ILWAOO INKLINGS. ILWAOO, June 10, '87. Probably there has been no social event that attracted so much attention and engrossed the minds of the people as the G. A. R. ball last night.

It was the first ball given by Canby Post and it was done to raise funds to build a hall for the veterans of the late unpleasantness to assemble and be sociable. That beats all the bear and fish story business with which they inhabitant of this place finds plenty of time to relate and find grounds to anoint with expectations.

Ilwaco can boast of its pretty girls and fine dancers. It was noticed that most of the girls and young married ladies were dressed in lawn and it was hard to tell one from tother. It's a question this morning whether that blonde married lady or the brunette single lady was the best dancer.

A fine supper was spread on the stage and it was noticeable how much the chaplain and the adjutant worked while the remainder of the company simply soldiered. The commander is reported to have got outside of a well-stocked oyster-bed, and as he has not shown up at this late hour, a guard has been detailed to find the whereabouts of his whereabouts.

The Cedar street school was filled yesterday afternoon, the closing hours of the term being pleasantly passed by the pupils presenting a programme that was varied and pleasing. Following is a list of the exercises:
