

Reserved seats at the New York Novelty Store for Mlle. Rhea's performance to-morrow evening.

The Oregon Paving & Contract company will soon begin the construction at Tongue Point of the third railroad in Clatsop county.

The Alaskan will make an excursion to Ilwaco this morning, leaving here at ten o'clock; returning, will leave Ilwaco about 3:30 P. M.

To-day divine services will be held in every church in Astoria. All the city pulpits are now supplied with pastors; for the first time in three years.

The Gen. Canby will make an excursion to Fort Canby and Ilwaco this morning, leaving here at nine o'clock; returning, will leave Ilwaco at four P. M.

If all the organizations in the city that have been invited should turn out (and why not?) and take part in the parade on the Fourth of July, it will be a rousing old procession. Two bands will be necessary.

Ang. Danielson wants information in regard to J. H. Ingelo, deceased. Any one who was acquainted with him will confer a favor on Ang. Danielson or the Swedish and Norwegian consuls, Portland, Oregon, by notifying either of them.

While B. Van Dusen's delivery wagon was passing the Clatsop mill yesterday morning, some lumber from the chute struck the vehicle, making a total wreck of one of the wheels and spilling two barrels of sugar over the surrounding landscape.

Astoria needs cisterns for an adequate and proper water supply for putting out fires, and it will continue to need them until it gets them. The efficiency of our department and our usual good luck will not always suffice. This is a matter of as vital importance as even a railroad or the extermination of caterpillars.

Alex. Campbell, marshal of the day in the Fourth of July celebration, has the following aids: J. W. Hume, C. J. Trenchard, Thos. Dealy, J. W. Welch, Ang. Danielson, C. A. Cooper, C. H. Stockton, H. A. Smith; standard bearers, W. G. Ross, D. J. McVicar; escorts, J. F. Ferchen, H. G. They are all requested to meet at the council rooms at eight o'clock to-morrow evening.

While sawing lumber in the Astoria planing mill yesterday morning, James Holt received a severe and painful wound, a piece of wood about a foot long flying from the block and striking him in the lower jaw and breaking it. It was set yesterday afternoon, and though Mr. Holt was still suffering considerable pain, it is thought that the inconvenience will be only temporary.

The repairs on the Baptist church are completed and it will be used to-day for religious services for the first time for many months. There will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Rugg, at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. A Sunday school will be organized at the close of the morning service. All friends of the society are cordially invited to these services. Strangers and those without a church home are especially invited.

That "the prayers of the wicked availeth nothing" is conceded on all hands; but that the prayers of the just are powerful is not so generally noticed. The driving dust on the streets and in the stores was noticed unfavorably yesterday by pious merchants, and several transposed prayers were briefly and forcibly uttered; in an hour there was a smart shower and the dust was most effectually laid: a clear case of cause and effect.

A big drum has been added to the salvation army's orchestra, and the sang grows in loudness of discord as the time goes on. If the racket that the salvationists kick up is a specimen of the celestial futurity that awaits its devotees, some of the crowd probably prefer spending eternity elsewhere. A worse prostitution of the holy name of religion cannot be conceived. It is not religion but blasphemy wherein many of the things that religion holds sacred are bandied about and made a by-word and a jeer.

Talking about seeing stars in the day time all some Venus, last Friday afternoon, a man of a noble sweep of brow took a reporter of this family journal away around the corner and out into the middle of an unoccupied lot yesterday and told him that away out this side of Saddle mountain is a deep gorge, a vast all in the earth, a canyon, grand, gloomy and peculiar, where if you go you can see stars in the blue vault of heaven at any hour of the day. The inducements are not sufficient. Wot the matter with falling on the back of your head at the skating rink.

As the beautiful Galatea, in Gilbert's classic comedy, says the Washington Post, the charming actress, Rhea, was a revelation. In the first act, which she carried gracefully and pleasantly, she unfolded but little of her power, but as the piece progressed, she rose to, and even above, the dramatic requirements of scene and situation. The music of her voice, the fascination of her manner, the studied emphasis which gave point and humor, and her exhibition of dramatic power and intensity carried the audience by storm. Her Galatea was all that the most fastidious could desire—loving and tender, sacrificing and sorrowful, gay and gloomy.

Everyone has heard of "the fellow that looks like me," and the unpleasant circumstances attending the existence of an eidolon. Pete Olsen seems to have a facial contour that successfully and unfortunately resembles a good many other people. The third man that was supposed to be him was shot a few days ago in Douglas county. He was interviewed on the railroad track about two miles from Willou, and was informed that he was supposed to be Olsen and to throw up his hands. The man grabbed for his revolver, and Con. Cox, formerly marshal of Roseburg, shot him in the calf of the leg. Then the stranger gave himself up, stated his name is Bates, and that he was en route to Portland, where he has relatives. Although he answers to the printed description of Olsen, he is undoubtedly the wrong man. He is cared for by the people of Willou, and will be sent to his relatives in a few days. The way the rain came down later in the evening would seem to indicate that the prayer business was overdone.

