteristic traits represented by the green eye.

The very light blue eye is characteristic of the northern races, and in a woman it suggests constancy and truth, steadfastness, simplicity, courage and purpose.

Brown eyes are the eyes of the south and east, and denote, as a rule, passion and lack of originality.

Blue eyes usually go with light hair, but when they go with dark hair and complexion there is coupled with the affectionate qualities a tendency to deceive, stimulated by an ambition for conquest and leading to the gratification of admiration.

Hazel is a very difficult color to determine, there are so many different varieties. As a general rule eyes of this color suggest a good deal of strength of character and generally a sense of mischief and trickery.

In Russia it is said suicides are increasing in number every year. The proportion to the population is now greater in St. Petersburg than in any other European capital.

Of late years even boys and girls from eight to sixteen take their own lives, generally on the idea of the cruel treatment of their parents.

A difference in local phrases is pointed out by a western editor: "Busy as a black pig under a chin-capin tree" is southern; "busy as a real estate dealer loaded with corner lots" might be said in Kansas City; "busy as a man eating shad" appeals to Philadelphia tastes; "as busy as a boodler hunting bail" is New York or Chicago dialect.

THE NATIONAL DISEASE DOWNED.

Hundreds of so-called diseases under various names are the result of indigestion, and when this one trouble is removed the others vanish.

The best known remedy for indigestion, according to thousands of testimonials, is one that has been used in the United States for more than fifty years—BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Of the 6,000,000 women in Brazil, only 500,000 can read or write. And in the remote districts, if a man has occasion to leave home, he locks up his house and puts his wife in a convent until he returns.