PERSONAL.

T. B. Merry, editor of the Mercury, is in the city.

N. J. Levinson, city editor of the Oregonian, is in the city.

P. B. Johnson, editor and proprietor Walls Walla Union, came down from Portland on the Alaskan yesterday evening.

Mr. Frank Bewley, the gentlemen selected to read the Declaration of Independence on the Fourth of July, is a fine elocutionist and will give a splendid rendition of that famous instrument. We would be glad to know that every boy and girl in Astoria could hear that read on the Fourth.

Drowned Himself in Young's River.

Jas. A. Rowan from Young's river reports a case of suicide there yesterday afternoon. Henry Prince, who came here from Tillamook some time ago, is the unfortunate man. After coming here he fished on the river for a week or so and being taken sick had been for the last week in a house on Young's river, near the brick yard, with two other men, being delirious the greater part of the time. Yesterday afternoon he said: "Make me a cup of strong green tea." When it was made he drank it and said: "This is a hell of a place for a man with the measles to be." Shortly after he made a dash for the door and running wildly down to the river, a distance of about two hundred yards, followed by the attendant, he plunged in the water and wading out waist high ducked his head under and then after a few seconds raised his head above the surface, looked round and snorted, then deliberately submerged his head again and so drowned miserably. Prince was a native of England, aged 32 years. The coroner was notified of the occurrence yesterday afternoon.

Fatal Accident at the Clatsop Mill.

At half-past one yesterday morning Harry Sieveson, a young man, aged 22 years, employed in the Clatsop mill, met with an accident that terminated his life. He was at work taking large timbers away from the big saw and while so doing one of the cants struck him and threw him between it and another large piece of timber. The upper part of his body was caught and crushed. He was taken out as soon as possible, and medical aid summoned, but he was too badly hurt to admit of any assistance possible, and breathed his last shortly after two o'clock. He was a native of Sweden, had been at work in the mill but two days, and is not known to have any relatives or friends in this section of country. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

Drowned Near Westport.

Coroner Ross received a dispatch from Westport yesterday afternoon, saying that a logger named Colvin had been drowned from a whisky scow near that place the day before, that his body had just been recovered and asking him to go up there and hold an inquest. Particulars of the matter are not obtainable, but foul play is suspected. The coroner will go up on the Favorite this afternoon.

A Fast Trip.

The Alaskan left Portland at 8:10 yesterday afternoon, made St. Johns at 8:29 1/2, the mouth of the Willamette at 8:49, St. Helens, 4:34; Kalama, 5:04 1/2; Rainier, 5:25; Cathlamet, 6:40; Brookfield, 7:12; Tongue Point, 7:45; Astoria, 7:56. There was a strong head wind all the way down. Time, four hours and forty-six minutes.

NEWS FROM BOTH CONTINENTS.

Financial Schemes of Wall Street Kings.

The Day's Doings in Europe and the East.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Jesse Seligman predicts that within the next few days gold will be on the way here from Europe, and that tight money is no longer in danger. Other bankers of foreign connections give Seligman's opinion their endorsement. Large loans on stock collateral were made after the market closed yesterday as low as 5 and 6 per cent. The Times says this morning that the contingents that are always on parade as possessing Gould information were among the weariest citizens this town can boast. Every one of them was caught loaded with stocks at top prices, and Russell Sage and Jay Gould have slaughtered every one of their friends, as their hangers-on love to label themselves. Jay Gould offers as an excuse for his wholesale calling of loans that he thought stocks were cheap and he could lend money to better advantage in open market than he could by having it out in loans.

A PRECIOUS TRINITY.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Times says there are people in Wall street who do not credit all the statements made by the Gould crowd yesterday. Gould and Sage called in loans by wholesale. They did their best to corner money. They tumbled baskets of stocks on the market to break; it was of their own designing—at least so believes every one who presumes to have any independent opinion. It was their own Western Union and Missouri Pacific and Manhattan they used to "slag" the market with and if they were not going gunning after Cyrus W. Field, every indication seemingly worth attention is all wrong. It has been an open secret these many days that Gould and Sage did not love Field, for all their speculative co-partnership with him. Sage is on record as saying that the time is coming when "Cyrus W. Field will go pater, pater." Field, according to common fame, is loaded heavily with Manhattan.

POSSIBLE CORRECTION.

CHICAGO, June 25.—A special from Winnipeg says that special orders have been issued to local volunteer battalions to hold themselves in readiness for active service. It is believed to be a ruse on the part of the dominion government to send volunteers west under a pretext of another uprising among the Indians. It is feared so that the government can easily carry out its evident intention of preventing Manitoba from building the proposed road to the boundary. It is said to be the government's intention to send into Winnipeg mounted police, in the absence of volunteers, and so coerce the province into submission. Many citizens are discussing the affair, and measures are being devised to meet the government and checkmate its schemes.

BIG FIRE IN LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—The Louisville tobacco warehouses of Thomas H. Glover & Co., Sawyer, Wallace & Co., E. B. Paris & Co., and an adjoining boarding house, occupying the entire square between Main and Market, Ninth and Tenth streets, were totally destroyed by fire this morning, together with 3,500 hogsheads of tobacco. The total loss is estimated at $350,000, partially insured.

A FRESHET IN THE MERRIMAC.

LAWRENCE, Mass., June 25.—The most remarkable freshet known in the Merrimac river is now in progress. The water has risen over ten feet since yesterday, and is still rising. It is now within two feet of the temporary bridge just built across the river. Should it keep on an hour longer the bridge will be swept away. Large logs numbered by thousands are sweeping down stream.

A BETTER PRELUDE.

NEW YORK, June 25.—There is no vestige of yesterday's panic apparent and although the market for awhile was ragged, the roughness soon wore away and is now generally steady, at an advance of from 1 to 3 per cent. Money is offered freely at 6 per cent. by the same parties that were credited with forcing up rates yesterday.

NO DEMAND FOR STOCKS.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The stock market opened tame, but is generally firm. There are some buying orders from London being received. There is a feverish undertone apparent, and recovery from yesterday's semi-panic is slow. Being a half-holiday there is no demand for stocks in the loan crowd and no rate for money.

AFTERMATH.

CLEVELAND, June 25.—Messrs. E. A. Crumb and George D. Baslington, bankers and brokers, assigned this morning. The failure grows out of the wheat panic in Chicago.

PASSED AWAY.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—Gen. James B. Speed, a prominent Republican and attorney-general under President

Lincoln, died this morning aged 76 years.

THE JULY INTEREST.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Secretary Fairchild this afternoon telegraphed to all assistant treasurers, directing payment of July interest. Checks for registered bonds were mailed in advance in anticipation of this action, so as to facilitate their payment. The effect will be to relieve the sub-treasury of about $9,000,000. The remainder of the interest checks will be mailed to-day.

GOT BACK.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Mrs. Cleveland arrived in Washington this morning.

THE THISTLE IN THE LEAD.

GLASGOW, June 25.—The yachts Thistle and Ilex started from Rothesay to-day on a fifty-mile race. There was a brisk breeze at the time. The Thistle at once took the lead.

WILL CELEBRATE.

PARIS, June 25.—The American colony will celebrate the queen's jubilee in the American church next Tuesday, the anniversary of her coronation.

PRUSSIAN PROBABILITIES.

VIENNA, June 25.—Dispatches from Warsaw state that Prussia has determined to create five new companies. Gen. Da Armes is to be stationed along the Austria frontier. It is officially denied here that the King of Milan intends to abdicate the Servian throne.

THE STATE OF THE CASE.

VIENNA, June 25.—Count Apponyi's organ, Posti Maplo, publishes articles supposed to emanate directly from Cardinal Simeoni and Count Apponyi, according to which Kultur Kampf is in the right in Hungary, arising from the coming conflict between Hungarian Episcopate and the premier of its see, who is accused of disturbing the Episcopal sees in accordance with the political merits of the candidates. It is stated in the article that the pope has notified the papal nuncio at Vienna that he does not object to the present occupants of the sees, but that he does object to the way in which the prelates are transferred for the sole purpose of increasing the revenues of some of the bishops.

AN IMPORTANT OFFER.

LONDON, June 25.—The government is considering the offer by which a subsidy of £50,000 yearly will secure three lines of first-class steamers on the trans-Canadian route to the east: one line connects Liverpool and Halifax, and the other two connect the Pacific terminus of the Canadian Pacific railway and with Australia.

GLADSTONIAN TACTICS.

LONDON, June 25.—The Gladstonians approve of the speedy passage through the remaining stages of the crimes bill in order to confine the report to the stage of the discussion of the prominent amendments. They will then concentrate their attention on the land bill.

THE GENESTA LEADING.

LONDON, June 25.—The Genesta, which is leading in the jubilee yacht race, passed Plymouth this morning. She was making but slow progress contending against a dead head-wind and a strong tide.

A SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT.

LONDON, June 25.—The Standard says that the Afghan negotiations tend to an early and satisfactory settlement.

So Say We All of Us.

The Southern Pacific ought not long to postpone the building of the proposed branch from Forest Grove to Astoria. The country to be traversed is rich in agricultural lands, timber, coal and iron. There are few such vacant fields left in the United States.—Oregonian, 25.
